experience of your fignal services. It is particularly for such a propagation. suggested by the pious impressions under which you commence your administration, and the enlightened maxims by which you mean to conduct it. We feel you the strongest obligations to adore the invisible hand which has led the American people through to many difficulties, to cherish a conscious responsibility for the delieny of republican liberty, and to feek the only fure means of preserving and recommending the precious deposit in a system of legislation, founded on the trinciples of an honest policy, and directed by the spirit of a diffused patriotism.

The question arising out of the fifth article of the constitution, will receive all the attention demanded by its importance, and will, we trust, be decided under the influence of all the confiderations to which you

In forming the pecuniary provisions for the executive department, we shall not lose sight of a wish resulting from motives which give it a peculiar claim to our regard .- Your resolution, in a moment critical to the liberties of your country, to renounce all personal emolument, was among the many presages of your patriotic services, which have been amply fulfilled; and your serupulous adherence now to the law then imposed on yourself, cannot fail to demonstrate the purity, while it increases the lustre of a character, which has fo many titles to admiration. Such are the sentiments which we have thought fit to address to you: They flow from our own hearts, and we verily believe, that among the millions we represent, there is not a virtuous citizen whose heart will disows them. All that remains is, that we join in your fervent supplication for the blessings of Heaven on our counand that we add our own for the choicest of those bleffings on the most beloved of her citizens.

To which his excellency was pleased to make the following reply:

GENTLEMEN, YOUR very affectionate address produces emotions which I know not how to express. I feel that my past endeavours in the service of my country are far overpaid by its goodness: and I fear much that my future ones may not fulfil your kind anticipation. All that I can promise is, that they will be invariably directed by an honest and an ardent zeal.—Of this resource my heart affures me. For all beyond, I rely on the wifdom and patriousm of those with whom I am to cooperate, and a continuance of the bleffings of Heaven on our beloved country.

G. WASHINGTON. After this, the president retiring, the members of the house returned to their scats.

A motion which was laid on the table the 4th inft. respecting a request to the president, that he would procure an estimate of exports and imports, entries and clearances, from the several Rases in the union, for 22 months previous to the fourth of March last, was taken up, and after fundry amendments, one of which was appointing a committee to attend to the business, the motion was adopted.

The order of the day was then called for, and the house went into a committee of the whole, when the second reading of the bill ascertaining the rates of impost was attended to.

Dr. Tucker proposed, that the duty on distilled spirits, Jamaica proof, should be reduced to fix cents per gallon—this brought on a debate which lasted will the bouic adjourned.

SATURDAY, -MAY Q.

The bill for the collection of the impost was read a second time and ordered to be referred to a committee of the whole.

The house then went into a committee on the impost

Mr. Page in the chair. A proposition was made to lower the whole of the enumerated articles about one fifth; arguments were advanced in support of this measure by Mr. Ames, Mr. Gerry and Mr. Boudinot, they feared they were laid too high for collection, and that they would defeat the object of revenue which gentlemen had in view.

Mr. Fitzsimons, Mr. Madison and Mr. Sherman, were for the duties remaining as fixed by the committee and by the house, the subject had already been difcussed three times and nothing new was now offered so induce a change of fentiments, they did not think the duties were too high, nothing if compared to what other nations paid, at best whether they were so or not was more matter of opinion, but even these high duties it was to be feared, would prove insufficient for the public wants.

The morning was spent in this discussion, when at length upon repeated calls for the question it was put, and the committee divided, 19 for reducing the duties and 26 against it.

PITTSBURGH, April 18. Extraß of a letter from Kentucky, dated March 2.

arrived here—and in return, they took large quantities horses were laden with arricles they had plundered the marked with a crop, a slit and an under-bit, in the right of tabases, beef, corn, &c., and that, from every and inhabitants of Indian marked with a crop, a slit and an under-bit, in the right of tobacco, beef, corn, &c. and that, from every appearance, this traffic was likely to be continued and carried on with the greatest alacrity, which cannot fail proving of the most infinite mutual advantage.

due to the occasion. It is already appleuded by the April 25. A report being circulated the beginning universal joy which welcomes you to your station, and of this week, that the Indians had killed a white man we cannot doubt that it will be rewarded with all the who was working at captain James O'Harra's faw mill, fatisfaction, with which an ardent love for your fellow - about one mile from this town, on the opposite fide of citizens must review successful efforts to promote their the Allegany river, it is with singular pleasure we can. contradict is and affure the public that no circumstraca This anticipation is not justified merely by the past whatever has happened, that could give the least ground

PHILADELPHIA, May 9. The king of Sweden has published an ordinance, ordering four fast days to be held during the present year. The critical situation of affairs has induced his majesty to judge it necessary. It concludes with the following words, deserving of being handed down to posterity, for their dignity of sentiment, and patriotic

" May a pure and sincere affection for our country, Arengthen those ties of friendship, which bind us to you and you with one another! fleeting is this short, terrestrial and laborious life; and with it vanishes that inequality of rank, which Providence has placed between you and us. May we then be enabled to render an account to our common Judge, without reproaches to lay to our own charge, we, for the commands that we have given, and the obedience we have required, on our part; you, on the manner in which you have shewn your obedience."

