BY HIS EXCELLENCY WILLIAM SMALL WOOD, Esquires GOVERNOR OF MARYLAND,

A. PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS it has been represented by Nathan Soper, of Prince-George's county, planter, that some time in the month of October last, he had a tobacco house, full of tobacco and other property, confumed by fire in the night; that on the evening preceding this misfortune, a tobacco house belonging to Notley Young, Efq; full of tobacco, in which the faid Soper (being manager for Mr. Young) was interested; had likewise been destroyed by fire; that further, on the twenty-eighth day of August last he fost seven flacks of wheat and rye in the fame manner, and at the same time he had a new tobacco house, contaming a quantity of packed tobacco and other valuable property set on fire, which last he by a timely discovery prevented from being confumed: And whereas the faid Soper declares himself firmly persuaded that these misfortunes have not been occasioned by accident, but that they have proceeded from some person or persons maliciously bent on effecting his ruin. I have therefore, with the advice of the council, thought fit to iffue this my proclamation, offering a reward of SIXTI DOLLARS for the discovery of the perpetrator of perpetrators of the aforesaid outrages, so that he, she or they, may be convicted thereof.

GIVEN under the seal of the state of Maryland, this thirtieth day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty-eight.

By his Excellency's command, T. JOHNSON, jun. Secretary. GOD SAVE THE STATE.

Annapolis, October 1, 1788. BSERVING a number of debtors to the state, as well as other individuals, are often in want of some kind of certificates, and at a loss where to get them on proper terms for their money, and the holders of certificates when in want of cash for them, are likewise at a loss for a market, for want of some particular place to apply, where they could be on a certainty of getting an exchange on reasonable terms.

The subscriber being well acquainted with the different kind of certificates and their passing value, has induced him to offer his service to provide, and inform, those that do or may want, that, by lodging the needful he will supply them with certificates, or cash, at a short notice, on reasonable terms, on paying a moderate commission. There being a number, who have payments to make in certificates to the treatury, that live at a confiderable distance, many of whom wish to make payments as they provide money for that purpose, are prevented for want of the certificates, and not being convenient to ride 50 or 100 miles to get. them and make a small payment; those who are thus fituated that wish to be provided with certificates, and have them placed to their credit, by forwarding the money at any time may depend on being furnished with certificates, and payment made to their orders, on as good terms as if they were prefent, by their Humble servant,

JAMES WILLIAMS. An apolis, April 19, 1788.

HE subscribers being very anxious that an immediate payment of what is due them be made, that they may be enabled to comply with their engagements; in order to facilitate the collection, have appointed Mr. JOHN WATKINS, to call upon those who have accounts with them, for the fame, whose receipt shall be good; they beg that this notice be particularly attended to, as it is not in their power to give any further indulgence; those who incline to call and pay at Annapolis, will always find a person at their late store on the Dock, or at the treasury-office, ready to receive. THOMAS and BENJAMIN HARWOOD.
