about five feet eight inches high, a well made likely fellow, twenty-five years old; had on two brown cloth and one fearnought jackets, new country linen thirt, I THAL noted Welch cotton breeches, yarn flockings, negro shoes L Landing, kr and felt hat. Whoever takes up and secures the said. House, formerly occupied b negro, fo that his mafter gets him again, if ten miles from home twenty thillings, it out of the view the premises before agreeing, a p county forty shillings, and if out of this state the above tion is judged unnecessary. None need apply but such charges, if brought home, paid by BRICE T. B. WORTHINGTON

January 10, 1790.

On Monday the 22d of February, if fair, or on the first fair day thereafter, by direction of the honourable the chancellor of Maryland, will be SOLD at PUBLIC AUCTION, on the dwelling plantation of WALTER PYE, near Port-Tobacco.

LL that part of the property of the faid Py which was heretofore mortgaged to the fubicriber. The faid property confifts of twenty nine negroes, with their increase, a valuable blooded mare and two colts. The negroes will be fuld in fuch convenient parcels as shall be agreed on between the subscriber and the trustees of the faid Pye. The purchasers are respectively to give bonds with good security, for paying the purchase money, with interest, from the day of fale, at two equal annual payments; and the subscriber is to join with the laid trustees in making effectual conveyances.

THOMAS HOW RIDGATE. Port-Tobacco, January 14, 1790.

To be Sold. AT PUBLIC SALE,

On Wednesday the 10th day of February next, if fair, if not the next fair day,

HE PERSONAL PROPERTY of the late GERARD BOND, confishing of fifty negroes, work horses, horned cattle, sheep, hogs, plantation utenfils, household furniture, and about three hundred els of corn. Twelve months credit will be given, and bond with interest and approved security will be required. All persons having claims against the estate of said Gerard Bond are desired to bring them in legally authenticated on that day, and those indebted are requested to make payment to

Rd. BOND, Executor. St. Mary's county, January 5, 1790. 4 X

To be Sold, A New Brick House,

In the City of Annapolis,

ORTY feet by twenty-four, fronting on Church- has a likely face and down look, when surprised stam-Steuart's, and opposite to Mr. Joseph Clark's; there is also on the premises a brick building, 30 feet by 18, which may be appropriated for a kitchen, and warehouse, if necessary; also, ground sufficient to make a good garden. The above house is well calculated for a store, and the accommodation of a family. For terms apply to Messieurs WALLACE and MUIR. OSEPH DOWSON.

December 9, 1789.

NOTICE.

FORBID all persons hunting with dog or gun, on my lands near Annapolis, which I purchased of Mr. Ogle; many persons having frequently committed trespasses under pretence of hunting. January 19, 1790, 3 J. T. CHASE.

January 13, 1790. AN away from Isaac Kent, in Brederick county, Virginia, a likely young negro woman named ALLEY, about eighteen years old, well grown and not very black, is very notable, has one crooked finger, a very long head, flat nose, thick lips, and large eyes; the is a very Iwanky awkward looking negro, has tongue enough, and never without a lie in her mouth, and will deceive almost any person; the crossed at George-town the eleventh of December, and passes for a free woman; that her miffres had married a metho dift preacher and fet her free, and had changed her name and likewife her cloathes; the is a great thief. had on a Welch cotton petricoat and jacket, and cotton petticoat, coarse shoes and stockings, and osnabrie shift; it is likely the has changed her tale and cloathes too before this. This negro belongs to Elizabeth Dares living in Calvert county, near Lower-Marlborough—the was only lent to Mac Kent. Whoever takes up the faid negro woman, to that the owner may reward, including what the law allows, and reasonable as can and will keep a good orderly house, and give towns: fecurity for the payment of the rent, if required. Ap- boarders.-Alfo to be REN plication to be made to PATRICK MACCHILL at ELOUSE faid Landing.

> N. B. The former tenant had, in winter, leve boarders, and in the fummer not less than twelve - wife for SAL There is now one acre and a half of ground, contigu- Frederi ous to the White-house, well fet with red clover.

January 9, 1790.

DEGS leave to inform the public in general, and All persons having claims a his friends in particular, that, in consequence of the late calamitous fire, he has been constrained to remove into a house in Green-street, lately occupied by Mr. Cornelius Mills, where (thanks to a kind Providence) he still is enabled to find good and plentiful entertainment for man and horse on the most reasonable terms, and whilst it will be his constant endeavour to merit the custom and patronage of a generous public, he humbly hopes for and solicits a continuation of heir kind attention and encouragement.

