The mowing lots of this town are infested with a strong black worm of about two inches in length, they are so numerous that they greatly injure the grais, which now should be cut, without delay .- The worms, immediately after a lot of grass is cut, emigrate in a body, (generally to the Westward) and, in a short time, will deftroy the fields of Indian corn, wheat, rye, or oats, that lie in their way.

Their entrance into the field may, in a great measure, be prevented, by casting a trench of loose earth around it, about eighteen inches deep; but a more effectual barrier against them, will be a small line of tar. It tery. highly concerns those who have any sort of grain adjoining unmown grass, to pay immediate attention to this

Some few days since, two persons in Morris county were opening a ditch, and having occasion to dig 4 or 5 feet beneath the surface of the ground struck upon the tooth of some enormous animal or monster, which on examination was found to be a perfect double tooth which weighted eighteen ounces; part of which was brought to this town yesterday by a gentleman who broke it from the original. No conjecture can be formed how long it has lain there, or what was its possessor.

Extract of a letter from St. Pierre, (Martinique) of 1st May, 1791.

By a decree of the national assembly, the port of Trinity, on the windward side of this island, is open to Americans without limitation as to time; that of Fort Royal, the governor, with consent of council, has thought proper to declare free until after the hurricane months. It is his opinion, as well as most men here, that in the interim the planting interest will obtain a decree of the nation for its remaining open."
