ons, and informed them in general of the treaty, with which they ap. rities of Lake Wetter, in Saveden. is Lake are so clear that a piece of guished in it at the depth of 20 aces its bottom has never yet been ounded with a very long line. increases and decreases in a very

This is faid to be occasioned by and up n fuch occasions it makes wise, and a tempest soon after solinds, when least expected, break the lake is covered in winter, and onuminous substance, deposited y alarming to those who live in

MOND, July 9. who arrived in this city from Ken. he left the zift of Jane, we are ral Scott had been out on an ex-Indians, had killed thirty-one and ners; he had only four wounded, n croiling White-river, three were

, (dated the 18th of May) of his mas Shirley, captain-general and tannic majesty's Leward-Caribbee ons mentioned in an act of the prohibiting an intercourse between of America, and those islands, and 20th of next month.

LE, or HIRE,

OMAN, aged about twenty five, nter, a lively girl of about leven has been accultomed to plantation aracter of being an expert hand at a good knitter and spinner; the ended for honesty, industry, sobiis; her country qualifications notf little utility in town, is the reaher For terms, inquire of the of the the MANAGERS of the OR. OOL LOTTERY, on the 18th moully determined to commence on the first Monday in September ew tickets yet on hand, and it is hat those persons who are defirms e promotion of so laudable an infor the education of poor chiltickets in this lottery, will be cation.

CE MORE!

lebted to the subscribers, or to the ECOTHICK, THWAITES and , of London, merchants, either id, are called up n to settle with, William Cooke, Elquire, of Any empowered for that purpole, ints and obligations will be put is debtors above alluded to may be them as neglect this notice will -Those who are disposed to letainst them shall experience a reaenable them to do so with the and trouble. WILLIAM COOKE.

ACROFT and HODGKIN. 1791.

Jollars Reward. off the commons, near Annapoys ago, a black COW, five years eer, part of her tail white, and a k. Whever brings the same to XCROFT shall receive the above

0. 1791. Charles county, July 10, 1791. ving claims against the estate of E HUTCHESON, deceased, are em in properly authenticated that he estate may be ascertained, and or payment—all those indebted nmediate payment, to O. W. HARRISON, Admr.

whom it may concern. ratice, that we intend to apply to -Arundel_county court for a comound a TRACT of LAND in the PLUMMER'S PASTURE, acins of an act of affembly, ende ing and hounding lands. DANIEL PIUMMER.

THOMAS PLUMMER, LAMES PLUMMER.

E is hereby given, cribers intend to petition the next ly, that an act may pais to lay antation of George Pollett until cading from Salishury to Stevens of Johna M. rifs.
GILLISS POLE.

House of Entertainment.

HE jubscriber respectfully informs the public; that he' has opened a HOUSE of ENTER-TAINMENT in that large and convenient brickhouse on the ferry-side, in GEORGE-TOWN, formerly occupied by colonel Charles Beatty. Having lain in an affortment of the best liquors, with all other necessaries, and engaged good and obliging attendants, he flatters himself with the hope of giving satisfaction to all who may honour him with their cultom. Travellers will find, at this house, every conveniency for theinselves, with good hay, oats and stabling, or pasture, for their horses.

He also informs the public, that he has rented the FERRY between George-Town and ALEXANDRIA, and supplied it with a number of good boats, and attentive sober boat nen; and, as boats are constantly kept on each fide of the ferry, passengers will not be delayed on either side, but be taken over with the greatest safety and dispatch.

DAVID GEDDES. George-Town, June 24, 1791. 2

Annapolis, July 13, 1791. LL persons having claims against the estate of JACOB LUSBY, deceased, are requested to bring them in legally authenticated, and all persons indebted are desired to make immediate payment. __LIKEWISE,___

On the 5th of August next will be SOLD, the PERSONAL ESTATE of the said deceased, such as hogs, horses, cattle, and a parcel of Indian corn. BENJAMIN LUSBY, Administrator.

MURDOCH, Administratrix.

At Mr. GEORGE MANN's, in Annapolis, on FRIDAY the 29th July next,

A CONTINENTAL CERTIFICATE, for thirteen hundred and ninety dollars and eighty-nine cents, at six per cent. interest; CERTIFICATES amounting to nine hundred and thirty-two dollars and twenty-four cents, at three per cent. interest; and fix hundred and ninety five dollars and ninety-five cents DEFERRED STOCK.

OHN THOMAS, Administrator of John Jordan.

June 28. 1791.