Extract of a letter from a reputable bouse in Lisbon, to their friend in this city, dated March 24, 1789.

"The Portuguese squadron is on the eve of sailing for their station in the Straits, to keep the Algerines in, so that your flag may come very safe to Portugal and Spain, without the Straits; the risk is thought so little of here, that we can get it wrote at one if not at one half per cent. Please to have this information put in your public papers, to spread through the United States, to act against the false advertisements in the European papers, to intimidate adventulers, and raise the premium of insurance."

The BOTTLE GREEN, it is said, will be for a while the colour of the national dress of the United States. It was worn by our beloved president on the day of his inauguration. It accords with the present state of our country, just coming out of a wilderness condition, but exhibiting at the same time, marks of life, vigour and beauty, and promising a plentiful harvest of national prosperity.

A malt-house and brewery are now erecting in this city, by Messrs. Samuel Morris and son, which will be 104 feet in front, and 90 in depth. This noble building, devoted to one of the most useful manufactures, proves in the clearest manner the increased consumption of malt liquors, and fully justifies the duty about to be imposed upon spirits by the congress of the United States.

In the house of representatives of the United States on Tuesday last, Mr. Benson, from the committee appointed to consider and report, whether any or what Ityle or titles should be given to the president and vicepresident, reported, that it would be improper to give any other than those mentioned in the constitution .-This report the house accepted.

We hear the state of Connecticut are about presenting every member of the new congress with cloth sufficient for a fuit of closths, and that it is to be the ma nufacture of that state, and of one colour.

May 13. A gentleman, who has lately visited the country between the Delaware and the Susquehanna, has calculated that there are SUGAR MAPLE TREES enough in the state of Pennsylvania to make as much sugar as could be consumed in the United States. This maple sugar has been examined in Philadelphia, and yields leaves equal in quality to that which is made from the juice of the West-India sugar cane. To freemen, its sweetness ought to be enhanced by the reflection, that it is not stained with the sweat and blood of negro flaves.

Extract of a letter from Madras, dated September 28. " Since writing the foregoing, I have to inform you, that hostilities are once more commenced between the English and Tippoo Saib, (the late Hyder Ally's son) who, from the time of the English first settling upon the coast, to this day, has been their most inveterate enemy, having always declared them the ravagers of the country. He is allowed to be the greatest military genius of the cast, and commands the greatest army of any of the castern princes. During the late Carnatic war, the English had every thing to fear from fo formidable an enemy-Hyder himself could command an army of 200,000 men, while his son, at the head of a numerous army, over-run the whole Carnatic, and burst like a torrent upon their enemies, taking some of the most capital places. The great D AN away from the subscriber yesterday morning, pains which Hyder always took to train his son up to a negro man named NED, about five seet sour avenge his country's wrongs, does him honour. That or five inches high, and about thirty years of age; had prince has always declared his predilection for the on and took with him a white yarn jacket, one co-French. Since our arrival, a detatchment has been cus shirt, one ofnabrig ditto, an old pair of corduroy fent to the northward, to reinforce the English in that breeches, patched behind with a piece of country made quarter. A battle since has taken place, and two battalions of the company's troops have been entirely cut off: the English have, however, some advantage on their side, as they have taken two of Tippoo Saib's WINCHESTER, May 13. Extract of a letter from Morgan-town, to the Printer hereof, dated May 4, 1789.

between the inhabitants of this country and those of the Spanish settlements at New-Orleans; several boats, leaded with goods, to a very considerable amount, have arrived here—and in return, they took large quantities horses were laden with arricles they had plundered the horses were laden with arricles they had plundered the horses were laden with arricles they had plundered the horses were laden with arricles they had plundered the horses were laden with arricles they had plundered the horses were laden with arricles they had plundered the horses were laden with arricles they had plundered the horses were laden with arricles they had plundered the horses were laden with arricles they had plundered the horses were laden with arricles they had plundered the horses were laden with arricles they had plundered the horses were laden with arricles they had plundered the horses were laden with arricles they had plundered the horses were laden with arricles they had plundered the horses were laden with arricles they had plundered the horses were laden with arricles they had plundered the horses were laden with arricles they had plundered the horses were laden with arricles they had plundered the horses were laden with arricles they had plundered the horses were laden with arricles they had plundered the horses were laden with arricles they had plundered the horses were laden with arricles they had plundered the horses were laden with arricles they had plundered the horses were laden with arricles they had plundered the horses were laden with arricles they had plundered the horses were laden with arricles they had plundered the horses were laden with arricles they had plundered the horses were laden with arricles they had plundered the horses were laden with arricles they had plundered the horses were laden with arricles they had plundered the horses were laden with arricles they had plundered the horses were laden with a horses were laden with " The Indians have lately paid us a vifit -- about 15 inhabitants of, Indian match coats, &c. &c. all of ear, and a hole in the left, appraised to ave pounds. which fell into the hands of the pursuers .-- A skirmish took place between the favages and those who followed them,-no body killed on either fide."

