By the UNITED STATES in CONGRESS assembled, May 8th, 1788:

On a report of the board of treasury, to whom was referred a motion of Mr. Carrington,

RESOLVED, That Congress proceed to the election of two commissioners for settling the accounts of the five great departments, to continue in office one year.

Ordered, That the commissioners of accounts for the quarter-master's, commissioners, hospital, marine and cloathing departments, with the approbation of the board of treasury, commence suits in behalf of the United States, against all persons in hop of the said departments who stand chargeable with public monies, and whose accounts shall not be lodged with the proper commissioners within four months, computed from the present date, and that this order be published in the several states for the period above mentioned.

Resolved, That the said commissioners be directed to continue their uniemitted attention to the final adjustment of all accounts which have arisen in the faid departments, and to the recovery of all sums for which fuits may be commenced, and that at the termination of their commission they deposit with the register of the treasury all the books and papers of their respective offices, together with a general ab-Aract of the sums due from individuals, in order that immediate measures may be adopted for the recovery

Congress proceeded to the election, and the ballots being taken,-

M. Jonathan Burrall was elected a commissioner for settling the accounts of the quarter-master's and commissaries department, and

Mr. Benjamin Walker was elected commissioner for settling the accounts of the hospital, marine, and cloathing departments.

CHARLES THOMSON, Secretary.

HEREAS the court of appeals did, at their last sitting, confirm the judgment of the general court, declaring that the purchasers of confiscated British property, subsequent to the consolidating act, have a right to pay the interest due on said purchases in certificates this is to give notice to all such purchasers, that the interest due, and for which actions were brought to compel payment, with the cost of suit, is to be paid within fix weeks from the date hereof, or immediately thereafter the actions will be proceeded on to compel the payment thereof: and whereas several years interest have become due on said purchases, and brought, this is also to inform said purchasers, that all the annual interest due, and that may become due by the 1st September next, must be paid on or before that day, or process will be ordered immediately thereafter.

Forty Silver Dollars, or Five Half Joes Reward,

OR apprehending one of the most principled fellows in the state of Maryland, a dark mulatto flave named DICK, who absconded yesterday evening; he is about five feet eight inches high, well made and active, is about 28 years of age, has a scar by the right eye, which is very obvious upon examination; had with him an old turn'd cloth coat, jacket and breeches, yarn stockings, ofnanrig shirt and trousers, a felt hat, a pair of shoes and steel buckles, with a few other cloathes, but if possible by any stroke of villainy to acquire more, I make no doubt he will effect it. If caught great care ought to be taken to secure him properly, as he is master of such ad ress that there is few people on whom he would not impose; he ran away about three months ago, and was brought from Red Stone, but I conjecture that he will now make to the eastern shore, or to the Delaware states or Pennsylvania, or endeavour to get on board some vessel. will give the above reward to any person who will put him in Baltimore gaol, so that I get him again, or in addition thereto all reasonable travelling charges when delivered to me in the upper part of Anne-Arundel county and state of Maryland.

CHARLES ALEXANDER WARRELD. N. B. All masters of vessels and others are fores warned harbouring or carrying him off at their peril.

HE subscriber intends petitioning the next general assembly on a matter very interesting him; such as are desirous to know the purport may be informed by personal application. April 30, 1788. THOMAS RUTLAND.

Port- Tobacco, February 25, 1788. HE subscribers being appointed, by the honourable chancellor, trustees for Nicholas Serlott, an infolvent debtor, do request all persons indebted to the estate of the said Nicholas Serlott to make immediate payment, that they may have it in their power to complete the fettlement of the faid trust; all those who have claims against the said Serlott are requested to bring them in legally authenticated, otherwise they cannot be entitled to a dividend. Constant attendance will be given in Port-Tobacco for the purpose of receiving the debts due to the estate of the said Serlott, and in case of the absence of both of us, payments made to Mr. John Beale Turner will be good.
