DNOTICE is bereby given to all Persons

next September titing, for a commission to mark and months. Medicine, aided by the skill of persons emi- and arrived at the farm just after day break; that he bound the following TRACTS of LAND, contigu- nent in their profession, was administered in vain—the placed and conceased himself in a certain field belong. ous and adjoining each other, lying and being in the was reduced to the last degree of weakness—unable to ing to the said farm, where it was usual for colonel county aforefaid, viz the one called Pinkflone's Deligh the other called Ben's Luck, pursuant and agreeable the directions of an act of affembly, entitled, An act for marking and bounding lands. w 4 BENJAMIN STEVENS.

June 15. 1791.

Six Dollars Reward.

T) AN AWAY from the fubfcriber, a negro m named MARCUS, twenty-one years of age, five feet fix or seven inches high; he is a sensible likely se low, and of a remarkably black complexion. The last time he was seen at my quarter in Loudon county was on Sunday the 24th ultimo. He is faid to have been feen in this town on Sunday the 1st instant, and my overseer is informed that he intended for Philadelphia. Whoever takes up and brings him home, or fecures him in any gaol, so that I may have him again, shall receive the above reward, besides all reasonable expences.

PHLIP R. FENDALL. Alexandria, May 11, 1791.

PROPOSALS,

For the PRINTING, by SUBSCRIPTION, By Samuel and John Adams, Printers, BALTIMORE-TOWN,

A BOOK, entitled,

" The Salvation of all Men strictly exa-" mined, and the endless Punishment co of the Damned argued and defendes ed against the Objections and reason-" ings of the late Rev. Dr. Chauncy, es of Boston, in bis Book, entitled, The " Salvation of all Men, &c." By JONATHAN EDWARDS, D. D. Pastor of a Church in New-Haven.

The subject of said book is treated in the following method:

HAP. 1. An account of the chief parts of Dr. Chauncy's system concerning future punishment, and a comparison of those parts with each other. Chap. z. Whether the damned deserve any other punishment than that which is conducive to their per-fonal good. Chap. 3. Whether the damned will, in fact, suffer any other punishment than that which is conducive to their per phal good.

Chap. 4. An examination of Dr. Chauncy's arguments to prove endless punishment inconsistent with Chap. 5. Is annihilation the punishment of the Chap. 6. The justice of endless punishment.

Chap. 7. Another view of the same subject. Chap. 8. Endless punishment consistent with good-

Chap. 9. Dr. Chauncy's argument from Rom. v. 12. &c. considered. Chap. 10. His argument from Rom. viii. 19-24.

considered. Chap. 11 His arguments from Col. i. 19. 20. Eph.

i. 10. and 1 Tim. ii. 4. confidered. Chap. 12. His arguments from Pfal. viii. 5.6. Heb. ii. 6-9. Phil. ii. 9-12. I Cor. xv. 24-29. and

Rev. v. 13. confidered.

Chap, 13. His doctrine of universal salvation compared with his ideas of moral agency.

Chap. 14. A reply to his answers to the arguments drawn from those texts, which declare the punishment of the damned to be everlasting-for ever-for ever and sver, occ.

Chap. 15. A reply to his answers to the arguments drawn from what is said concerning Judas, Mark xiv. zr.-from what is faid concerning the unpardonable fin-and from the tendency of his doctrine to licentioulneis.

Chap. 16. The positive evidence of endless punishment.

CONDITIONS.

1. THIS book will contain above 300 pages, large octavo fize; will be printed with a new small Pica type, on a good paper, and will be neatly bound, lettered and filleted with gold on the back.

2. Price to subscribers will be one dollar and one quarter of a dollar. The money to be paid on the delivery of the books. . Those who subscribe for fix books shall have the ieventh gratis. 4. The work will be put to press as soon as a sufficient number of subscribers appear, and will be finished as expeditionly as possible, with a list of the subscribers, if sent in season; therefore subscribers are defired to annex their proper additions and places of abode. N. B. Subscription papers (which are dispersed through the states, and put into the hands of gentlemen to receive subscriptions) are desired to be returned to Messrs. Samuel and John Adams, Printers, in Baltimore town, by the last of July next Subscriptions taken in by the Princers hereof. Baltimore, April 12, 1791.

For the Benefit of the Female Sex.

