Three Dollars Reward.

ceivable brand, with her main hanging on the wrong side, and switch tail. The above reward will be given for the mare when brought home, or fecured fo that I may get her again, besides all other reasonable expences.

DANIEL WELLS, Jun.

PROPOSALS,

For the PRINTING, by SUBSCRIPTION, By Samuel and John Adams, Printers, BALTIMORE-TOWN,

A BOOK, entitled,

" The Salvation of all Men strictly exa-" mined, and the endless Punishment

« ed against the Objections and reason-" ings of the late Rev. Dr. Chauncy, of the Damned argued and defend-es of Boston, in his Book, entitled, The " Salvation of all Men, &c."

By JONATHAN EDWARDS, D. D. Passor of a Church in New-Haven.

The subject of said book is treated in the following method: HAP. 1. An account of the chief parts of Dr.

Chauncy's system concerning future punishment, and a comparison of those parts with each other.

Chap. 2. Whether the damned deserve any other punishment than that which is conducive to their perional good.

Chap. 3. Whether the damned will, in fact, suffer any other punishment than that which is conducive to their personal good.

Chap. 4. An examination of Dr. Chauncy's arguments to prove endless punishment inconsistent with Chap. 5. Is annihilation the punishment of the damned?

Chap. 6. The justice of endless punishment. Chap. 7. Another view of the same subject. Chap. 8. Endless punishment consistent with good-

Chap. 9. Dr. Chauncy's argument from Rom. v. 12. &c. considered. Chap. 10. His argument from Rom. viii. 19-24.

confidered.

Chap. 11. His arguments from Col. i. 19. 20. Eph. i. 10. and 1 Tim. ii. 4. considered. Chap. 12. His arguments from Psal. viii. 5.6. Heb.

ii. 6-9. Phil. ii. 9-12. 1 Cor. xv. 24-29. and Rev. v. 13. considered. Chap. 13. His doctrine of universal salvation compared with his ideas of moral agency.

Chap. 14. Rep'y to his answers to the arguments drawn from those texts, which declare the punishment of the damned to be everlasting-for ever-for ever and ever, &cc.

Chap. 15. A reply to his answers to the arguments drawn from what is said concerning Judas, Mark xiv. 21.- from what is faid concerning the unpardonable fin-and from the tendency of his doctrine to licentiouineis.

Chap. 16. The positive evidence of endless punishment.

CONDITIONS.

1. THIS book will contain above 300 pages, large octavo size; will be printed with a new small Pica type, on a good paper, and will be neatly bound, lettered and filleted with gold on the back.

2. Price to subscribers will be one dollar and one quarter of a dollar. The money to be paid on the delivery of the books.

3. Those who subscribe for fix books shall have the feventh gratis. 4. The work will be put to press as soon as a sufficient number of subscribers appear, and will be finished as expeditiously as possible, with a list of the subscribers, if sent in season; therefore subscribers are desired to annex their proper additions and places of abode. N. B. Subscription papers (which are dispersed through the states, and put into the hands of gentlemen to receive subscriptions) are desired to be returned to Messrs. Samuel and John Adams, Printers, in Baltimore-town, by the last of July next. Subscriptions taken in by the Printers hereof. Baltimore, April 12, 1791.

Pinkney and Guyer,

Have just received, and now opening, at their store formerly occupied by Mr. Joseph Williams, A GENERAL ASSORTMENT OF

Suitable for the present and ensuing season, which they will fell low for CASH.

A few Hampers of Chesbire Cheese, and a few Cases of Clares. Annapolis, April 14, 1791.

For the Benefit of the Fre rale Sex.

