MARTLAND GAZETTE.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 17, 1788.

XXXXX B learn from Zirickzee in Zeeland, that the populace having met in sevew ral parts, have committed the greatest excesses. We have a list of 170 houses. SOLD WXXXX which they have pillaged; more than so have been pulled down to the ground; five persons have had their throats cut. Two hundred families who have escaped these mutineers, have retired to Antwerp, where the Austrian government have granted them an afylum and protection.

AMSTERDAM, Odober 11.

majesty, and the honour of his arms, of being assurd of the disarming the auxiliaries and free corps that shall be found in Amsterdam, I demand of the burgomasters and council of the city, for my entire satisfaction of the legal mode of their being disng disarmed, shall have been put in execution. fou see, gentlemen, I ask no more than what the ates require, and what other cities, such as Dordtecht and Rotterdam desired of me.

C. G. F. D. OF BRUNSWICK." In consequence of the above, on Wednesday nd in the afternoon 150 of the Prussian troops came to the city, took possession of that port, and the llowing capitulation was agreed upon, 1st, That the Prussian troops shall take possession the Leyden gate, with one hundred and fifty men d two pieces of cannon.

2d, That two fquadrons of light horse should be gartered at Overtoom. 3d, That none of the king's troops come into the y without permission of the magistrates. 4th, That the burgomasters and council of the ty shall take the necessary steps for the securing of e fluices, at Hazrlem and Muiden posts.

6th, That Monf. de Haaren, as commissioner on chalf of the duke of Brunswick, shall be instructed what extent they have proceeded in difarming the

On the day of the furrender, a skirmish took place the city between the citizens of the two parties; was occasioned by the faction placing wheel-barws, covered with earth, in those streets through mich the fladtholder's triends were advancing on prieback. This with some other insults, caused a attle to enfue, in which some lews were killed and thers wounded. Soon after, however, peace was purely restored; and on the eleventh, the Prussians ook entire possession of Amsterdam.

LONDON September 29. utral of a letter from Calcutta, dated January 28, he nuble earl was fearcely entered on his new au- he made to render us and our families happy.

lordship's refusal of a Nuzzer (present) of eight ther that affair was ever cleared up, suture historians thousand rupees; as, on the other hand, was lord will and some difficulty to determine. Cornwallis, at the Nabob's requesting he might be The coolness and hesitation of the Russian court permitted to spend his pension of sixteen lacks of has been for some time apparent, in their not renewters, who had been feeluded by the faction, resumed phenomenon. The minister (Hyder Beg) is come taken by the Porte. For this however, we have onlowing day the secluded counsellors were reinstated to get the court of Oude rid of the remains of those The deputation from the city of Amsterdam to the in their offices; the persons who had been appointed people that were saddled on it by Mr. Hallings. princess of Orange, was of the most humiliating naduke of Brunswick, dated Amsterdam the ninth lately established here, proposing to transact the bu- struments of impeding her intended journey to the finess of the treasury; and as an inducement, pro- Hague." pose to go occasionally a few lacks in advance for Yesterday the lord mayor went to the admiralty, spirit, and every possible exertion is made in the ma- Upon which the lord chance lor laid, that his lordrow at noon; and I pledge myself no one shall come rine department — The stag officers, who will go to ship might be at very good tradesman, but he was into the city; that the firstest discipline shall be ob. sea with admiral Pigot, are the ad

Extrast of a letter from the Hague, Sept. 25. The lord mayor acknowledged the great weight of has rendered us witnesses of almost incredible events, corder upon the subject. torning, a deputation of two burgomaffers, and which by annihilating those projects which made us. The lord mayor replied, that the recorder was out unbridled rage which guided them to attain (accord- pole. ing to their ideas) a liberty and privileges they in effect possessed.

the constancy of a beloved prince to those illustri ous ancestors the country owes all its grandeur and glory. Yes, Providence has rendered the efforts of dealt with according to law. a number of virtuous persons, effectual, and amongst 5th, That the burgomatters and council shall give the rest, the worthy illustrious count of Bentick, the duke of Brunswick, a daily account how lord of Rhoon, has distinguished himself in a manthe resolutions of the city are brought for ner which ought to make him precious in the eyes for apprehension and correction.

