JIGHT of MALTA. Two valuable imported jack-asses,

TATILL cover mares and jennies at Mount Vernon the enfuing ipring, for (on account of the scarcity of cash) three guineas the season, and two shillings and fix pence to the groom, for his care of, and attention to, the females.

The first is of the most valuable race in the kingdom of Spain—the other is of the best breed in the Island of ROYAL GIFT (now 6 years old) has increased in fize fince he covered last season, and not a jenny, and hardly a mare to which he went, miffed.

The KNIGHT of MALTA will be four years old this spring, about sourteen hands high, most beautifully formed for an ass, and extremely light, active and sprightly; comparatively speaking resimuling a fine courier.

These two jacks seem as if designed for different purposes, but equally waluable; the first, by his weight and great strength, to get mules for flow and heavy draught; the other, by his activity and iprightliness, for quicker movements. The value of mules on account of their longevity, strength, hardiness and cheap keeping, is too well known to need description.

MAGNOLIO.

TANDS at the same place for two guiness the seafon, and two shillings and fix-pence to the groom-The money, in both cases, to be paid before the jennies or mares are taken way, as no accounts will be Good pasture, well enclosed, will be provided at half a dollar per week, for the convenience of those who incline to leave their mares or jennies, and every reasonable care will be taken of them, but they will not be ensured against theits, escapes, or accidents. JOHN FAIRFAX, Overleer.
