Pomonkey Neck, November 16, 1789.

HEREBY give public notice, and warn any body inclinable to rent Mr. RICHARD BRANDT's FISHING LANDINGS on the Patowmack, as advertised in the Maryland Gazette of the 6th instant, to beware how they will bargain with him, as I am determined to oppose any encroachments which may be attempted by him (faid Brandt) upon the orphan's estate now under my directions, as Mr. Brandt has been very industrious these several years to spread about, under the appearances of truth, his illegal claims to a landing lawfully fold and made over to Kenhelm Truman Stoddert by Allison Ford, both deceased. Whoever rents his landings may likely, through his crafty infinuations, be brought into trouble.

As to the advantages which may refult by fishing at said landings. I think it my duty to say, that they are too far extolled in Mr. Brandt's advertisement, therewith I have been acquainted by three years experience upon said shore. Profitable fisheries have been formerly carried on there, but now the time is past, and not likely to return for causes which may be explained whenever required, by
