The high bred Horse HYDER ALLY

IS in great perfection, and stands this season at Mount-Arrarat (the feat of Doctor Thomas Marshal) fix miles below Piscataway, and will cover mares at three pounds the season, and five shillings to the groom, but the money must be punctually paid by the first of September. HYDER ALLY is a fine gray, beautifully dappled, eight years old this spring, full fifteen hands three inches high, remarkably handlome, boney and active: his strong resemblance to his sire, who stood in such high estimation in the states of Virginia and Maryland, and whose colts have been capital performers on the turf, will be a considerable inducement to those who wish to breed fine horses, and the following pedigiee, well authenticated, will prove him equal in blood to any horse in America:-He was got by the noted Arabian, his dam by Othello, his granddam (an imported mare from the duke of Hamilton's Stud) by Spot, his great-grand-dam by Cartouch, his great-great-grand-dam by Old Traveller, his greatgreat-great-grand-dam by Sedbury, his great-greatgreat-great-grand-dam by Childers, out of a Barb mare. Good pasturage is provided for mares gratis, and every possible care taken of them, but escapes and other accidents must be at the risque of the owner. PETER CORNEIL, Groom.

LL persons indebted to RANDALL and DELO-ZIER, or the subscriber, are earnestly requested to settle their accounts on or before the first day of June next, which will prevent the trouble and expence of suits, and very much oblige their obedient servant, JOHN RANDALL,

Who has on Hand, A GENERAL ASSORTMENT OF

Which will be disposed of on the lowest terms, for cash, produce, certificates, or on a short credit to those only who are generally punctual in their pay-Annapolis, February 22, 1790. // tf

The beautiful Horse ROEBUCK

TATILL cover MARES this season at the subscriber's plantation, in Charles county, at the low price of five pounds currency per mare, and one dollar to the groom, but if the money is paid when the mare is taken away, three pounds, and one dollar to the groom, will be taken in lieu of the five pounds. is remarkable, both for the turf and saddle, I believe equal to any in the state. Good pasturage is provided for mares that come a distance, gratis, and great care will be taken of them; but I will not be answerable for accidents or escapes.