HAT valuable tract of LAND in Montgomery county, known by the name of WoodsTock MANOR, containing about eleven hundred acres, 11tusted within two iniles of the mouth of Monocacy, and still nearer the Patowmack. The land is rich, in general level, and extremely well adapted to the cultivation of the finer kinds of tobacco and small grain; its convenience to the feat of the federal government being not more than twenty-eight miles distant with water communication, and on a main road leading from George-town to Frederick-town, which last is only fixteen miles distant, and its vicinity to the flourishing glass-works, combine to render its fituation highly valuable, and the whole tract a defirable object of purchase as a gentleman's seat, for which purpose it affords an healthy and elevated situation, uncommonly beautiful. The terms will be made east and may be known by application to colonel DEAKINS, near the land, Mr. Sprigg, of West siver, or Dr. Steuart, of Annapolis. Litf

For SALE, Sundry Houses,

HE house where Messirs. PINKNEY and GUYER now keep store, fronting the Market haufe, p'ssession to be given the first of April next. A house on Prince-George's street, where Mrs. FAIRBRUTHER litely lived. Two houses on Fleet-street. Likewise the house at the corner of Church and Green streets, where capt JAMES WEST, now lives, on leafe. For terms apply to the subscriber.

JAMES, WILLIAMS. Annanolis, June 29, 1791.

For PRIVATE SALE,

TOUR hundred and fifteen and a half ACRES of well improved LAND, it being part of that well known tract called Evans's Range, and Part of Higgins's Lot, lying adjacent to each other, in Prince-George's county, within 12 miles of the sederal city, and 10 of Queen-Anne. This land is well watered, has plenty of meadow ground, and about two hundred acres in woods, a part of which is heavily timbered; the foil is well adapted for farming and planting, and is now. under rent for 5000 lb. of tobacco per annum. There are immense quantities of fruit-trees of various kinds, and in a plentiful year ten thousand gallons of best cider can be made; the fruit-trees of all kinds are young and thriving. Any person inclined to purchase, may view the land and improvements, see the plot, and know the terms of sale, by applying to Mr. Robert Macgill, living near the premites, or the subscriber and it it is not fold by the 28th day of July next at private fale, it will on that day be sold at public sale, on the premises, and possession given on the fifteenth

RICHARD HIGGINS. Anne-Arundel county, Head of South River, June 16, 1791.

PROPOSALS,

For the PRINTING, by SUBSCRIPTION, By Samuel and John Adams, Printers, BALTIMORE-TOWN,

A BOOK, entitled,

The Salvation of all Men strictly exa-"mined, and the endless Punishment " of the Damned argued and defended against the Objections and reason-"ings of the late Rev. Dr. Chauncy

" Salvation of all Men, &c." By JONATHAN EDWARDS, D. D. Pastor of a Church in New-Haven. The subject of said book is treated in the following method: HAP. 1. An account of the chief parts of Dr. Chauncy's system concerning future punishment, and a comparison of those parts with each other. Chap. z. Whether the damned deserve any other punishment than that which is conducive to their perfonal good.

Chap. 3. Whether the damned will, in fact, suffer any other punishment than that which is conducive to their personal good.

Chap. 4. An examination of Dr. Chauncy's arguments to prove endless punishment inconsistent with Chap. 5. Is annihilation the punishment of the Chap. 6. The justice of endless punishment.

Chap. 7. Another view of the same subject. Chap. 8. Endless punishment consistent with good-

Chap. 9. Dr. Chauncy's argument from Rom. v. 12. &c. considered. Chap. 10. His argument from Rom. viii. 19-24. confidered.

Chap. 11. His arguments from Col. i. 19. 20. Eph. i. 10. and 1 Tim. ii. 4. considered. Chap 12. His arguments from Psal. viii. 5.6. Heb.

ii. 6-9. Phil. ii. 9-12. 1 Cor. xv. 24-29. and Rev. v. 13. considered. Chap. 13. His doctrine of universal salvation compared with his ideas of moral agency. Chap. 14. A reply to his answers to the arguments drawn from those texts, which declare the punishment of the damned to be everlasting—for ever—for ever and Chap. 15. A reply to his answers to the arguments At the PRINTING-OFFICE, drawn from what is faid concerning Judas, Mark xiv. 21.—from what is said concerning the unpardonable sin -and from the tendency of his doctrine to licentioulnels.

Chap. 16. The positive evidence of endless punish-ostavo fize; will be printed with a new small Pica type, on a good paper, and will be neatly bound, lettered and filleted with gold on the back.

CONDITIONS.

2. Price to subscribers will be one dollar and one quarter of a dollar. The money to be paid on the delivery of the broks. 3. Those who subscribe for six books shall have the seventh gratis. 4. The work will be put to press as soon as a sufficient number of subscribers appear, and will be finished The late Edition of the LAWS cient number of subscribers appear, and will be finished as expeditiously as possible, with a list of the subscribers, if sent in season; therefore subscribers are desired to annex their proper additions and places of abode. N. B. Subscription papers (which are dispersed through the states, and put into the hands of gentlemen to receive subscriptions) are desired to be returned to Messers. Samuel and John Adams, Printers, in Baltimore town, by the last of July next.

