ipes is increasing through-

ne court oi Great-Britain the western posts, or make groes taken from this counes engage to make good all

I S, February 24. J. Ashe, and the honour. uires, are re-elected reprepemarle division, in North-of the petition of the masthe port of Charleston, as lately presented to the esentatives of the United stant, referred to the select the trade and navigation of

ESENTATIVES of the United n congress assembled, ribers, masters of American Charletton, South-Carolina, g trade to Europe, humbly encouragement offered by n, to the shipping of the the owners of the vessels oners, were induced to en. carrying trade, from the In pursuance of this plan, d their shipping, by buildes have been taken from the ches of trade, in which for been engaged with very inate constitutes a prodigious re constrained to add, that he present moment, affords very considerable number aded at this port, but their ne least acceptable, and at he same time attained by erence could not be attri-American shipping; but to e incomprehensible to your y trust the wisdom of con-

your petitioners find themhipping nearly adequate to whole crop of this country; ve, that the season not yes nore vessels may reasonably thirty are actually known ted, the majority of your destitute of employment; ng been as great, or greater rtiality in their favour still the necessity of returning quipment, or employment, naining in port. But preceive it a duty we owe to ourselves, to represent our lature of the union. that our petition will be object be thought to ment ; we have subscribed our s, and their tunnage—and pray.

Tunnage, 8118.

United States.

and held at the city of the fixth of December, ed and ninety.

nsent of congress, that a ithin the jurisdiction of ginia, and admitted inte of the STATE of KEN-are of the commonwealth itled, "An act concerning of Kentucky into an indeeighteenth day of Decemnundred and eighty-nine, trict of Kentucky, within ommonwealth, and accordat the time of passing the ed into a new state: And centucky, have petitioned the first day of June, one ninety-two, the said disa new state, and received te and House of Representa-America in Congress affem. nd declared, That the consaid district of Kentucky, te commonwealth of Viractual boundaries on the one thousand seven hunupon the first day of June, and ninety-two, be forme from, and independent me of " the State of Ken-of Virginia. d declared, That upon the ne thousand seven hundred w state, by the name and oky, shall be received and admitted into this union, as a new and entire member of the United States of America.

FREDERICK AUGUSTUS MUHLENBERG. Speaker of the House of Representatives. IOHN ADAMS, Vice-President of the United States, and president of the Senate.

Approved, February 4th, 1791.

An act declaring the consent of congress to a certain act of the State of Maryland.

BE it enasted by the Senute and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the consent of congress be and is hereby granted and declared to the operation of an act of the general affembly of Maryland, made and passed at a session begun and held at the city of Annapolis, on the first Monday in November last, " entitled, An uct to empower the wardens of the port of Baltimore to levy and collect the duty therein mentioned," until the tenth day of January next, and from thence to the end of the then next session of congress, and no longer. FREDERICK AUGUSTUS MUHLENBERG, Speaker of the House of Representatives. IOHN ADAMS, Vice-President of the United States, and President of the Senate. Approved February 9th, 1791.

GEORGE WASHINGTON, President of the United States. (True Copy.)
THOMAS JEFFERSON, Secretary of State.

MARYLAND, are requested to return the same to kind or sum of the above certificates. the subscribers, on or before the 2d day of March, to enable them to publish the names of the stockholders previous to the 7th day of March, when the election of directors will be held at Mr. GRANT's tavern, agreeably to a former publication.

SAMUEL SMITH, ROBERT GILMOR, WILLIAM PATTERSON, THUROWGOOD SMITH, JEREMIAH-YELLOTT, CHARLES GARTS, NICHOLAS SLUBEY, THOMAS HOLLINGSWORTH, ENGLEHARD YEISER, OTHO H. WILLIAMS, AMES EDWARDS, JAMES CAREY.

TO BE SOLD,

The seventh day of March next, at Dumfries, in Vir-

The noted thorough-bred HORSE

ROCKINGHAM,

THO was bred by the late general Nelson. Twelve months credit will be given on bond with good security: his age, pedigree and performances will then be made appear to the purchaser. If he is not fold at the time above mentioned, I will at that time farm him out.

LAW. TALIAFERRO. Orange count, January 28, 1791.

NOTICE.

HE commissioners of the fund tax for Charles county, will meet at Port. Tobacco, on Monday the seventh day of March next, and continue to sit twenty days, exclusive of Sundays, to hear the appeals of all persons interested. JOHN B. TURNER, Clerk to the commissioners. February 15, 1791.

