articles (as the fecretary julily objectives) are in reality inxuries, the greater part of the funds for paying the

f the state debts are net te thole for the present debt of the United we have good ground to hope, and believe, remainder of the necessary funds will be easily without the necessity of have

full amour

states as of

oy payment r third in h

twenty c

at a yearly

ccount both

as a compens

preceding cal

o thirds dollar

l and interest.

wenty-fix dol.

he like interes

mainder of life

en age, not

est at four m

mainder of life

of the youngd

this cale alio a

ans, the fecre

ollars, payabi

the debras

erest of five per

eding fix dol.

tontine, upor

ed respectively

ding 30.

eding 40.

eding 50.

eding 60.

The number

Persons to be

es, or those of Dollars. Cents.

8 40

8 65

9 65

10 70

12 80

ths shall be

P shall cease

dividend as a ch it shall de-

it is propole,

luarterly, m

ut in order w

secretary ap-

wing princi-

npted in the

bafis of a fair

g a capitab

fair equiva-

ntereft.

en dollars a

the different loans may be voluntary as well as name, provision is made in the repaying to non-impleribing creditors, a diviof whatever furplus may remain, after paying the of the proposed loans; with a limitation howo four per cent, as the funds immediately to be are calculated to produce in that proportion itire debt.

foreign and domestic debt of the United States, the arrears of interest, together with the debts of spective states which are estimated at 25,000,000 principal and interest, form a total of about 0.000 dollars-the whole amount of the debt of United States, after the debts of the individual hall be affumed.

loan of 12,000,000 of dollars is among proposed: The object of which is, to dile arrears of interest due on the foreign debt; educe the interest on that part of the foreign debt, ich bears an interest of more than four per cent.orm a capital for a national bank, in order to facie the collection of the revenue, and fuch arrangeats as shall be found expedient for reducing the the domestic debt: In sid of this operation, revenue of the post-office is proposed as a finking is proposed, that this loan be under the direction commissioners to be appointed by congress. he report stated, that the post-office may probablymade to yield a revenue of 100,000 dollars.

o much of the impost law as imposes duties on ardent spirits, teas and coffee, it is proposed dd be repealed, after the first of May, for the purof enacting a law, laying an enhanced duty on articles: These enhanced duties with the proof the present revenue from imposts and tunand a duty on distilleries, &c. according to the late exhibited, will produce the fun required for payment of the interest on the present debt of the

the idea of discriminating between original creand those by purchase, is reprobated—and argument in favour of fuch a plan, in our opiis totally exploded.

UT of the fubscriber's pocket, between Henry Baldwin's tavern and Annapolis, on Tuesday the lay of February, instant, a filk red and white purse, aining therein one final fettlement certificate of one fand dollars, No. 82,786, issued by John Pierce Gassaway Watkins, on the 30th August, 1784, aterfigned John White, and endorfed on the back ae faid certificate, interest paid by Thomas Hard, commissioner for the continental loan-office for state of Maryland, to 31st December, 1787, and d certificate for two hundred acres. deliver the faid purse and certificates to the Juber, living on Elk-Ridge, on to Thomas Harwood, ity of Annapolis, shall receive a reward of

GASSAWAY WATKINS.

to be stolen, the following

ht filver table fpoons. ourteen filver tea spoons, e case with a pair set shoe-buckles, we pieces luteliring, one fea green, the other nion, mine yards in each, painted filk handkerchief,

three quarters yards broad black lace of Charles county, deceated, (not having atled as expected, on a former day appointed for that purpose,) are hereby requested to attend at colonel Beanes's, in Piscataway, on Monday the 22d day of March next, with their respective claims lawfully authenticated, in order for fettlement, as far as effects will admit—those who neglect attending as above may thereafter lose the benefit of a dividend; all who are indebted for property purchased, or otherwise, are required to make immediate payment, as longer indulgence cannot be given. TO BE SOLD, agreeable to the last will and testament of the aforesaid Smith, his right in a tract of land called SHARPE, lying on Mattawoman, in Charles county, and near the main road leading from Pifcataway to Port-Tobacco. MARY SMILLS DECUMENT. february 3, 1790.

Chaptico, St. Mary's county, February 2, 1790. 7 FIEREAS I gave bond to a certain George Arnold, of Harrison county, and state of Virgihia, on the twenty-fifth day of August, seventeen hundred and eighty-nine, conditioned for the payment of zool. Maryland currency, to be made at three annual payments, in case I made a purchase of four hundred and three acres of land, lying on a creek called Tarecoat, in Hampshire county, of faid state-The obligation running, that, if I should not like the land, on returning the patent by the first day of December of the aforefaid year, the contract should be null and void; returned him the patent within the time limitted, being disappointed in the quality and fituation of the land, and he refused to give up my bond. I do hereby forewarn all perions from taking an affigument of the faid bond.