Mr. GARDETTE.

at present at Annapolis, where he means to re-Tweeks to he has taken lodgings at Ms. C MANN's. His dentifrice, carefully put up in pewter pots, may be had, with directions, at the bar; and in nature at the post-office in Baltimore-Price 7/6.

Annapolis, May 18, 1789.

By virtue of a writ of menditioni expones, from Washing. ton county court, to me directed, will be SOLD, b PUBLIC SALE, on the premises, on Monday the 15th of June next.

TRACT of LAND called PART of the RE. SURVEY on WELL DONE, lying and being in the county aforefaid, within about fix miles of the town of Sharpsburgh, containing one hundred and le venty-thece acres, more or less, with convenient build ings and other necessary improvements thereon; seited and taken in execution as the property of Andrew Brautner, at the fuit of Nicholas Shefler.
DANIEL STULL DANIEL STULL, Sheriff.

To be SOLD, on the 9th day of June, at the lie plantation of GEORGE SNELL, deceased. CIX valuable SLAVES, one a good carpenter and wheelright, a waggon almost new, a timber on riage, fome leather, and other things too tedious to mention: short credit will be given with good security. Also to be rented, a SAW-MILL, where there is plen. ty of timber to be fawed; this mill may be had an easy terms, by applying to HELLEN SCOTT, Administratrix.

Washington county, May 9, 1789.

Calvert county, May 19, 1780. On Monday the 15th day of June next will be SOLD. at PUBLIC SALE, at Prince-Frederick-town, in Calvert county, for ready money, NEGRO MAN, named CHARLES, committed to my cultody as a runaway, on the 6th f January last. The faid negro to be fold for the purpose of discharging his prison fees.

From STRASBURG.

Late from PHILADELPHIA. ESPECTFULLY informs the public, that he now resides in this city, and presents himself to the service of all who may please to employ him as DOCTOR of PHYSIC, SURGERY and MID WIFERY. As he has by long experience (being more than twenty years in the army) became well acquainted with the practic part of the different branches, u well as the theory, he hopes to be a useful member of community. As the doctor has effected many cures of the cancer, and is particularly well agguainted with that disease, and has credentials for his superior abilities in curing all cancers, whether internal or external, he hopes to be of ferrice to all who may make application to him for his prescriptions. w3

N. B. There is now, in this city, some on whom he has been successful enough to effect a cure, though thought beyond all hope. The doctor has medicine for TOTICE is hereby given, that we, the commissioners appointed to build a court house, prison and prison yard, at the Head of Elk, in Cacil county, intend to petition the general affembly at their next felsion, for a further sum of money to be levied on the inhabitants of faid county, to enable us to faith and complete faid court house, prison and prison yard.

JOSEPH GILPIN, ZEBULON HOLLINGSWORTH, PIGERNARD OLDHAM, JOSEPH BAXTER. Cæcil county, May 1, 1789.

APRIVATE BOARDING-HOUSE, ACCOMMODATIONS

TRAVELLERS, Am REST BYMA MARGARET SYMMER.

Upper-Marlborough, May 13, 1789. Six Dollars Reward.

white cloth, a pair of white yarn stockings, old shoes, and an old wool hat. Whoever takes up and secures faid negro, in any gaol, to that I get him again, shall have the above reward, and all reasonable charges, il brought home, paid by DANIEL SMITH, jun.

N. B. All masters of vessels and others are forewarned from harbouring or captying off faid negro, 25 Montgomery county, May 7, 1789. they will answer it at their peril.

The owner may have shem by proving his property and paying charges.

county, decease gally proved, earnesty desired

HERE is fon of Jo Ridge, taken up years old, fourt branded, has be may have her a charges.

BACCO.

Post-Tobacco LL perfor realed, are requ ficated, and tho nestly called on t the claims aga dulgence which from the decease the proper atten neglect may der them to Novem

Annapolis, N PUBLI lowing

To be SOLD,

able the char

ROE

the 22d day Baltimore-tov LL the re LAND and LO All that TR Worthington's ty acres of land LAND called acres and an TRACT of L taining feventy or lefs. The a the Bay, in Pa Baltimore-town are remarkably which they p called Industry from the forme and forty-two ter tract is cred buildings, part all that TRA containing two county; on this of fruit, and a and it is well &c. &c. the bu luable; all th fituate on the erected a brick and is in high and 27, acco and also one n or PARCELS WATER LO

> crected; also on the plot of on the Head of able brick was The whole chaler or purch ty on interest, and two years. the lots will b particular enu

> > Baltimore-t

No. 53 and 5

Point; on this wooden dwell

and also a . w

THE fut to the estate prohibited by of Maryland, bella his wife bunness with chancellor the lons concerne engly.