HEREBY give public notice, and warn any b dy inclinable to rent Mr. RICHARD BRANDI's FISHING LANDINGS on the Patowmack, as advertised in the Maryland Gazette or the oth instant. to beware how they will bargain with him, as I am determined to oppose any encroachments which may be attempted by him (faid Brandt) upon the orphan's estate now under my directions, as M. Brande has been very industrious these several years to spread about. under the appearances of truth, his illegal claims to a landing lawfully fold and made over to Kenhelm Truman Stoddert by Allison Ford, both deceased. Whoever rents his landings may likely, through his craity infinuations, be brought into trouble.

As to the advantages which may refult by fishing at faid landings, I think it my duty to fay, that they are too far extolled in Mr. Brandt's advertisement, therewith I have been acquainted by three years experience upon said shore. Profitable fisheries have been formerly carried on there, but now the time is pait. and not likely to return for causes which may be explained whenever required, by

PETER DE JEAN.
