On a report of the board of treasury, to whom was referred a motion of Mr. Carrington,

RESOLVED, That Congress proceed to the election of two commissioners for settling the accounts of the five great departments, to continue in office one year. Ordered, That the commissioners of accounts for and cloathing departments, with the approbation of ble plated harnels (with a nag's head as a creft) to drive the board of treatury, commence fuits in behalf of the United States, against all persons in any of the faid departments who stand chargeable with public monies, and whose accounts shall not be lodged with the proper commissioners within four months, computed from the present date, and that this order be published in the several states for the period above adjustment of all accounts which have arisen in the faid departments and to the recovery of all sums for which fuits may be commenced, and that at the terimmediate measures may be adopted for the recovery of the same.

Congress proceeded to the election, and the ballots being taken, M. Jonathan Burrall was elected a commissioner or settling the accounts of the quarter-master's and commissaries department, and Mr. Benjamin Walker was elected commissioner for settling the accounts of the hospital, marine, and cloatning departments.
