Anne-Arundel county, October 16, 1700. Curfed be be that removeth his neighbour's mark, and all the people shall fay, AMEN_ Deuteronomy, ch. 28, ver. 18.

(OMB time in the year 1779, or 1786, I ed a fuit of trespass and ejectment, in the ge court of the western shore, against a certain de. Howard, fon of Henry, of Anne-Arundel contra whose land adjoined to mine .- The said Howard a tended to claim part of my land, by the deed he claimed under, wherein the beginning was deformed to be at a certain heap of flones, made by his faid to ther Flenry; on running the lines of my lands in the year 1750, or thereabouts, the faid James died before the fuit was ended, after his death it went of the docket. I have very lately discovered that the afen said deed, by which the said Howard claimed part a my land, has been, erased, and the beginning altered from the aforefaid heap of stones to a red oak tree with in my lines, from the faid heap of stones about re 80 yards. If he the faid James could have estab his boundary at faid red oak, he would have taken in water of my land, iccured him from the trespass, take away my improved meadow, thrown my lines to the fouth-weit into a worn out old field, not worth on shilling per aere, and made me a trespasser, for which he had a fuit against me at the same time. I have examined the records of the county wherein his deed was recorded, and find that the faid record is alle eraled, and the beginning made at the faid red oak in stead of the aforefaid heap of stones-Part of the lene S, on the county records, is still perceivable... NO. TICE is hereby given, that I intend to petition the general affembly of Maryland, at their next meeting to pass a law to amend the said records and deed agree able to the original grant to the faid James. REUBEN MERIWEATHER.

October 15, 1799 TAMES MILLS, fou of John, of St. Mary's coun. ty, intends petitioning the general affembly, a their next lession, for a law to authorise the justices of the county aforefaid, to affels a fum of money yearly for his tupport.
