PROCLAMATION.

Calahan, late of Queen-Anne's county, was, on the ther tract adjoining, (also some negroes,) the whole fixth of this instant, August, murdered-And where- contains between nine hundred and a thouland acres. as I have good reason to believe the above murder was committed by a certain Edward Aldridge, alias Leg, who made his escape from Queen-Anne's county gaol a few days before the murder was perpetrated, and was larking in the neighbourhood until the night of Calahan's decease; he then stole a small bay horse and departed. He was committed to the faid gaol fruit trees of excellent forts, besides apple and peach on suspicion of having released George Robinson orchards; this seat would afford many good meadows and John Davenport, from Talbot county gaol, some time last spring. The said Aldridge was frequently heard to threaten the life of Calahan, if ever he got out of gaol, for his activity in having him apprehended. The said Aldridge is a dark mulatto, between thirty and forty years of age, near fix feet high, well set, strong and active; he has a bushy head, and a remarkable scar on his thigh, occasion- the balance on the twentieth of November, seventeen ed by a burn .- For bringing to justice therefore, the hundred and ninety-one. THEREAS some malicious and evil disposed perfons have maliciously, scandalously and diabolically, to the great prejudice of me, the subscriber, propagated fundry falsehoods respecting my conduct as collector of the taxes, particularly, that my being in arrears to the state was caused by my converting the public money to my own use, in making large purchales, and improving the same, in the town of Dumfries, in Virginia. In contradiction whereof, I refer the candid reader to the following certificate, under the hand and seal of the clerk of the court where it is said the purchase was made; the original of which I have in my possession, for the inspection of those who may choose to see it, and in the following words, to
