DOLLARS REWARD.

AN away from the subscriber the 10th day of May, a count orn negro flave named PHILL out twenty-eight of nine years e, hve teet leven or eight inch likely black fellow; and has lane and took with him when he we hat, a short red broad cloth coat. , a yellow stampt cotton jacket, a pair of brown fustian breeches, thirt, a pair of striped bed-ticking worsted stockings, and a pair of I understand that he has hired hbourhood of Annapolis, and note. HARLES BUTLER. I will give the ny person delivering the said fellow ollars for fecuring him in any gaol.

HENRY NEALE.

egro at their peril.

All persons are forewarned har.

Annapolis, October 4, 1791. t of fieri facias, to me directed, will to PUBLIC SALE, on MONDAY at ten o'clock, at the late dwelling Henry Ridgely, Elk-Ridge, HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE other ARTICIES, viz.

eds, bedfteads and bedding, table. affes, cheft of drawers, an eight day fferent kinds, about 71 lbs. of filver lead of hogs, some wheat, rye, our ; the crop of Indian corn, ot about field, and fodder; and fundry other to continue till all are sold. Taken perty of Henry Ridgely, by JAMES WILLIAMS, Sheriff.

heriff's Sales.

Mary's county, September 19, 1791. it of venditioni exponas, to me direct. neral court of the western shore of the and, will be SOLD, on Friday the tober next, at the dwelling plantation right, Esq; for ready cash,

FATE in the third part of the faid commonly called Marsh Neck, con-. ation 824 acres, more or less. One reel of land, being part of Chapne g 131 acres, more on lefs. One other land called Trent Fork, having a grift taining 125 acres, more or less. All parcel of land called The Ridge and containing by estimation-75 acres, valuable negroes, confisting of men, girls; horses, black cattle, hogs ind iety of household and kitchen fumintity of corn and tobacco. Sold as the above named John Cartwright to the state of Maryland, as late colleccoupty.

-ALSO,-

PHILIP FORD, Sheriff.

Mary's county, September 19, 1791. rit of wenditioni exponas, to me directneral-court of the western shore of the and, will be SOLD, for ready cash, ne 28th day of October next, on the LLING PLANTATION of Mr. awood, called Westham, containing 81 acres, more or less. One other f land called Cawood's Inheritance, es, more or leis. -ALSO,

, horses, black cattle, sheep and hogs, irniture, together with a quantity of Sold as the property of the above awood, to fatisfy a debt due the flate one of the securities of John Cart late collector of St. Mary's county. PHILIP FORD, Sheriff.

Mary's county, September 19, 1791. it of wenditioni exponas, to me direct neral court, will be SOLD, on Saturday of October next, for ready rath, or parcel of land called Collingwood, 100 acres, more or less. One other land called Collingwood, containing or less. Also, one other tract or par-Bedlam Neck, containing 383 weres, ld as the property of Clement Gardilebt due the state of Maryland, as one John Cartwright, Efquire, late coly's county. PHILIP FORD, Sheriff.

ors of WILLIAM RUSSELL, (48 lebtor) are requested to meet in Chelday the 7th day of November next ive claims properly attested. HO, WORRELL, Administrator DWARD, late theriff of Kent county.

OCTOBER 27, 1791.

ABA MAHOMET, dev of Algiers. died the 12th inft. in confequence of a dylentery, at the age of eighty years, and in the twenty-fifth of his reign. Cid Haffan, his prime minister, a man about fifty, was immediately proclaimed by the militia, and the election was made without tumult. The three first officers of the regency had each pretensions to the fovereignty, but they very willingly religned them, and were permitted to pay their respects to the new dey. One of the three, the only aga of the spahis, was arrested and taken into custody the moment they were going to enter the palace. His rival ordered him to be banished to a fort twelve miles from the capital, and confileated his estates.

The reign of Baba Mahomet was remarkable for its brilliancy, utility and tranquillity. It is to be hoped that that of Cid Hassan, who appears to be favourably disposed towards France, will not be less glorious. He seems eager to ratify the capitulations.

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 8.

intrigues of Hassan Pacha, has since that time endeavoured to raise a party, and is now actually at the head of some thousands of rebel Arabs, and has made an great straits.

the first for want of ability, and the latter because he the Turks in general. seems more eager to get money than to distribute impartial justice.

LISBON, August 2.

