much to suppress the predators

an army will march from Pitts. out the same time; a considera. enlitted in the back counties of greater disposition for bossility everal years pait. courie of last week the followin this neighbourhood, in con-On Tuesday last a barn at Wilate Peyton Randolph, in this nd took fire, which in a very the ground, confuming at fame bacco which was flored therein wing a house belonging to M. s, was also firuck, which took d .- The same day in the afterory house of Mr. Francis Smith's ewife struck, and took fire, but inguished before it did any conpout the same time in the after-Peterfield Trent's, fituated in ity, received a very levere thock mey, and took of several bricks: wards about ten feet, and drove bricks just below a grate, taking of the joilts, and then running in the next partition wall, folic ing every nail thereout, and allo es off a door which was hanging ectric fluid took its course on the om where a curtain rod hung in immediately over a bed where g on, splitting the side pieces of two, and throwing Mrs. Trent floor, with a very severe shock. n the stairs about eight feet from an down the flud was allo ver continued a straight course down re Mr. Trent, his daughter m and knocked them all down; ered in a tew moments, but the ne direction it came, lay, to all alf an hour, but in consequence et, and damp clay applied to her breathe; her neck and breaft

EXCELLENCY Floward, Esquire, R of MARYLAND.

the burn, and the ikin of which

s now much better and in a fair veral negroes on the lower floor severe shock, but was not ma-

LAMATION.

he deposition of REZIN HAMuire, of Anne Arundel county, morning of the zeth of April HER, ion of Edward, came to uid. Hammond, and fired at him with intention, as the faid Hamhim: And whereas, by the de-HAMILTON, of Montgomethat the said Gaither afterwards, im, acknowledged the facts fet above mentioned, except the declared that he did discharge efign to kill the faid Hammond, eclare that it was fill his settled he faid. Hammond whenever an er: And whereas it is obviously ive to guard as much as may be of fuch enormities, and to bing he laws and peace of fociety to ore thought proper, by and with cil, to iffue this my proclamatinjoining all theriffs, and other to apprehend and convey before or justices within this state, the order that he may be dealt with I do hereby exhort and require s state to be aiding and assisting polis, under the seal of the flate execution of their duty. this seventh day of June, in the ord one thousand seven hundred E. HOWARD.

command, , jun. Secretary. ETHESTATE.

That the above proclamation

T. JOHNSON, jun. reward of FOUR HUNDRED pprehending the above-mentioneable to the foregoing proclams. e fame upon his being brought judges of the general court, or justices of Anne-Arundel councording to law. REZIN HAMMOND isclose the wicked and premedi-Baither, in his attack on me, or pleased to publish in your paper the deposition of John G. Hamilton, which is as follows: REZIN HAMMOND.

MARYLAND, T. N the second day of June, one thousand seven I hundred and ninety-one, came before me, the subscriber, one of the judges of the general court, IOHN G. HAMILTON, and made oath, that on or about the thirteenth of May last he was in company and had conversation with Elijah Gaither, son of Edthe faid Gaither informed this deponent as follows:-That he had had a round with colonel Rezin Hammond, of Anne-Arundel county; that the faid Hammond had injured his reputation, and that, in contequence thereof, he, the said Gaither, for several months before, had premeditated and determined to kill him. and that he came down from New-York for that purpose; that having discovered in Baltimore-town that colonel Hammond had brought fuits against him, he immediately hired horses, provided himself with three braces of ristols, all which he loaded, or caused to be loaded, with three bullets and two buck that each, and a gun, which was loaded with three bullets and a quantity of shot, after which (viz. on Easter Minday before day-light) he, the faid Gaither, flarted with his servant from Elk-Ridge for colonel Hammond's place of residence with a full determination to kill him, and arrived at the farm just after day-break; that he placed and concealed himself in a certain field belonging to the faid farm, where it was utual for colonel Hammond to pass every morning, and so concealed, together with his said fervant, waited for some time in expectation of the faid Hammond coming along, during which time he, the said Gaither, and his servant, watched for him a ternately; that some time after sunrise he, the said Gaither, finding that the said Hammond did not pass through the said field as he expected, sent his servant up to the house to inquire it the faid Hammond was at home, and if possible to discover and give him information whether the said Hammond intended to come out, and which way he intended to go, who was at the house with him, and whether he was still in bed or not; that his servant returned and informed him that Mr. Hammond was at home and in bed, and no body with him; whereupon the faid Gaither formed the delign of going up to the house, entering Mr. Hammond's room (with which the faid Guither was well acquainted) and affaffinating him while in bed, but that he changed this resolution from an apprehapsion that he might be discovered before he could carry his News into execution; that he remained in his hist situation until about eight o'clock, when he and his servant rode up to the house with the gun and pistols aforefaid; that when he arrived there, he fent one of Mr. Hammond's negroes into the house to inform Mr. Hammond that he wanted to speak with him; that Mr. Hammond came into the yard and invited him to alight and walk in, which he refused; that Gaither then asked Mr. Hammond to come up to him, as he wished to speak with him; whereupon Mr. Hammond faid. I see you are armed, and if I come to you, you will shoot me; that Guither then promised upon his honour he would not, and that he made use of this promise as an artifice to get Mr. Hammond in his power; that Mr. Han mond then went within seven steps or thereahouts of him, and Gaither ordered him to stop, gave his gun to his servant, and alighted from his horse, at which time two of his pittols fell from his belt; that he thersupon offered Mr. Hammond a pif tol, and inlifted upon fighting, which Mr. Hammond declined, because there were no witnesses by, but offered to fight at any subsequent day it he was bent upon it; that Gaither would not defer it, and faid Mr. Hammond thould either fight him that moment, or he would kill him; that, on hearing a noite behind him, proceeding from the approach of a negro or regroes, he, the faid Gaither, turned in order to keep the faid negro or negroes off, and that then colonel Hammond run from him towards the house; that he turned about, and before he had run many tteps, he the said Gaither levelled one of his pistols at him, and fired the same, and was affonished that he mitfed him, as he never took s more cool and deliberate aim in his life; that as foon as he found he had missed him, he drew another pistol, and before Mr. Hammond had run above fifteen steps, he fired that also at him, and thought he faw the wadding hurning on his back; that thereupon, although Mr. Hammond did not fall, he the faid Gaither concluded he had killed him; but finding that he continued to run until he got into the house, and supposing that Mr. Hammond intended to get a gun, and return with it, he the said Gaither took his gun from the sertant, and got hehind the pales of the yard, and levelled his gun over the pales, with his finger upon the trigger ready to fire as foon as Mr. Hammond should come out; that Mr. Hammond did come out of the negro fired and firuek him on the neck and left shoul- away. der, that then the faid Gaither went off; that the faid Gasther, at the time of the above conversation, further declared, that he was not yet fatisfied, and would always go prepared for the faid Hammond, and would kul him wherever he met him, and expressed his re-

