R AN away, on Wednesday the 20th instant, the following slaves—NEHEMIAH, a black sellow, under six seet high, down look, and rather ill made, plays on the violin, and is very fond of liquor; his cloaths are not known. FRANK, a mulatto middle sized sellow, with gray eyes; his cloaths are also not known. The former is about thirty years of age, the latter about twenty. The above slaves were lately taken up and put in prison in Harford county, and when they went off were in irons, a collar and spancel on each. Whoever secures the said slaves so that they are got again, shall be paid four guineas, or if brought home to their masters, six guineas, or three guineas for either of them.

N. B. It is now suspected they have made for Alexandria, and probably will attempt to get on board some vessel, but all masters of which are hereby forewarned receiving them.

Pursuant to the will of RICHARD BENNETT LLOYD, Esquire, deceased, the subscriber will EXPOSE to PUBLIC SALE, on the premises, on Monday the 27th of July next, if fair, if not the next fair day,

A PART of that very valuable TRACT of LAND called Worton Manor, in Kent county, delightfully fituated on the Chesapeake Bay; the soil of this land can be exceeded by none, being well adapted to every species of grain, tobacco and grass; and what renders it still more valuable is the immense quantity of sine timber growing on it of every kind, a good navigation, and well situated for a variety of markets.—
It will be laid off into small and convenient lots, and sold on a credit of three years, by annual instalments. Good and approved securities will be required.
