By the UNITED STATES in CONGRESS affembled, May 8th, 1788.

On a report of the board of treatury, to whom was referred a motion of Mr. Carrington,

RESOLVED, That Congress proceed to the election of two commissioners for settling the accounts KNIGHT of MALTA, of the five great departments, to continue in office KNIGHT of MALTA, one year.

Ordered, That the commissioners of accounts for the board of treasury, commence fuits in behalf of the United States, against all persons in any of the faid departments who stand chargeable with public monies, and whose accounts shall not be lodged with the proper commissioners within four months, computed from the present date, and that this order be published in the several states for the period above mentioned. Resolved, That the said commissioners be directed to continue their unremitted attention to the final adjustment of all accounts which we brisen in the faid departments, and to the recovery of all fams for which fuits may be commenced, and that at the termination of their commission they deposit with the register of the treasury all the books and papers of their respective offices, together with a general ab-Mract of the sums due from individuals, in order that immediate measures may be adopted for the recovery of the same.

Congress proceeded to the election, and the ballots being taken,-

M. Jonathan Burrall was elected a commissioner for fettling the accounts of the quarte meter's and commissaries department, and

Mr. Benjamin Walker was elected commissioner for fettling the accounts of the hespital, marine, and cloathing departments.
