Meffrs. GREEN. BE pleased to publish in your next paper the following extracts of an act passed last session, entitled. An additional supplementary act to the act for building a new church in the city of Annapolis.

Be it enacted. That the said trustees may file a bill in equity against any person or persons, their agents or attornies, in the county court where they respectively reside, and the justices of the faid courts respectively, shall and they are hereby authorised and required to proceed in a fummary way, at the first court, to compel a discovery of the materials taken. and payment of the fum adjudged to be due, with all legal cone, and execution thall thereupon iffue, returnable to the next court, any law limiting the jurisdiction of the county court notwith anding.

And be it enacled. That it shall and may be lawful for the faid trustees to recover from any of the fubscribers to the said church on the new subscription. who shall be in arrear after the twentieth day of June next, the fum or fums due from him or them, in the court aforefaid, together with all legal costs, by way of motion to the court, provided that the person against whom such motion shall be made hath ten days previous notice thereof; provided also, that if the person against whom such motion may be made, or his attorney, shall desire a jury to be empannelled, the court shall direct a jury to be immediately sworn to try whether he did assume to pay, and whether he hath paid; and it shall be lawful for the faid court to direct judgment to be entered on the verdict rendered with costs, and execution shall thereupon issue, returnable to the next court.

It is with much concern the truffees find themselves obliged to inform all those who are delinquent subscribers, or purchasers of materials, that unless payment be made before the next county court, they shall be under the necessity of having recourse to the speedy remedy given by the above act.

SAMUEL CHASE, WILLIAM PACA, UPTON SCOTT, trustees. JOHN RIDOUT. THOMAS HYDE,

By the UNITED STATES in CONGRESS affembled, june 24, 1788.

ON a report of the board of treasury, to whom was referred a letter of Andrew Dunscomb, Esquire, commissioner of the state of Virginia for settling their accounts with the United States, addressed to his excellency the governor of the faid state, and dated on the 23d of May last;

Resolved, That the several states be allowed three months in addition to the time limited by the ordinance of the feventh of May, 1787, for exhibiting to the faid district commissioners their respective accounts against the United States; and that three months be added to the twelve months mentioned in the faid ordinance, for terminating the committion of the said district commissioners. Resolved, That the several states be authorised to transmit to the accomptant of the treasury; the commissioner of army accounts, and to the general board of commissioners to be appointed in pursuance of the ordinance of the feventh of May, 1787, fuch additional vouchers or other testimony as they may think necessary to support any claims by them exhibited to the respective officers aforesaid-Provided the same be transmitted at least fix months previous to the termination of the office of the general board, as fixed by the ordinance above mentioned.

CHERRISES THE CONSCIONAL SEC