IGNATIUS HAYDEN.

Prince-George's county, February 5, 1790. OMMITTED to my custody, a negro woman, who fays her name is ALLEY, and that she is the property of Mrs. Elizabeth Dare, of Calvert county. The owner is defired to pay charges and take her away, from

EDWARD LLOYD WAILES, Sheriff.

JUST PUBLISHED, And to be SOLD,

At the Printing-Office, Price One Dollar and a Quarter,

PASSED AT

NOVEMBER SESSION, Seventeen Hundred and Eighty-Nine.

FORBID all persons hunting with dog or gun on my lands near Annapolis, which I purchased of Mr. Ogle; many persons having frequently committed trespasses under pretence of hunting. January 19, 1790. T. CHASE.

To be Sold. A New Brick House,

In the City of Annapolis, ORTY feet by twenty-four, fronting on Churchfireet and Cross-street, next door to Mr. Charles Steuart's, and opposite to Mr. Joseph Clark's; there is also on the premises a brick building, 30 feet by 18, which may be appropriated for a kitchen, and warehonse, if necessary; also, ground sufficient to make good garden. The above house is well calculated for a store, and the accommodation of a family. For terms apply to Memeurs Wallace and Muir.

IOSEPH DOWSON December 9, 178e

WALTER PER Dear Port-Tobacco

Land that part of the property of Which was heretolore morreal ed to the Like property confilts of twenty-nine nes groes, with their increase, a valuable blooded mare and we colled the negroes will be fold in fuction with the unitees of the laid Eye. The purchasers are pectively to give bonds with good fecurity, for pay-The life of the day at two equal appual payments; and the fubcriber is to join with the faid truftees in making effect tual conveyances.

THOMAS HOW RIDGATE. Port-Tobacco, January 14, 1790.

Five Founds Reward

The AN away from the subscriber, living in Anne. Arundel county, near Annapolis, the 30th day comber laft, a negro man named CHARLES. about five feet eight inches high, a well made likely fellow, twenty-five years old; had on two brown cloth and one fearnought jackets, new country linen thirt, Welch cotton breeches, yarn flockings, negro shoes and felt har. Whoever takes up and fecures the faid negro, so that his mafter gets him again, shall receive, if ten miles from home twenty shillings, if out of the ounty forty shillings, and if out of this state the above ward, including what the law allows, and reasonable charges, if brought home, paid by

BRICE T. B. WOUNTHINGTON.

HE creditors of HENRY MAY, late of Anne-Arundel county, deceased, are hereby desired to bring in their claims, legally authenticated, to the subscriber, on the 11th day of March next, when attendance will be given at the late dwelling house of said deceased, that there may be an equal distribution imade of the proceeds of the fale of the property to his creditors, and to have the estate finally settled, therefore those who neglect to comply with the above request will not be entirled to a dividend hereafter; those indebted to the aid state are desired to make imme; date payment, sor no longer indulgence can be given. RICHARD BEARD, Executor.

February 2, 1790.

YOTICE is hereby given, that the subscriber intends to apply to congress for duplicates of undry continental loan-office CERTIFICATES, which were his property and were destroyed by fire, in and with the house of Mrs. Gilbert, in the city of Richmond, Virginia, on the 2d day of January, 1778; two of which issued from said office in Maryland, viz. One of 500 dollars to Edward Dulin, February Alloone of 200 ditto, issued March 23d, 1779.

JOSIAS CLAPHAM. Loudoun county, Virginia, February 2, 1790. St. Mary's county. January 19, 1790.

OMMITTED to my custody as a runaway, a ne-I gro man who calls himself TOM, he is about five feet five or fix inches high, has on a new fear. nought jacket, white country cloth breeches, country made shoes and stockings, and a new osnabrig shirt he appears to be about twenty-five or thirty years of age, and fays he belongs to Mr. Rinaldo Johnson, of Prince-George's county. His owner is defired to take him away and pay charges, or he will be fold, in one month from this date, for his prison fees. P. FORD, Sheriff.

Calvert county, All Saints Parish, January 17, 1790. NY MINISTER in deacon's or priest's order, of the PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH, who will apply to the veftry of faid parish and produce the testimonials required by the convention of that church, will meet with a liberal encouragement. Signed per order of the veftry, SAMUEL MEAD, Register.

HE creditors of captain Thomas Dent, late of Prince-George's county, deceased, are hereby defired to bring in their claims lawfully authenticat to the subscriber, on the seventeenth day of March next, when attendance will be given at colonel Beanes's. in Piscataway, that there may be an equal distribution made of the proceeds of the fale of the property to his creditors, and to have the estate finally settled, therefore those who neglect to comply with the above request will not be entitled to a dividend hereafter—those who are indebted to the faid estate are carneflly defired to make immediate payment, for no longer indulgence can be given.

BLIZABETH DENT, Admittatrix December 10, 1780.