ISAAC COLLING INTRENTON.

CONTAINING he OLD and NEW TESTAMENT WITHTHE Apocrypha and Marginal Notes.

CONDITIONS: I. This work, to be contained in one large w Quarto, of nine hundred and eighty-four pages, w be reprinted page for page with the Oxford edition on a beautiful new type, and good paper. An inde will be added; and also the Scripture measures, weights

II. The price to subscribers, for the volume, well bound, four Spanish dollars; one dollar to be paid at the time of subscribing, the remainder on delivery of the book.

III. The work to be put to press as soon as three thousand copies shall be subscribed for, and to be sinished without delay.

The Editor has been encouraged, by a number of respectable characters, to offer the above proposals to the public, under a conviction that a handsome American edition of the Bible, in Quarto, will, at this time, be both feasonable and acceptable, as no part of the money will go out of the country.

This confideration, it is hoped, will be an induced ment to subscribe, and of course promote the more frequent reading of this most invaluable book in private families. He therefore wishes to attract the attention, and obtain the countenance of people of all denominations; not doubting but that, in the execution of the work, he will be able to give ample latif. faction, both as to its accuracy and neatness.

Subscriptions will be received by Hugh Gaine and Edmund Prior, New-York; by Joseph Crukshank and William Young, Philadelphia; by Townsend and Patton, Baltimore; and by the editor in Trenton.

It is requested, that the leading characters of all the different denominations of Christians in the United States, who may feel disposed to promote this undertaking, will, as early as may be, grant their affiftance in procuring subscriptions--and that the several printers of news-papers in the union will be pleased to insert the above proposals in their papers.

To all whom it may concern.

Mr. Isaac Collins has, for many years last past, been, and still is, printer to the state of New-Jersey: Having by this means had the more frequent opportunities to fee his work, I have had abundant proof of the accuracy and correctness of his publications, as well as of his remarkable attention to business.