Subscrip'i ins taken in by the Printers hereof. Baltimore. April 12. 1791

Samuel Hutton,

Coach-Maker.

F.GS leave to return his most sincere thanks to the public, and his old customers in particular, for their past favours, and, from his due attention to please, he hopes still to merit their custom; he continues to carry on the above business in all its various branches, and approved fashions, on the most reasonable terms and shortest notice. He has supplied himfelf with a parcel of excellent timber and materials for carrying on the above business. Due attention will be paid to any orders received from the country.

Said Hutton wants a journeyman coach-maker, to whom he will give the best wages and one year's emplayment, or more. He also wants two boys as apprentices to the above business, from fourteen to sixteen years old.

Annan lis, Cornhi'l-street, June 29: 1791.

lune 12, 1791. A LL perfons having claims against the estate of Dr. EPHRAIM HOWARD, deceased, are reon or before that day, as a longer indulgence will not ed of the purchaser.

be given.

ACHSAH HOWARD, Executrix.

Five Pounds Reward.

TO AN AWAY from the subscriber. living in Anne Arundel county, within one mile of Severn chapel, on the 20th day o. June, 1791, a NE-GRO MAN named CÆSAR, about orty tour years of age, nive teet eleven inches high, he is a flour iquare well fet tellow, and when out of temper speaks very loud, he has remarkable small legs for a man of his size, and large flat feet; He was formerly the property of Jeremiub Cracb, Esquire, of Montgomery county; had on and took with him when he went away, a new felt hat, olnabrig of Boston, in his Book, entitled, The thirt, and one white ditto, striped holland trousers, old cotton breeches, patched in places with blue cloth; He is an artful fellow and probably will change his name and cloaths, and pass for a free man. Wheever secures the said negro in the gaol of the county where he is taken, or in any other gaol, to that the owner may get him again, shall receive THREE POUNDS, or the above reward if brought home, with all reasonable charges, paid by

LANCELOT WARFIELD.

CTOLEN or STRAYED, two nights ago, from off the common of this city, a strawberry roan HORSE about thirteen hands high, has a unail Inip on his noie, a short bushy tait, his mane hangs on both fides his neck, and no other perceivable mark. He was formerly the property of a Mr. Humbert, and supposed to be itolen by a black man. SIX DOLLARS reward will be paid for the horse if taken within the county, and TWELVE DOLLARS for the horse and thief if taken out of the county.

JAMES ROYSTON. Annapolis, June 23, 1791.

June 22, 1791. . TTAS committed to my custody on the 12th day of May last, as a runaway, a negro man who calls himself STEPHEN, and says he is the property of colonel John F. Mercer, and ablconded from said Mercer's plantation in Virginia. He is about twenty years old, five teet ten inches high, of very dark complexion, and his cleathing such as commonly given to. servants. His owner is requested to pay charges, and - take him away.

THOMAS A. DYSON, Sheriff of Charles county.

To be SOLD,

Price Ten Shillings,

1. THIS book will contain above 300 pages, large MARYLAND

NOVEMBER SESSION, Seventeen Hundred and Ninety.

Price Nine Dollars.

of MARYLAND, bound in sheep-And also a tew sets of the LAWS since that publication, price two Guineas, in sheets.—— All kinds of PRINTING WORK performed in a neat, expeditious, and correct manner, on the shortest notice, and on the most reasonable terms

SIX DOLLARS Reward.

AN away from the subscriber, living in this city, on Monday the 28th instant, a negro man named AMES ORKER, about twenty-five years of age, five feet eight or nine inches high, full faced well looking fellow, talks flow, and rather a down look; had on, when he went away, a cloth jacket, ofnabrig shirt and trousers, an old castor hat, carried with him some working cloaths. Whoever apprehends the faid tellow, and secures him, so that I can get him again. shall rećeive the above reward, paid by RICHARD WELLS. Annapolis, June 30, 1790.

Will be SOLD, at Public Sale, On MONDAY the 8th day of August next, on the

DART of a TRACT of LAND called CAIN's PURCHASE, containing about one hundred and fixty-five acres, lying in Charles county, and fituated on the river Patowmack and Port Tobacco creek, five miles from Port-Tobacco town. This land is particularly adapted to the produce of wheat, indian corn and tobacco; on it may be had a very good meadow, with little expence. The improvements are, a good dwelling house, kitchen, corn house, &c .- One third park of the purchate money will be required to be paid on quested to bring in their claims, legally authenticated, the day of sale, one other third part on the 8th August. day of December next. A bargain may be had for by the first Monday in August next, and it is expected 1792, and the balance on the 8th day of August, that all those indebted to said estate will make payment . 1793. Bond, with approved security; will be require