BY HIS EXCLLENCY John Eager Howard, Esquire, Governor of Maryland.

A PROCLAMATION

TITHEREAS at a general court held for the western shore of the state of Maryland on the tenth. day of May last, a certain THOMAS HADFIELD, late of Baltimore county, merchant, was indicted for the murder of DAVID STERETT, of the same county, merchant: And whereas the peace, dignity, and well being of the state require that such measures should be adopted as may probably effect the arrest of the said Thomas Hadfield, so that he may be put upon his trial for the said offence-I do, therefore, by the advice and consent of the council, issue this my proclamation, requiring all civil officers, and other the good citizens of this state, to apprehend the said Thomas Hadfield, and to bring him before some judge or justice within the said state, to be dealt with according to law.

GIVEN at Annapolis, under the seal of the state of Mary and, this eighth day of June, in the year of our Lord one thouland seven hundred I. E. HOWARD. and ninety-one.

By his Excellency's command, GODSAVE THE STATE.

State of Maryland.

Annapolis, June 10, 1791. THEREAS it has been represented by several of the inhabitants of Dorchester county, that a certain ELIE SMOOT, on or about the thirteenth of April last, was murdered by a certain negro WILL, the flave of John Smoot, of the said county, which negro, immediately after committing the said murder, fled to escape the justice of the laws, and was soon after apprehended and confined in prison in the city of Philadelphia, from whence he was taken by fundry citizens of this state employed by the said John Smoot, but escaped from their custody on the journey homeward, and fled towards the state of New-Jersey:

RESOLVED, That ONE HUNDRED DOL-LARS shall be paid for apprehending the said negro Will, and delivering him to the custody of the sheriff of any county within this state.

ORDERED, That the clerk take measures for the due publication of the foregoing resolution in the public papers of the states of Pennsylvania and New-Jersey. Extract from the minutes,

T. JOHNSON, jun. Clk.

THE advertisement originally issued, respecting the above-mentioned negro, contains the following description of him:

"A blacksmith by trade; he is a cunning artful fellow, about fix feet high, well made in proportion, has a black smooth face, a good set of teeth, very quick in his speech, and talks much; he has had a imall piece cropped from one of his ears, and has a fmall scar over one of his eyes."

To all whom it may concern. TOTICE is hereby given, that application will be made to the justices of Prince-George's county, at the next April court enfuing the date hereof, for a commission to establish the boundaries of the following TRACTS of LAND, adjoining each other, to wit: Webster's Chance, The Ridge, and part of Egerton's Manor, all in the faid county, agreeable to an act of afsembly passed in November session, seventeen hundred and eighty-fix, entitled, An act for marking and bounding lands.