Reemed to make him the more determined; and that cite is to his confeience to hire effaffins to take away the life of the faid Hammond; and that the debt for which Mr. Hammond had brought fuit against him was a just debt, but that he never would pay it, and would kill him, or any one elfe, if he ever asked for Sworn before me on this 2d June, 1791.

J. T. CHASE. True Copy.

Annapolis, June 5, 1791. ward, and that, in the course of the said conversation, "HE honourable the chancellor of this state having appointed the fabicriber a truftee to fell the real estate of STEPHEN BOONE, late of Anne-Arundel county, deceased-It is hereby made known, that the late DWELLING PLANTATION of the faid Steplien Boone, will be Sold, at Public Auction, on the premiies, on SATURDAY the 16th of July next, on the following terms: The purchaser may, at his election, pay ready money, or give bonds, with good and approved fecurity, to pay one half the purchase money, with interest, within one year, and the residue, with interest, within two years from the time of fale. This farm is conveniently fituated on the north fide of Severn, within three miles of the city of Annapolis, contains between five and fix hundred acres of land, is adapted to every kind of produce, and has on it a good and convenient dwelling house, kitchen, dairy, smokehouse, barn, and other convenient out-houses. The sale will begin precisely at 12 o'clock, and it will be fold entire, or in parcels, as may be declared on the day of fale.

Have lately received, and for SALE, at their store in Church street, near the Market, and next door to Mr. Stephen Clark's stationary and book store, the following ARTICLES, of the Arst quality, at the most reduced prices for Cast, or Tobacco on confignment for London, for which goods will be given in advance-

Ruffia Sheetings, Irish Ditto. Children's Morocco Shoes, Sickles, Hair Clasps, Toilenet Waistcoat shapes, Printed Marseilles Ditto, Ditto Jeans Ditto, Mullin and Silk Ditto, Bandanno Handkerchiefs, Flag Ditto, Low-priced Linen & Cotton Ditto,

Irish Linens,

SNABRIGS.

Raven's Duck,

Buff Cloth, Coarfe deep Blue Ditto, Superfine Ditto Duto, Raven's gray Ditto, Elastic Ditto, Striped Cassimer, Ditto and plain Nankeens, Black Worsted Lasting, Royal Rib, June 8, 1791.

Fuitians, Black Durants, Dittto Calimanco, Checks, Striped Holland, Brown Ditto, Bed-Ticking, Calicoes, Black Suk Hofe. Best Patent Ditto, Twilled Ditto, Women's Cotton Ditto, Men's brown Thread Do. Hat-Band Crape, Love Handkerchiefs, Ditto Ripbon, Mens and Worrens black Lamb Skin Gloves,

Liverpool China, A Quantity of Queen's-Ware, Hyson, Congo, & Bohea Teas, Spirit, Raisins, &c. &c. &c.

WESTERN SHORE of MARYLAND, General Court, May Term, 1791.

THAT all petitions in this court for freedom, be heard the first week of the fitting of the court, and that summonses for witnesses in such cases be returnable the second day of the court. That appeals, writs of error, demurrers, and other cases in law, be heard as the same may be called the first week of the court's fitting, and such of them as may not be heard in that week, as they may be called afterwards in the course of the court as opportunity may permit.