HE subscriber hereby forewarns all persons from hunting within his enclosures, with either dog. or gun, or passing through his lands in any manner without his permission. Any one offending after this notice will be prosecuted with the utmost rigour of the law. 19913 1/2 JOHN BROOKE, jun. Calvert county, February 21, 1791.

In virtue of a writ of venditions exponas, issued at the instance of the state of Maryland, and to me directed, will be EXPOSED to SALE, at BELLE-AIR, in Harford county, on the fourth Tuesday in March next, TRACT of LAND the property of SAMUEL GROOME OSBORN, fituate on the road between Belle-Air and Havre-de-Grace in said county, whereon Daniel Baylis now lives, containing 1011

On the same day, and at the same place, will also be exposed to sale, in virtue of a writ of wenditioni expones to me directed, to fatisfy a debt due to the state of Maryland from Benjamin Bradford Norris, Esquire, deceased, a tract of land called NORRIS CHANCE, containing 363 acres, and part of one other tract called BURR, containing for the faid part 224 acres, lying wirhin two miles of Belle-Air, and well improved.

The aforefaid fales to begin at eleven o'clock the same day, and to be fold for CASH only.

WILLIAM OSBORN, Sheriff of Harford county.

GEORGE WASHINGTON, President of the United States.

YS hereby given, that the commissioners of the fund tax for Anne-Arundel county, will meet at the cuy of Annapolis on Monday the 7th day of March next, and continue to fit for twenty days, exclusive of Sundays, to hear the appeals of all persons who may think themselves interested.

NICHOLAS HARWOOD, Clerk for the commissioners of the tax for Anne-Arundel county. February 7, 1791.

TYULL.

A I.L persons having claims against the estate of JOSEPH WILLIAMS, lare of the city of Annapolis, are requested to bring them in legally proved immediately, and all those indebted to said estate, for dealings with the said Joseph Williams alone, or with Williams and Neth, are requested to make immediate payment. It is expected this NOTICE will be attended to, which will prevent further trouble, and enable the executor to comply with the testators will in paying off a considerable sum in legacies. JAMES WILLIAMS.

LL persons indebted to THOMAS C. WIL-LIAMS and Co. to JAMES WILLIAMS, or to the estate of JAMES TOOTELL, or JOSEPH EASTMAN, late of the city of Annapolis, are once more requested to make IMMEDIATE payment to the subscriber, as longer indulgence cannot be given. Any kind of continental or state certificates, or old HE gentlemen who have papers for the purpose continental paper money, at their highest passing vaof receiving subscriptions to the BANK of lue, will be taken in payment; and cash given for any

JAMES WILLIAMS. February 7, 1791.

Wanted to Hire,

NEGRO man and his wife, that can be well recommended for sobriety and honesty, to live in a small family. For particulars inquire of Mr. WILLIAM FOXCROFT. Annapolis, February 9, 1791.

POTICE is hereby given, that I do intend to apply to the justices of Anne-Arundel county court for a commission to establish the bounds of two tracts of land called HUNTING QUARTER and How-ARD's Luck, lying in the said county, after this advertisement has been published as long as the law requires, and agreeable to the act of assembly for marking and bounding of lands in this state.

NICHOLAS DORSEY. February 2, 1791.

Thirty Shillings Reward. 1) AN away from the subscriber, living in Lower-Marlborough, on the 15th of January, a likely mulatto lad, named PHIL, about 17 or 18 years of 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high, and has a very furly look; had on when he went away, a whitish coloured cloth coat, scarlet waistcoat, corduroy breeches, a pair of pale blue yarn stockings, and a tolerable good pair of shoes, tied with strings, and an old white hat. Any person securing said lad in any gaol, so as his master shall get him again, shall receive the above REWARD, and if brought home, all reasonable expences, paid by

JOSEPH DAVID.

And to be SOLD, At the PRINTING-OFFICE, Price Ten Shillings,

MARYLAND

Passed at

NOVEMBER SESSION, Seventeen Hundred and Ninety.

Price Nine Dollars,

The late Edition of the LAWS of MARYLAND, bound in sheep—And also a few by sets of the LAWS since that publication, price two Guineas, in sheets.—All kinds of PRINTING WORK performed in a neat, expeditious, and correct manner, on the shortest notice, and on the most reasonable terms.