of those who love their country. In effect, he has Monday night wesh instructions were sent from happened, had he not opposed it himself from a manning the royal navy. them by nature.

could never finish, Sir, if I was to thew all important criss. the obligations the republic lay under to this worthy Oa. 12. Notwithstanding the lenity which has part of what lord Macartney was at Madrais, homages of thole who we is witnesses of the efforts to Flanders.

arton, and wine other members of the board of United Provinces is fo milerably calculated for war, than ever. ade, and Mr. Henchman, the paymalter-general, being a fystem of such delay as is incompatible with and it is faid, that they had no suspicion of any the Dutch, after having deposed their stadtholders, matter being against them, until the order of suf- have always been obliged to elect another, with cerpension passed the board. The secretaries, and ever tain powers to act decisively. The pretended labuse ry person in such public departments, have been of this power, in the case of the Durch navy during obliged to relinquish all their private concerns in the last war, was the first cause of the unpopularity trade, &c. The Nabob of Bengal has been to vific of the fladtholder, and to this fource all subsequent the governor-general, and was much surprised at his events to the present time are to be traced. When rupees a year as he chose, which his lordship imme- ing the treaty of commerce with us, which expired diately ordered. Mr. Colebrook was imprudent in 1784, and continues now only ad libitum. The A complete revolution has taken place in the po- enough to let his Moonshea (Persian clerk) take a empress being now is volved in a war, which will dirical and civil government of this city. The ma- present from the Nabob of ten thousand rupees, for require her to be perfectly disengaged from missingistrates, who had been removed from their offices which he lost his appointment of Persian translator to derstandings with any other court, must operate in by the party in opposition to the stadtholder, were the council. All this is such a strange reverse in Ben- our favour. This so obvious, that it is currently restored to their seats in the senate and city council. gal, that Nabob's, Rajah's, &c. are making daily reported at Paris and Constantinople, that Sir Ro-On the 9th instant the grand officers and burgomas, application for leave to come to Calcutta, to visit the bert Ainslie is at the bottom of the late decisive step by the faction to supercede them, made a virtue of Even the Nabob of Furruckabad, though a Feuda- ture, and cannot fail to render their high mightinecessity, they resigned without any struggle, and tory of Oude, is come to endeavour to turn out Mr. nesses contemptible in the eyes of all the world. gave up employments which they could no longer Willes (the judge's fon) who was placed over him, They absolutely express "A hope, that the wisdom, as a collector for the Nabob of Lucknow, by general and christian piety of that p incers, will lead her Tuesday last, the burgomasters receiv. Sloper, during his reign. Public credit rifes, and royal highness not to infill upon a punishment being the following letter; from his highness the is likely to acquire additional trength from the bank inflicted on the perfons who were unhappily the in-government, in the liquidation of current demands, and faw lord Howe, the lord chancellor, and Mr. to which the board have acceded. Lieutenant An- Ptt, &c. The bufiness with his lordship was, to derson, late resident at Scindia's court, is on his desire the lord mayor to back the preis warrants for way home, and is succeeded by captain Kirkpa- the city. The lord mayor doubted their legality, and hinted his opinion, whether in the present early armed, that the Leyden port or gate, be delivered to OA. 4. Our armament goes on with unremitting stage of war, there could be a necessity for them. ferved, and that the troops shall stay no longer after Hotham, Gower, Sir John Jervis, and Sir Charles judge of the necessity, and as to the warrants, he pronounced them to be legal.

