NOTICE is hereby given to all Persons interested,

HAT the subscriber intends to petition the justices of Anne-Arundel county court, at their next September fitting, for a commission to mark and bound the following TRACTS of LAND, contiguous and adjoining each other, lying and being in the county aforesaid, viz. the one called Pinkstone's Delight, the other called Ben's Luck, pursuant and agreeable to the directions of an act of assembly, entitled, An act for marking and bounding lands. W4 BENJAMIN STEVENS.

June 15, 1791. L

South river, May 18. 1791. A LL persons having claims against the estate of BENJAMIN HOWARD, late of Anne-Arundel county, deceased, are desired to make them known proved as the law directs, and all persons indebted to the citate of the deceased, and all persons who are indebted to him as sheriff of the county, for public taxes, county charges, officers fees, or otherwise, are requested to make payment, without delay, to my brother, Henry Hall, whom I have fully authorised and empowered to settle all the affairs of the deceased .-No further-indulgence can be given for the arrears of taxes, county charges, and officers fees; and all settlements made by him, or by those employed by him, will be valid.

MARTHA HOWARD, Executrix.

PROPOSALS,

For the PRINTING, by SUBSCRIPTION, By Samuel and John Adams, Printers, BALTIMORE-TOWN,

A BOOK, entitled,

"The Salvation of all Men strictly exa-" mined, and the endless Punishment of the Damned argued and defend-" ed against the Objections and reason-

" ings of the late Rev. Dr. Chauncy, of Boston, in his Book, entitled, The " Salvation of all Men, &c."

By JONATHAN EDWARDS, D. D. Papior of a Church in New-Haven. The subject of said book is treated in the following method: HAP. 1. An account of the chief parts of Dr.

Chauncy's system concerning future punishment, and a comparison of those parts with each other.

Chap. 2. Whether the dainned deserve any other punishment than that which is conducive to their pertonal good. Chap. 3. Whether the damned will, in fact, suffer any other punishment than that which is conducive to their personal good. Chap. 4. An examination of Dr. Channey's arguments to prove endless punishment inconnitent with juitice.

Chap. 5. Is annihilation the punishment of the damned?

Chap. 6. The justice of endless punishment. Chap. 7. Another view of the same subject.

Chap. 8. Endless punishment consillent with good-

Chap 9. Dr. Chauncy's argument from Rom. v. 12. &c. considered. Chap 10. His argument from Rom. viii. 19-24.

confidered. Chap. 11 His arguments from Col. i. 19 20. Eph.

i. 10. and 1 Tim. ii. 4. considered.

Chap 12. His arguments from Psal. viii. 5.6 Heb. ii. 6-9. Phil. ii. 9-12. 1 Cor. xv. 24-29. and Rev. v. 13 considered.

'Chap 13. His doctrine of universal salvation compared with his ideas of moral agency.

Chap. 14. A reply to his answers to the arguments drawn from those texts, which declare the punishment of the damned to be everlasting-for ever-for ever and over, &c.

Chap. 15. A reply to his answers to the arguments drawn from what is said concerning Judas, Mark xiv. 21 .- from what is said concerning the unpurdonable fin -and from the tendency of his doctrine to licentiou nels.

Chap. 16. The positive evidence of endless punishment.

CONDITIONS.

1. THIS book will contain above 300 pages, large octavo size; will be printed with a new small Pica type, on a good paper, and will be neatly bound, lettered and filleted with gold on the back.

2. Price to subscribers will be one dollar and one quarter of a dollar. The money to be paid on the delivery of the books.

3. Those who subscribe for fix books shall have the seventh gratis.

cient number of subscribers appear, and will be finished as expeditionsly as possible, with a list of the subscribers, if sent in season; therefore subscribers are desired to annex their proper additions and places of abode.

N. B. Subscription papers (which are dispersed through the states, and put into the hands of gentlemen to receive subscriptions) are desired to be returned to Messers. Samuel and John Adams, Printers, in Baltimore-town, by the last of July next.

Subscriptions taken in by the Printers hereof. Baltimore, April 12, 1791.

For the Benefit of the Female Sex.