That these orders be published in the Maryland Gazette, and the Maryland Journal and Baltimore Ad-

Per order, JOHN GWINN, Clerk of the General Court of the Western Shore of Maryland.

TAKEN up as a STRAY, by THOMAS CRUCHLY Weliving at Carroll's Manor, in the lower part of Anne-Arundel county, a yelhouse with a gun in his hand, and fired at him, and I low bay MARE, five years old, about struck him in the left hand; that thereupon, under thirteen hands and an half high, two an apprehension that Mr. Hammond's negroes were white feet, and a part of the third white, has a star in coming to attack him, one of which had a gun, and her forehead, and a fuip on the end of her nofe, and fearing Mr Hammond would also get another gun, he trots and gallops. The owner is requested to come mounted his horse, and as he was mounting the said and prove his property pay charges, and take her

LL persons having claims against the estate of MERCHANDER FRAIZER, of Cal- MERCHANDER FRAIZER, of Cal- MERCHANDER the late ALEXANDER FRAIZER, of Calgret and complained that he was unfortunate in not verr county, are requested to attend on TUESDAY having killed him before; that this deponent endea- the 26th day of July next at Lower-Marlborough, in voured to diffuade the faid Gaither from the further the county aforefaid, with their claims properly auprofecution of his revenge, but that such distussions, thenticated, that they may receive their dividends. inflead of having any falutary effect upon him, only

PETER EMERSON, Attorney in fact for JOHN ALEXANDER FRAIZER, Admr. the faid Guither further declared, that he could recon-Calvert county, June 8, 1791. / 199/// Three Dollars Reward.

OTRAYED or STOLEN from the D fubscriber, living in Annapolis; a imall bay MARE, about thirteen hands and a half high, fix years old, with a fiell flar in her forehead, allo ma white spot on her neck, has no perceivable brand, with her main ha wing on the wrong fide, and switch tail. The above seward will be given for the mare when brought home, or fecured fo that I may get her again, besides all other reasonable ex-

DANIBL WELLS. Jun.

PROPOSALS.

For the PRINTING, by SUBSCRIPTION, By Samuel and John Adems, Printers, BALTIMORE-TOWN.

BOOK, entitled.

The Salvation of all Men Arietly exa-" mined, and the endless Punishment " of the Damned argued and defend-" ed against the Objections and reason-"ings of the late Rev. Dr. Chauncy, " of Boston, in his Book, entitled, The " Salvation of all Men, &c."

By JONATHAN EDWARDS, D. D. Pastor of a Church in New-Haven.

The subject of said book is treated in the following method:

THAP. 1. An account of the chief parts of Dr. Chauncy's system concerning future punishment, and a comparison of those parts with each other.

Chap. z. Whether the damned delerve any other punishment than that which is conductive to their pertonal good. Chap. 3. Whether the damned will, in fact, suffer any other punishment than that which is conducive to their personal good. Chap. 4. An examination of Dr. Chauncy's arguments to prove endless punishment inconsistent with Chap. 5. Is annihilation the punishment of the Chap. 6. The justice of endless punishment. Chap. 7. Another view of the same subject.

Chap. 8. Endless punishment consillent with good-Chap. 9. Dr. Chauncy's argument from Rom. v.

12. &c. considered. Chap. 10. His argument from Rom. viii. 19-24. confidered.

Chap. 11. His arguments from Col. i. 19. 20. Eph. i. 10. and 1 Tim. ii. 4. considered. Chap 12. His arguments from Psal. viii. 5.6. Heb.

ii. 6-9. Phil. ii. 9-12. 1 Cor. xv. 24-29. and Rev. v. 13. considered. Chap. 13. His doctrine of universal salvation compared with his ideas of moral agency.

Chap. 14. A reply to his answers to the arguments drawn from those texts, which declare the punishment of the damned to be everlasting-for ever-for ever and ever, &c. . Chap. 15. A reply to his answers to the arguments drawn from what is said concerning Judas, Mark xiv. 21.—from what is said concerning the unpardonable fin-and from the tendency of his doctrine to licenti-

Chap. 16. The positive evidence of endless punish-

CONDITIONS.

1. THIS book will contain above 300 pages, large octavo fize; will be printed with a new imall Pica type, on a good paper, and will be neatly bound, lettered and filleted with gold on the back.

2. Price to subscribers will be one dollar and one quarter of a dollar. The money to be paid on the delivery of the books.

3. Those who subscribe for fix books shall have the leventh gratis. 4. The work will be put to press as foon as a sufficient number of lubscribers appear, and will be finished as expeditionsly as possible, with a list of the subscribers, if sent in season; therefore subscribers are defired to annex their proper additions and places of abode.

N. B. Subscription papers (which are dispersed through the states, and put into the hands of gentlemen to receive subscriptions) are desired to be returned to Messers. Samuel and John Adams, Printers, in Baltimore-town, by the last of July next. Subscriptions taken in by the Printers hereof.

Baltimore, April 12, 1791. Pinkney and Guyer,

Have just received, and now opening, at their store formerly occupied by Mr. Joseph Williams, Suitable for the present and ensuing season, which they will fell low for CASH. A few Hampers of Cheshire Cheese, and a few Cases of Claret.