YOUNG LADY, for the take of humanity, desirous to inform the public, that she had laboured under a lingering confumption upwards of 12 months. Medicine, aided by the skill of persons eminent in their profession, was administered in vain—she was reduced to the last degree of weakness-unable to walk across her chamber without the support of a staff. In this stage of her sickness, a friend of the young la dy having, by accident, heard of some extraordinary cures performed in similar disorders by Mr. JAMES READ, of the city of Philadelphia, was induced, as last resource, to apply to him. Mr. Read prepared medicine, which was sent to the Bermuda islands, where the young lady, a native of America, has resided for some years. She recovered fast from the time she began to use it, and in little more than three months was restored to perfect health. Well knowing how many of her sex fall a sacrifice to that fatal disorder, which has hitherto baffled the kill of the ablest physicians in a great measure, she withes this to be published for the benefit of her sex, but particularly for those of bed, and no body with him; whereupon the said Gaither native land, that those labouring under a similar disorder may know where to apply for relief, as well as to express her gratitude to that worthy man, who, under Divine Providence, has been the happy instrument of preserving her life, and restoring her to health.

insert the above for the good of the public.

BY HIS EXCELLENCY

John Eager Howard, Esquire, GOVERNOR of MARYLAND.

PROCLAMATION

THERBAS by the deposition of REZIN HAMit appears, that on the morning of the 25th of April his honour he would not, and that he made use of the last ELIJAH GAITHER, son of Edward, came to promise as an artisce to get Mr. Hammond in the the dwelling of the said Hammond, and fired at him power; that Mr. Hammond then went within seven two pistols and a gun, with intention, as the said Ham- steps or thereabouts of him, and Gaither ordered him mond believes, to kill him: And whereas, by the de- to stop, gave his gun to his servant, and alighted from position of JOHN G. HAMILTON, of Montgome- his horse, at which time two of his pistols fell from his ry county, it appears, that the said Gaither afterwards, belt; that he thereupon offered Mr. Hammond a pilin conversation with him, acknowledged the facts set tol, and insisted upon fighting, which Mr. Hammond forth in the deposition above mentioned, except the declined, because there were no witnesses by, but offiring of the gun, and declared that he did discharge fered to fight at my subsequent day if he was bent upthe said pistols with a design to kill the said Hammond, on it; that Guither would not defer it, and said Mr. and did then further declare that it was still his settled Hammond should either fight him that moment, or he determination to kill the said Hammond whenever an would kill him; that, on hearing a noise behind him, opportunity should offer: And whereas it is obviously proceeding from the approach of a negro or regrees. the duty of the executive to guard as much as may be he, the said Gaither, turned in order to keep the said against the commission of such enormities, and to bring negro or negroes off, and that then colonel Hammond fuch offenders against the laws and peace of society to run from him towards the house; that he turned about, justice-I have therefore thought proper, by and with and before he had run many steps, he the said Gaither the advice of the council, to issue this my proclamati- levelled one of his pistols at him, and fired the same, on, authorifing and enjoining all sheriffs, and other and was astonished that he missed him, as he never took officers of the peace, to apprehend and convey before a more cool and deliberate aim in his life; that as foon some one of the judges or justices within this state, the as he sound he had missed him, he drew another pistol, said Elijah Gaither, in order that he may be dealt with and before Mr. Hammond had run above fisteen steps, according to law; and I do hereby exhort and require he fired that also at him, and thought he saw the wadthe good people of this state to be aiding and assisting ding burning on his back; that thereupon, although the said officers in the execution of their duty.

GIVEN at Annapolis, under the seal of the state and ninety-one.

. E. HOWARD.

REZIN HAMMOND.

By his Excellency's command,

T. Johnson, jun. Secretary. GODSAVE THE STATE.

* * ORDERED, That the above proclamation be published fix weeks. T. JOHNSON, jun.

HEREBY offer a reward of FOUR HUNDRED DOLLARS for apprehending the above-mentioned Elijah Gaither, agreeable to the foregoing proclama- Gaither, at the time of the above conversation, further tion, and will pay the same upon his being brought before any one of the judges of the general court, or either of the associate justices of Anne-Arundel county, to be dealt with according to law.

June 7, 1791.

Messrs. GREEN,

IN order fully to disclose the wicked and premeditated intent of Elijah Gaither, in his attack on me, pleased to publish in your paper the deposition of John G. Hamiton, which is as follows: REZIN-HAMMOND.

MARYLAND, fr.