YOUNG LADY, for the sake of humanity, is desirous to inform the public, that she had laboured under a lingering consumption upwards of 12 place of residence with a full determination to kill him, months. Medicine, aided by the skill of persons emi- and arrived at the farm just after day-break; that he nent in their profession, was administered in vain—she placed and concealed himself in a certain field belong. was reduced to the last degree of weakness—unable to ing to the said farm, where it was usual for colonel walk across her chamber without the support of a staff. Hammond to pass every morning, and so concealed. In this stage of her sickness, a friend of the young la- together with his said servant, waited for some time in dy having, by accident, heard of some extraordinary expectation of the said Hammond coming along, during cures performed in similar disorders by Mr. James which time he, the said Gaither, and his servant, READ, of the city of Philadelphia, was induced, as a watched for him alternately; that some time after sun. last resource, to apply to him. Mr. Read prepared a rise he, the said Gaither, finding that the said Ham. medicine, which was sent to the Bermuda islands, mond did not pass through the said field as he expect. where the young lady, a native of America, has re- ed, fent his servant up to the house to inquire if the sided for some years. She recovered fast from the time said Hammond was at home, and if possible to discover the began to use it, and in little more than three months and give him information whether the said Hammond was restored to perfect health. Well knowing how intended to come out, and which way he intended to many of her fex fall a facrifice to that fatal disorder, go, who was at the house with him, and whether he which has hitherto baffled the skill of the ablest physicians in a great measure, she wishes this to be published informed him that Mr. Hammond was at home and in for the benefit of her sex, but particularly for those of bed, and no body with him; whereupon the said Gaither native land, that those labouring under a similar her formed the design of going up to the house, enterdisorder may know where to apply for relief, as well as ing Mr. Hammond's room (with which the said Gait. to express her gratitude to that worthy man, who, under her was well acquainted) and affallinating him while Divine Providence, has been the happy instrument of in bed, but that he changed this resolution from an ap. preserving her life, and restoring her to health.

The Printers in the different flates are requested to insert the above for the good of the public.

BY HIS EXCELLENCY

John Eager Howard, Esquire, GOVERNOR of MARYLAND.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by the deposition of REZIN HAMit appears, that on the morning of the 25th of April his honour he would not, and that he made use of this last ELIJAH GAITHER, son of Edward, came to promise at an artifice to get Mr. Hammend in his the dwelling of the said Hammond, and fired at him power; that Mr. Hammond then went within seven two pistols and a gun, with intention, as the said Ham- steps or thereabouts of him, and Gaither ordered him mond believes, to kill him: And whereas, by the de- to stop, gave his gun to his servant, and alighted from position of JOHN G. HAMILTON, of Montgome- his horse, at which time two of his pittels fell from his ry county, it appears, that the said Gaither afterwards, belt; that he thereupon offered Mr. Hammond a pis. in conversation with him, acknowledged the facts set tol, and insisted upon fighting, which Mr. Hammond forth in the deposition above mentioned, except the declined, because there were no witnesses by, but offiring of the gun, and declared that he did discharge fered to fight at any subsequent day if he was bent upthe said pistols with a design to kill the said-Hammond, on it; that Gaither would not defer it, and said Mr. and did then further declare that it was still his settled Hammond should either fight him that moment, or he determination to kill the said Hammond whenever an would kill him; that, on hearing a noise behind him, opportunity should offer: And whereas it is obviously proceeding from the approach of a negro or negroes, the duty of the executive to guard as much as may be he, the said Gaither, turned in order to keep the said against the commission of such enormities, and to bring negro or negroes off, and that then colonel Hammond fuch offenders against the laws and peace of society to run from him towards the house; that he turned about, juitice-I have therefore thought proper, by and with and before he had run many steps, he the said Gaither the advice of the council, to issue this my proclamati- levelled one of his pistols at him, and fired the same, on, authorifing and enjoining all sheriffs, and other and was astonished that he missed him, as he never took officers of the peace, to apprehend and convey before a more cool and deliberate aim in his life; that as foon some one of the judges or justices within this state, the as he sound he had missed him, he drew another pistol, said Elijih Gither, in order that he may be dealt with and before Mr. Hammond had run above fifteen steps, according to law; and I do hereby exhort and require he fired that also at him, and thought he saw the wadthe good people of this thate to be aiding and affilting ding burning on his back; that thereupon, although the faid officers in the execution of their duty.

year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-one.