HIS is to give notice, that I intend to petition Prince-George's county court, at their next term, for a commission to mark and bound my part of a tract of land called PITCHCRAFT, lying in the aforesaid county, agreeable to a late act of assembly in this case provided.

PRISCILLA CHEW. Calvert county, January 31, 1791.

OMMITTED to my custody as a runaway, in the latter end of September last, a negro man who calls himself IOE, about five feet eight or ten inches high, and fays he is the property of WALTER MAGRUDER, of Montgomery county; in a few days after his commitment he broke gaol, and was taken up in Virginia, from whence I have lately brought him to the gaol of this county. His master is desired to apply, take him away, and pay, charges, or he will be fold for his prison sees, &c. according to law.

3 W 3 X PHILIP FORD, Sheriff. St. Mary's county, January 15, 1791.

To be SOLD, at PUBLIC VENDUE, at Ware's tavern, at Allen's Fresh, in Charles county, Maryland, on Monday the 14th day of March next,

TPWARDS of twenty likely NEGROES, and a variety of household furniture, table and bed linen, &c. &c. Twelve months credit will be allowed upon the purchasers giving bond on interest from the date with approved security. Should the day, appointed for the sale prove a wet day, the sale will be put off to the next fair day, and continue till all

PHILIP RICHARD FENDALL. Alexandria, January 25, 1791.

On Monday the 28th of February next, if fair, if not the next fair day, will be EXPOSED to PUBLIC SALB, at Port-Tobacco, in Charles county, TPWARDS of twenty valuable NEGROES, confisting of likely young fellows, breeding women, boys and girls. The terms of sale, one third of the purchase money paid down, one third at the end of one year, and the other third at the end of two years from the day of sale. Bond with approved security, will be required (with interest from the day of sale). for the two thirds of the purchase money not paid on the day of fale.

HENRY BARNES. Port-Tobacco, January 25, 1791.

HE subscriber hereby forewarns all persons from hunting within his enclosures, at Primrosehill, near Annapolis, with either dog or gun, or passing through them without his permission. HOWARD DUVALL, jun.

February 8, 1791. 3X TAMES MILLS, son of JOHN, of St. Mary's county, intends petitioning the general assembly, at their next session, for a law to authorise the justices of the county aforesaid, to assess a sum of money yearly for his support.

February 4, 1791.

A LL persons having claims against the estate of VACHEL JOHNSON, lare of Anne-Arundel county, deceased, are requested to bring them in legally proved, and those indebted are desired to make immediate payment, as I want to close the estate. w 3 2 X JACOB LUSBY, Executor.

NOTICE.

A LL persons having claims against the estate of Dr. JOHN SPRIGG, late of Prince-George's county, are once more requested to bring them in legally proved immediately, to 21 X RICHARD SPRIGG, Administrator.

NOTICE.

A LL persons having claims against the estate of Mrs. ELIZABETH SPRIGG, late of Anne-Arundel county, are requested to bring them in proved, to

RICHARD SPRIGG, Executor.

HEREBY forewarn all persons from harbouring or entertaining my negro boy LUKE, or paying him money.

February 7, 1791. 3

AN away from Bladensburg, on Sunday the 30th of January, an Irish servant lad, named ED-WARD PENDERGAST, about 18 years of age, 5 feet 3 or 4 inches high, has black hair, dark eyes, a down look, and is somewhat round shouldered, he has lost one of his upper teeth in the front of his mouth; had on and took with him a very ragged shirt, no. buttons on the collar, two holes worked with thread, a pair of blue cloth trousers, twilled and half worn, a a pair of blue stockings, one pair of country made shoes, one pair of plated buckles, middling large, a Dutch cap, which he strove to change, and a new jacket, made round, with buttons on the sleeves, of a dark gray cloth. Whoever will deliver the above named servant lad to the subscriber, in Bladensburg, shall have a REWARD of FOUR DOLLARS, paid

RICHARD JONES. N. B. The same lad ran away in October, 1788 all masters of vessels are forbid carrying him off.

A LL persons indebted to ELIJAH GAITHER, either in his own right, or as executor of ED-WARD GAITHER, deceased, are requested to make payment without delay to the subscriber, who is legally constituted his attorney in fact, and who has an affignment of all debts due to him as aforefaid. If proper notice should not be taken of this request, compulsory measures will be adopted.

Annapolis, January 26, 1791.