N the second day of June, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-one, came before me, the subscriber, one of the judges of the general court, JOHN G. HAMILTON, and made oath, that on or about the thirteenth of May last he was in company and had convertation with Elijah Gaither, son of Edward, and that, in the course of the said conversation, the said Gaither informed this deponent as follows:--That he had had a round with colonel Recip Hammond, of Anne-Arundel county; that the faid Hammond had injured his reputation, and that, in confe-MERCHANDISE, quence thereof, he, the faid Gaither, for several months before, had premeditated and determined to kill him, and that he came down from New-York for that purpose; that having discovered in Baltimore town that colonel Hammond had brought fuits against him, he immediately hired horses, provided himself with three braces of pistols, all which he loaded, or caused to be loaded, with three builets and two buck-shormch, and quantity of shot, after which (viz. on Easter Monday before day-light) he, the faid Gaither, started with his servant from Elk-Ridge for colonel Hammond's place of residence with a full determination to kill h and arrived at the farm just after day-break; that placed and concealed himself in a certain field be ing to the faid farm, where it was usual for co Hammond to pais every morning, and to conced together with his faid servant, waited for some time in expectation of the faid Hammond coming along, during which time he, the faid Gaither, and his fervant. watched for him alternately; that some time after sunrife he, the said Gaither, finding that the said Hammond did not pass through the said field as he expected, sent his servant up to the house to inquire if the faid Hammond was at home, and if possible to discover and give him information whether the faid Hammond intended to come out, and which way he intended to go, who was at the house with him, and whether he was still in bed or not; that his servant returned and informed him that Mr. Hammond was at home and in her formed the design of going up to the house, entering Mr. Hammond's room (with which the faid Gaither was well acquainted) and affassinating him while in bed, but that he changed this resolution from an apprehension that he might be discovered before he could The Printers in the different flates are requested to carry his views into execution; that he remained in his first situation until about eight o'clock, when he and his servant rode up to the house with the gun and piltols aforesaid; that when he arrived there, he sent one of Mr. Hammond's negroes into the house to inform Mr. Hammond that he wanted to speak with him; that Mr. Hammond came into the yard and invited him to alight and walk in, which he refused; that Gaither then asked Mr. Hammond to come up to him, as he wished to speak with him; whereupon Mr. Hammond said, I see you are armed, and if I come to you, MOND, Esquire, of Anne-Arundel county, you will shoot me; that Gaither then promised upon Mr. Hammond did not fall, he'the said Gaither concluded he had killed him; but finding that he contiof Maryland, this seventh day of June, in the nued to run until he got into the house, and supposing year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred that Mr. Hammond intended to get a gun, and return with it, he the said Gaither took his gun from the servant, and got behind the pales of the yard, and levelled his gun over the pales, with his finger upon the trigger ready to fire as foon as Mr. Hammond shuld come out; that Mr. Hammond did come out of the house with a gun in his hand, and fired at him, and struck him in the left hand; that thereupon, under an apprehension that Mr. Hammond's negroes were coming to attack him, one of which had a gun, and fearing Mr Hammond would also get another gun, he mounted his horse, and as he was mounting the laid negro fired and struck him on the neck and lest shoulder; that then the faid Gaither went off; that the lad declared, that he was not yet fatisfied, and would always go prepared for the faid Hammond, and would kill him wherever he met him, and expressed his regret and complained that he was unfortunate in not having killied him before; that this deponent endeavoured to dissuade the said Gaither from the further profecution of his revenge, but that such dissuasions, instead of having any salutary effect upon him, only seemed to make him the more determined; and that the said Gaither further declared, that he could reconcile it to his conscience to hire assassins to take away the life of the faid Hammond; and that the debt for which Mr. Hammond had brought suit against him was a just debt, but that he never would pay it, and would kill him, or any one elfe, if he ever afked for a gun, which was loaded with three bullets and Sworn before me on this 2d June, 1791.

T. CHASE.

True Copy. OROONOKO

Stands at Mr. MICH, CARROLLS farm, called the Plains, and will COVER at TWEN. TY SHILLINGS the feafon.

The cash to be sent with the mares. JOHN MILLER. May 3, 1791.

ANNAPOLIS Printed by FREDERICK and SAMUEL GREEN.

fimi berg

fig

lan

this

army

diato