A YOUNG LADY, for the take of humanity, is before day-light) he, the faid Gaither, flatted with HAT the subscriber intends to petition the just- A desirous to inform the public, that she had la- his servant from Elk-Ridge for colonel Hammond's tices of Anne-Arundel county court, at their boured under a lingering confumption upwards of 12 place of relidence with a full determination to kill him walk across her chamber without the support of a staff. Hammond to pass every morning, and so conceand In this stage of her sickness, a friend of the young la- together with his said servant, waited for some time in dy having, by accident, heard of some extraordinary expectal in the faid Hammond coming along during cures performed in limitar disorders by Mr. James which time he, the said Gaither, and his servant READ, of the city of Philadelphia, was induced, as a watched for him alternately; that some time after sun. last resource, to apply to him. Mr. Read prepared a rise he, the said Gaither, finding that the laid Ham. medicine, which was fent to the Bermuda islands, mond did not pass through the said field as he craek where the young lady, a native of America, has re- ed, sent his servant up to the house to inquire it the fided for some years. She recovered fast from the time said Hammond was at home, and if possible to discovere the began to use it, and in little more than three months and give him information whether the said Hammond was restored to perfect health. Well knowing how intended to come out, and which way he intended to many of her sex fall a sacrifice to that fatal disorder, go, who was at the house with him, and whether he which has hitherto baffled the skill of the ablest physi- was still in bed or not; that his servant remned and cians in a great measure, the withes this to be published informed him that Mr. Hammond was at home and in for the benefit of her sex, but particularly for those of bed, and no body with him; whereupon the said Gair. her native land, that those labouring under a similar her formed the design of going up to the horse, enterdisorder may know where to apply for relief, as well as ing Mr. Hammond's room (with which the hid Gait. to express her gratitude to that worthy man, who, under her was well acquainted) and affailinating him while Divine Providence, has been the happy instrument of in bed, but that he changed this resolution from an anpreserving her life, and restoring her to health.

insert the above for the good of the public.

BY HIS EXCELLENCY

John Eager Howard, Equire, GOVERNOR OF MARYDAND.

A PROCLAMATION.

WOND Branis of REZIN HAMit appears, that on the morning of the 25th of April his honour he would not, and that he made use of this last ELIJAH GAITHER, ton of Edward, came to promise as an artifice to get Mr. Hammond in his the dwelling of the said Hammond, and fired at him power; that Mr. Hammond then went within seven two piltols and a gun, with intention, as the said Ham- steps or thereabouts of him, and Gather ordered him mond believes, to kill him: And whereas, by the deposition of JOHN G. HAMILTON, of Montgomery county, it appears, that the said Gaither atterwards, in conversation with him, acknowledged the facts let forth in the deposition above mentioned, except firing of the gun, and declared that he did discharge the said pittols with a design to kill the said Hammond, on it; that Guither would not deser it, and said Mr. and did then further declare that it was still his fettled determination to kill the said Hammond whenever an opportunity should offer: And whereas it is obviously the duty of the executive to guard as much as may be against the commission of such enormities, and to bring fuch offenders against the laws and peace of society to justice-I have therefore thought proper, by and with the advice of the council, to iffue this my proclamation, authorifing and enjoining all theriffs, and other officers of the peace, to apprehend and convey before some one of the judges or justices within this state, the said Elijah Gaither, in order that he may be dealt with according to law; and I do hereby export and require the good people of this state to be aiding and assisting the faid officers in the execution of their duty.

GIVEN at Annapolis, under the seal of the state of Maryland, this seventh day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-one.

I. E. HOWARD.

By his Excellency's command, T. JOHNSON, jun. Secretary.

GODSAVE THE STATE.

* * ORDERED, That the above proclamation be published fix weeks.

T. JOHNSON, jun.

HEREBY offer a reward of FOUR HUNDRED DOLLARS for apprehending the above-mentioned Elijah Gaither, agreeable to the foregoing proclamation, and will pay the fame upon his being brought before any one of the judges of the general court, or either of the affociate justices of Anne-Arundel county, to be dealt with according to law.

REZIN HAMMOND. June 7, 1791.

Meffrs. GREEN.

IN order fully to disclose the wicked and premeditated intent of Elijah Gaither, in his attack on me, be pleased to publish in your paper the deposition of John G. Hamilton, which is as follows:

REZIN HAMMOND.

