Baltimore, October 1, 1788. HE public are hereby informed, that a STAGE for Annapolis will start from Baltimore on Mondays and Fridays, at 8 o'clock, from the house of Mr. JOHN STARCK, (Indian-Queen,) and will arrive in Annapolis the same days; and on Tuesdays and Saturdays will start from Mr. George Mann's, at 8 o'clock, for Baltimore-town.-Price of each passenger ten shillings, and in proportion for one hundred and fifty weight of baggage. The proprietor of those stages for the convenience of passengers, and the transportation of the public mail, has provided a complete STAGE COACH, and able horses, by which he means to continue a regular and constant communication between the above places, with attention and dispatch.—He hopes his exertion therein will not fail to merit the generous patronage of che public. HENRY STOUFFER.

Charles county, October 15, 1788. NTOTICE is hereby given, that the subscriber, late inspéctor at Chickamuxon warehouse, intends to apply, by petition, to the next general affembly of Maryland, praying relief from the damages he has sustained by the loss of tobacco from the said warehouse, and other places near the said warehouse, at which, tobacco during the war, and while he was inspector, was directed to be lodged, which tobacco was Rolen or destroyed by means that the subscriber could SAMUEL LUCKETT. not prevent.

October 20, 1788. Two Hundred Dollars Reward.

HE subscriber, of Prince-George's county, in the month of October, 1787, had a tobaccohouse, full of tobacco, consumed by fire in the night; and on the night of the 28th of August last, he had seven stacks of wheat and rye destroyed in the same manner, and an attempt at the faine time was made to burn a new and valuable tobacco-house with three hogsheads of packed tobacco, a quantity of plantation, utenfils, and a variety of other valuable property, therein. On the night preceding the evening when the aforesaid tobacco-house was burnt, Notley Young, Esquire, for whom the subscriber is manager, lost a tobacco-house by fire. The subscriber is fully convinced that these misfortunes were not occasioned by accident, but that some depraved and hardened wretch has secretly and wilfully attempted his ruin by the commission of those enormities. The above reward of TWO HUNDRED DOLLARS is hereby offered to any person who will apprehend and secure the perpetrator or perpetrators of the crimes above mentioned, so that they be brought to condign punishment. NATHAN SOPER.