Annapolis, January 26, 1790.

anuary 22, 1790. HE subscriber hereof having disposed of all the real and personal property of Thomas Whit-TINGTON, late of Anne-Arundel county, deceased, agreeable to law, and finds that there is not a fufficiency of assets to discharge every claim, this is to request all person or persons, who have heretofore made their claims known to him in writing, to bring in their accounts lawfully and properly attefted and authenticated between this and the 28th day of February next, in order that they may receive or fettle for their equal dividend of the said estate. No account after that day will be admissible.

THOMAS WHITTINGTON, Executor.

Twenty Dollars Reward.

AN away from the subscriber, near Montgomery court-house, Maryland, on the 27th of December last, at night, a lusty able countryborn negro fellow named JACOB, crocus and the other white sheeting, a linsey jacket and o breeches, and a striped calico under jacket, a pair of coarse white yarn stockings, a pair of coarse shoes with strings, a coarse selt hat with a black ribbon round the crown; he may have other cloaths with him, but this is unknown to me. Taken out of my son's stable the same night, a black HORSB, upwards of fifteen hands high, a small star in his forchead, his hind feet both white, his mane hangs on both fides, his feet are rubhed from wearing of fetters lately, trots, paces and canters, carries a good head and tail. Missing the same night, an old saddle, snaffle bridle with the bit broke, and a fack bag, marked S. W. Whoever takes up the faid negro, and brings him home, if ten miles from home four dollars, if twenty miles fix dollars, if thirty miles eight dollars, if forty miles ten dollars, and the same proportion for a greater distance—if out of the state the above reward.

SAMUEL WHITE N. B. All masters of vessels and others are forbid to conceal or carry him off at their peril. Wheever brings home the horse without the negro shall receive eight dollars reward. December 31, 1789.

FIE subscribers hereby inform, that they intend to petition the justices of Frederick county, at the enfuing March court, to iffue a commillion for marking and bounding their parts of the following tracts of land, fituate in the county afore. faid, viz. Come by Chance and The Refurvey on Good Neighbourhood, agreeable to the act of affembly, entitled, An act for marking and bounding land. NICHOLAS COPPLE

MICHAEL OVELMAN January 8, 1790.

that the fi

he purchases. application to Annapolis, September 1, 1789.

the estate of the late Mrs. ANNE SANDERS. quested to exhibit them to the subscriber, s indebted are defired to make payment to

FREDERICK GREEN, Executor

For Continental Loan Office Depreciation, or Final tlement Certificates and Indents. Such as want Depreciation or other Certificates to pay for Pro perty purchased of the State, may be supplied at any time, and any particular Amount

For SALE or BARTER, A Quantity of Land in Par he is about twenty-one years of age, five feet leven or eight inches high, he is very black, tents, from 250 to 1000 Acres, freet and Cross-street, next door to Mr. Charles mers; had on, and took with him, two shirts, one a situate in Bottetowet and Monone gahela Counties, Virginia, be fold very low for Eath, Indents, good Bonds,

TOBE SOLD,

At PRIVATE SALE, the following TRACTS LAND, viz.

NE tract of 800 acres, on Pipe creek, in Frede rick county, an entire body of wood, and of kind good foil; also, a tract on Magothy river, containing 430 acres; and a tract containing 301 acres on Deep creek (or Stoney creek) which empties into Patapico river -- Both thefe tracts are convenient for Baltimore or Annapolis markets, one having about 30 acres the other about 60 acres cleared, the rest in woods; the foil equal to any in those parts; both well watered. Likewife two young NEGRO WOMEN, three GIRLS, and a BOY about twelve years old. Unex-Annapolis, November 235 1789.

Flurdy county, December 19, 1789.

MONDAY,

nesiage from the p panied with a lette to the president, t fication of amend ouse then resolu alterations and amo rofe, and the furt postponed until to-m

. Hartley, from th

to the house, a dization throughout read the first time. r. Benson, from the bill to give effect to t the state of North-C and fecond times, committee of the wh message from the sen folution, that the bu houses at the late a ed as if it had not b efting the concurrence motion was made th fenate in the said reso Ir. Smith (S. C.) mor desolved, That it be the house, that every s for more than rmination of the session the bufiness dependi ced de novo. motion, Meffrs. By er, were appointed ecuring to authors a s to their respective w djourned.

nment, shall not be

TUESDAY, petition of Lucas Li ices performed during petition from a numb part of Massachusetts, ation may be made United States. house resolved its on the North-Car ations therein; and I for a third reading bill for a uniform ie second time. So oill into confideratio opposed; he said were for hurry in when every one mi

efore moved it should which the house agr petition of Jame . Ames moved that ctary of the treasury. has was opposed by M t, who thought a felec per, as the petitioner h gress, and feveral refe cting the fettlement of d be more convenie