MARYLAND, IT. Northe second day of June, one thousand seven handred and nincty-one, came hefore me, the subscriber, one of the judges of the general court, JOHN G. HAMILTON and made oath, that on or about the thirteenth of May last he was in company and had convertation with Elijah Gaither, son of Edward, and that, in the course of the said conversation, the said Gaither informed this deponent as follows:-That he had had a round with coloned Rezin Hammond, of Anne-Arundel county; that the faid Hammond had injured his reputation, and that, in confequence thereof, he, the said Gaither, for several months before, had premeditated and determined to kill him, and that he came down from New-York f r that purpose, that having discovered in Baltimore-town that colonel Hammond had brought suits against him, he immediately hired horses, provided himself with three braces of piftols, all which he to del, or caused to be loaded, with three bullets and two Buck-shot each, and prehension that he might be discovered before he could The Printers in the different states are requested to carry his views into execution; that he remained in his first situation until about eight o'clock, when he and his servant rode up to the house with the gun and pil. tols aforesaid; that when he arrived there, he sent one of Mr. Hammond's negroes into the house to inform Mr. Hammond that he wanted to speak with him: that Mr. Hammond came into the yard and invited him to alight and walk in, which he refused; that Gaither then asked Mr. Hammond to come up to him. as he wished to speak with him; whereupon Mr. Ham. mond said, I see you are armed, and if I come to you, MOND, Equire, of Anne Arundel county, you will shoot me; that Gaither then promised upon to stop, gave his gun to his servant, and alighted from his horse, at which time two of his pistols fell from his belt; that he thereupon offered Mr. Hammonda pif. tol, and infifted upon fighting, which Mr. Hammond the declined, because there were no witnesses by, but offered to fight at any subsequent day if he was bent ep. Hammond should either fight him that moment, or he would kill him; that, on hearing a noise behind him, proceeding from the approach of a negro or regroes, he, the said Gaither, turned in order to keep the said negro or negroes off, and that then colonel Hammond run from him towards the house; that he turned about and before he had run many steps, he the faid Gaither levelled one of his pistols at him, and fired the same, and was astonished that he missed him, as he never took a more cool and deliberate aim in his life; that as foon as he found he had missed him, he drew another pistol. and before Mr. Hammond had run above fifteen stere, he fired that also at him, and thought he saw the wadding burning on his back; that thereupon, although Mr. Hanimond did not fall, he the said Gaither concluded he had killed him; but finding that he continued to run until he got into the house, and supposing that Mr. Hammond intended to get a gun, and return with it, he the said Gaither took his gun from the servant, and got behind the pales of the yard, and kvelled his gun over the pales, with his finger upon the trigger ready to fire as soon as Mr. Hammond should come out; that Mr. Hammond did come out of the house with a gun in his hand, and fired at him, and struck him in the left hand; that thereupon, under an apprehension that Mr. Hammond's negroes were coming to attack him, one of which had a gun, and fearing Mr. Hammond would also get another gun, be mounted his horse, and as he was mounting the ad negro fired and struck him in the neck and lest shoulder; that then the faid Gaisner went off; that the la Gaither, at the time of the above converlation, further declared, that he was not yet fatished, and would always go prepared for the faid Hammond, and would kill him wherever he met him, and expressed his regret and complained that he was unfortunate in not having killed him before; that this deponent endeavoured to dissuade the said Gaither from the surther profecution of his revenge, but that such dissuasions, instead of having any salutary effect upon him, only feemed to make him the more determined; and that the said Gaither further declared, that he could reconcile it to his conscience to hire assassins to take away the life of the said Hammond; and that the debt for which Mr. Hammond had brought suit against him was a just debt, but that he never would pay it, and would kill him, or any one elfe, if he ever affect to Sworn before me on this 2d June, 1791. T. CHASE

a gun, which was loaded with three bullets and a quantity of shot, after which (viz. on Easter Monday

True Copy.

ORODNOKO

Stands at Mr. NICH. CARROLL farm, called the Plains, and will COVER at TWEN-TY SHILLINGS the featon.

The cash to be sent with the mares. JOHN MILLER May 3, 1791

Printed by FREDERICK and SA GREEN.

power of effe peace,

thre

coal

long time

ever

he w

cy y

tain

affir

Mr.

dent

with

tery

somp

vail (

Turk

Mate,

Difter

Agnec

be for

regard

the an

efforts

wishir

feels ]

Ho preten for, as jecting