Since the foundation of the world, I doubt the opinion, but before he gave an answer to the rewhether there ever happened a revolution fo sudden quelt which had been made to him, defired to have and so happy as that which took place here during time allowed him. The lord chancellor ob erved, last week. The thore space of twenty-four hours that his lordship might take the opinion of the re-wo of his council, waited on his highness, who was shudder, and by entirely everthrowing the constitu- of town at present. Lord Howe said, that many seaear the Leyden port, or gate, in order to fettle tion of our country, would at the same time have men had taken refuge in the city. The lord mayor very thing relative to the present circumstances; been the ruin of a great part of the nation. Is it answered, that if his lordship would inform him in possible. Sir, that a country, formerly reputable for what part of the city those seamen were, they should its good order, religion, and good manners, that be immediately apprehended, and brought before fuch a country, I say, could contain beings capable him, and such as were found fit and able to serve of facrificing, it entirely to their ambition, and to the his majetly, should be immediately sent for that pur-

Mr. Pitt said, that press warrants were legal ____ The lord mayor however still doubted, and withdre w. They have spared nothing to gain their end. The lord mayor has very judiciously ordered, that but, thanks to Heaven! Providence has supported all idle, disorderly people, be immediately apprehended by the peace officers, and bought before him, or some other of the city magistrates, to be

This is acting with great prudence and caution. The measure tends to clear the city of all improper people; of all such as are the true objects of the law, exposed himself to the most imminent danger, lord Sydney's office to the chairman of the sessions through a true zeal for the welfare of the republic, for the county of Middlesex, requiring the justices and scorned the atrocious injuties thrown out against to cause all seamen to be taken up, and sent to pro-Lim by those who endeavoured to destroy a happy per places for his majesty's service, and at the same constitution; he has prevented and hindered by his time to be particularly vigilent and active in picking Wife advice the effusion of blood, which must have up all such persons as may appear proper objects for principle of virtue. He only put himself at the head. The minister, however, is probably so much in of those who protected oppressed innocence, and who the possession of the disposition of the French court, raised their voices (which their opponents endea- as to enable him to determine respecting their future voured to fliffe) to recover the rights granted to conduct; and he will undoubtedly place Great-Britain in that state which she ought to be in on every man; but I fear to wound his modefly by enlarging been purpolely, and indeed by command, shewn to on that subject; suffice it to say, that if ever the re- the deluded populace in Holland by the duke of public entirely recovers (as there is every reason to Brunswick, ample justice is to be done on some of hope it will) from the shock it has so . slibly felt, the ringleaders of the conspiracies against the stadt-Lord Cornwallis is unremitting in his inquiries he has greatly contributed to it; and in confequence holder; to prevent which, many of them, knowing d'superintendence of every department, and seems Bentick de Rhoon deserves to be handed down to how well they merit such an acknowledgment of least as to integrity and diligence, to be the coun- the latest posterity, as having justly merited the services, have wisely taken their leave and repaired

By fate! ligence received by this day's poft, it ap-he charges are not yet known but to the parties, the necessary dispatch in cases of emergency, that to the cause of the stadtholder, is at last in a fair Van Berkel, who has been particularly inimical the subscriber unable to dif. the justices of t, to ne heid in to the act for ine last settion of RY SCOTT ber 14, 1787. colonel Lioyd's n corn; and on ed at public lale.

tract of land

a by the name of

ACE, containing es, on which are ro quarters, and lan i is nearly

at, corn and fine

be made known

may be feen a

O JOHNSON.

Price 7/6,

787.

20

ES.

CEEDINGS

n to

tion is in good

onday in March UR BRYAN.

DUE, on the

f. january n n three years and I known trad of ing 246 acres and fine toharoli , 25 of Batperton inclinable on or before the tkins, living on e of laid Wate en, women and meep; a variety n utenfis; cale ve pounds, bond ed for all above hin Watkins, on his father) are idebted are once

L, truftee for tkins ntier 8, 1787 ited, are requite minenced with 1 of Carrollton in a conveyance arroll of and it nd, more or kill eil's Ketirement according to faid Stevenion, by a certain behalf of Ale of Great-Bile

oll being ready

on the faid contuch person a fame. 4 DET. 24, 1787 anty of Taibot, to petition the aid state, prayho have any notice of the ber 8, 1787. ebts, means to county court, vent debtors. CCALLEY.

n the general to make good ed by them of 金和金金金金金金 is-Street.