I. E. HOWARD.

By his Excellency's command,

T. Johnson, jun. Secretary.

* * ORDERED, That the above proclamation be published six weeks.

T. JOHNSON, jun.

HEREBY offer a reward of FOUR HUNDRED DOLLARS for apprehending the above-mentioned Elijah Gaither, agreeable to the foregoing proclamation, and will pay the same upon his being brought before any one of the judges of the general court, or either of the associate justices of Anne-Arundel county, to be dealt with according to law.

REZIN HAMMOND.

June 7, 1791.

Messrs. GREEN,

IN order fully to disclose the wicked and premeditated intent of Elijah Gaither, in his attack on me, be pleased to publish in your paper the deposition of John G. Hamilton, which is as follows:

REZIN HAMMOND.

MARYLAND, ff.

N the second day of June, one thousand seven it. hundred and ninety-one, came before me, the subscriber, one of the judges of the general court, JOHN G. HAMILTON, and made oath, that on or about the thirteenth of May last he was in company and had conversation with Elijah Gaither, son of Edward, and that, in the course of the said conversation, 4. The work will be put to press as soon as a suffi- the said Gaither informed this deponent as follows:-That he had had a round with colonel Rezin Hammond, of Anne-Arundel county; that the said Hammond had injured his reputation, and that, in confequence thereof, he, the said Gaither, for several months before, had premeditated and determined to kill him, and that he came down from New-York f r that purpose, that having discovered in Baltimore-town that colone! Hammond had brought fuits against him, he immediately hired horses, provided himself with three braces of piftels, all which he loaded, or caused to be loaded, with three bullets and two buck shot each, and quantity of shot, after which (viz. on Easter Monday before day-light) he, the said Gaither, started with his servant from Elk-Ridge for colonel Hammond's was still in bed or not; that his servant returned and prehension that he might be discovered before he could carry his views into execution; that he remained in his first situation until about eight o'clock, when he and his servant rode up to the house with the gun and pil. tols aforesaid; that when he arrived there, he sent one of Mr. Hammond's negroes into the house to inform Mr. Hammond that he wanted to speak with him; that Mr. Hammond came into the yard and invited him to alight and walk in, which he refused; that Gaither then asked Mr. Hammond to come up to him, as he wished to speak with him; whereupon Mr. Ham. mond said, I see you are armed, and if I come to you, MOND, Elquire, of Anne-Arundel county, you will shoot me; that Gaither then promised upon Mr. Hammond did not fall, he the said Geither con-GIVEN at Annapolis, under the seal of the state cluded he had killed him; but finding that he contiof Maryland, this seventh day of June, in the nued to run until he got into the house, and supposing that Mr. Hammond intended to get a gun, and return with it, he the said Gaither took his gun from the servant, and got behind the pales of the yard, and levelled his gun over the pales, with his finger upon the trigger ready to fire as soon as Mr. Hammond should come out; that Mr. Hammond did come out of the house with a gun in his hand, and fired at him, and struck him in the left hand; that thereupon, under an apprehension that Mr. Hammond's negroes were coming to attack him, one of which had a gun, and fearing Mr Hammond would also get another gun, he mounted his horse, and as he was mounting the said negro fired and struck him on the neck and left shoulder; that then the said Gaither went off; that the said Gaither, at the time of the above conversation, further declared, that he was not yet satisfied, and would always go prepared for the faid Hammond, and would kill him wherever he met him, and expressed his regret and complained that he was unfortunate in not having killied him before; that this deponent endeavoured to dissuade the said Gaither from the further profecution of his revenge, but that such dissualichs, instead of having any falutary effect upon him, only seemed to make him the more determined; and that the said Gaither further declared, that he could reconcile it to his conscience to hire assassins to take away the life of the said Hammond; and that the deot to which Mr. Hammond had brought fuit against him was a just debt, but that he never would pay it, and would kill him, or any one else, if he ever asked for a gur, which was loaded with three bullets and a Sworn before me on this 2d June, 1791.

I. T. CHASE.

True Copy. OROONOKO

Stands at Mr. NICH. CARROLLS farm, cal'ei the Plains, and will COVER at I WEIN TY SHILLINGS the leafon.

The cash to be sent with the mares. IOHN MILLER.

May 3, 1791. Printed by FREDERICK and SAMUEL GREEN.