conduct, to publish the following state of facts, viz.

We got a triend, Me. Peter Brown, to purchase four of the hogsheads of tobacco which had been offered to us and retuted, and afterwards passed and received at the aforesaid warehouse, who, in company with one of us, on the 20th day of October last, demanded the faid four hogheads of tobacco of the faid receivers, but they refuled to deliver them until he had first given them up the notes which they had given on pailing them: When he had done this, the tobacco was opened, and by him refused, as being unmerchantable, unfound and mixed with trash, in the presence of many bye-standers, who were witnesses of the transaction; but they, the receivers, having got possession of the notes, refused to consent to their being reviewed by merchants of George-town. The four hogheads tobacco were then put under the care of Benjamin Stoddert, Esq. where they remained until the 20th of this month, on which day Mr. Brown carried them to the Old George-town warehouse, and offered them to the receivers there for inspection, when they were carefully viewed and examined by colonel George Beall .--One of the faid receivers, acting under the lame oath taken by us, and the receivers at the New-Georgetown warehouse,) and all the said four hogsheads of tobacco were by him refused to be passed, and received as found, clear of trash and merchantable.

Should any person or persons contradict the above narrative, the several facts contained in it can and will be proven. SAMUEL SHEKELL, RICHARD WALKER. Bladensburg, November 23, 1789.

To the Honourable the CHANCELLOR of Maryland. TITE, the subscribers, appointed trustees to Charles Philipshill, an insolvent debtor, of Worcester county, who returned a certain William M'Bryde, of Someriet county, as indebted to him in the fum of 2500l. current money, do hereby certify, that the faid M'Bryde has attended twice in Port-Tobacco, agreeable to appointments made with the subscribers and said 'HE subscriber, having not as yet disposed of the Philipshill, and that the said Philipshill did not produce any papers or vouchers against the said M'Bryde, but puts off a settlement, alleging, that his papers lay at Baltimore, in the hands of Benjamin Dashiel, from whom he was to get them, give Mr. M'Bryde notice of having them in his possession, and early last spring to have waited on us in Port-Tobacco, to settle the accounts between them. This was what was argued upon in October, 1788, since which time we have neither seen nor heard from him-That the said M'Bryde came here in September last desiring a settlement, in consequence of which we wrote the said Philipshill, appointing the 1st day of November for a settlement, and informed him, in case he did not attend we should lodge a complaint with your honour against him, yet he has never attended, and said M'Bryde came agreeable to appointment, and appeared ready and defirous for a settlement, as he did before in the presence of faid Philipshill-We therefore beg your honour to release us from this business, undertaken at the solicitation of said Philipshill, who complained of unjust treatment from said M'Bryde, other wife to compel said Philipshill to appear with his vouchers against the said M Bryde, and all other persons, that we may be enabled to settle as they apply, having nothing put into our hands but a few papers from the chancery-office. ZEPH. TURNER,

JOHN ROBERTSON. Port-Tobacco, November 17, 1789.

STATE OF MARYLAND. TTE, Zephaniah Turner and John Robertson, of Charles county, being called upon by Charles Philipshill, of Worcester county, and William M'Bryde, of Somerset county, to settle and adjust certain disputes between the parties, respecting matters properly chargeable in account. Having heard the allegations of both parties, and no account current being stated to us by the faid Philipshill, but only verbal claims against the said M'Bryde, without vouchers to ascertain the same, several of which have been disproved by the account current of said M'Bryde, with the said Philipfhill; and the faid M'Bryde having exhibited to us a clear state of the matter on his part, wherein it appears that the faid Philipshill is indebted to him, the faid M'Bryde, so far as papers and vouchers have appeared to us, produced by both parties, there appears to be due from faid Philipshill to the said M'Bryde the fum of. [. 840 9 6, fay eight hundred and forty pounds nine shillings and fix-pence current money .-Given under our hands this twentieth day of November, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-nine. ZEPH.
