Deuteronomy, ch. 28, ver. 18. COME time in the year 1779, or 1780, I commenced a fuit of trespass and ejectment, in the general court of the western shore, against a certain James Howard, son of Henry, of Anne-Arundel county, whose land adjoined to mone. The said Howard pretended to claim part of my land, by the deed he claimed under, wherein the beginning was described to be at a certain heap of stones, made by his said father Henry; on running the lines of my land, in the year 1750, or thereabouts, the faid James died before the fuit was ended, after his death it went off the docket. I have very lately discovered that the aforesaid deed, by which the said Howard claimed part of my land, has been erased, and the beginning altered from the aforesaid heap of stones to a red oak tree within my lines, from the faid heap of stones about 75 or 80 yards. If he the faid James could have established his boundary at faid red oak, he would have taken the water of my land, secured him from the trespais, taken away my improved meadow, thrown my lines to the fouth-west into a worn out old field, not worth one shilling per acre, and made me a trespasser, for which he had a fuit against me at the same time. I have also examined the records of the county wherein his deed was recorded, and find that the faid record is also erased, and the beginning made at the said red oak instead of the aforesaid heap of stones-Part of the letter S, on the county records, is still perceivable-NO-TICE is hereby given, that I intend to petition the general affembly of Maryland, at their next meeting, to pass a law to amend the said records and deed agreeable to the original grant to the faid James. REUBEN MERIWEATHER.