The like apprehensions which have been long entertained by the court of Spain, of a revolution in that country, at present pervade the breasts of our ministry: several decrees, intended for the suppression of public meetings of almost every description, have been lately issued, but they are calculated to ferment rather than suppress any wish in the Portuguese to effect a revolu-

It is currently reported here, that a war between Spain and the emperor of Morocco is inevitable; but what foundation there may be for the report, we cannot conceive; indeed, some have gone so far as to say, that the Moorish monarch has surprised Ceuta, and put the garrison to the sword; but this account is, to a certainty, untrue.

SALISBURY, August 8.

Some few farmers in this neighbourhood have begun purchase it." to reap their wheat, the general appearance of which will make the harvest general in the course of the preient week.

VIENNA, August 24.

Last Sunday a courier arrived at the house of prince Gallitzin, the Russian ambassador, from prince Repnin, with news, that on the trth instant, the preliminary articles of peace between Russia and the Porte were figned at Galatz by him and the grand vizier:

And that in order to have time for adjusting a definitive treaty, and appointing commissioners for that purpose, they had agreed upon an armistice for eight

The count d'Artois, brother to the king of France, arrived here four days ago, with 20 persons in his suite; he went to court, and was received by the whole Ini-

The emperor, attended by the archduke Francis, let out on Monday morning for Bohemia.

perial family. He went away yesterday.

LONDON, August 10. One of the king's private messengers (Mr. Dowson) fects could be prevented. the feveral West-India Islands.

tation: it will, however, he presented to him in a few Spanish ambassador. a sing of France ought to have.

A counter-revolution is yet talked of; but from whole country.

Maury, promiting to keep his word with the national he will foon have his own dominions to quiet again they have no region.

to the frontiers towards France, more for the purpose, emperor." we should suppose, of enforcing this, and former pro- Should the emperor invade France, it is the intenclamations, than to assist in bringing about a counter- tion of the patriots to make a diversion in Brabant, by A chief eunuch, who was treasurer, and in high revolution in that country. With due deference to means of Vandernoot, as, by giving independence to credit during the last reign, but was banished by the his catholic majesty's judgment on this subject, we pre- the Austrian Low Countries, they will be able to palfy sume this is not the way to prevent a revolution from the exertions and dispirit the operations of the Imperitaking place in his own kingdom.

Desperation and despondency alternately succeed The king of Spain has made a very charitable quaattempt to get possession of all the treasures at Mecca, each other in the declining empire of Turkey, at the lisication of his late decree concerning foreigners. He the chief of which renewned place he has reduced to commencement of a battle, and on the event of it, declares, that they are not to renounce their dementic which is uniformly in favour of Russia; a peace, we connexions, or their political and civil dependence up-The Kiaja Bey and the Bostangi Bachi, are deposed; believe, on any terms, is now the desirable object of on their governments, i. e. they are to do that for Extract of a letter from Totness, August 10.

"The contagious distemper at Totness, in Devon, An Irish officer, detained upwards of twelve years the town, who have escaped its ravage (three of whom justice and the vengeance of a free nation. are dead) received last week an anonimous letter, full An African slave ship was lately lost on the Middle The accomplices, however, are still at large, and the parents.

a place called Banker's Hill, where the servants go to Petersburgh and Warsaw.

is lately much improved, and promises a much more sew years since, obtained the title of reverend, by taking Calonne, and the prince of Nassau. productive harveit than was before expected. The holy orders, and held forth to a crowded audience at a crops of other corn are also particularly benefited by chapel in the neighbourhood of Spitalfields, is now a the present fine weather, a continuance of which will bricklayer's labourer! and was a few days fince in that be highly advantageous to the community at large, and capacity, assisting in pulling down the chapel in which he uled to preach.

Sept. 3. We hear from Gibraltar, that the embaffy lately fent to the emperor of Morocco has returnedit was well received, and we believe has been productive of every advantage that could be expected. Provisions have since been in great abundance.

A vessel, just arrived in the bay from Oran, confirms the report of the benegers having received confiderable supplies, both of men and ammunition-reports state, from the Maltese. They continued their offensive operations with vigour, and with a probability of lucceis.

Several of the British merchants at Alicant, Carthagena, &c. have sent considerable parts of their properhither, and are shortly expected to follow themselves, in consequence of the late edicts of the court of Madrid respecting foreigners.

The plague threatens to do much mischief in the easiern parts of Europe; it has reached the Prussian ar-let off yesterday morning for Falmouth. He carries Among other presentations at the levee on Wednes very particular dispatches to his majesty's governors in day last, was M. de Hicras (the commissary appointed by the court of Spain to fettle the damages which are dug. 15. The national assembly have published their to be allowed captain Meares, and the gentlemen connew constitution, and with it their determination to cerned with him, as proprietors of the vessels which suring you of the constancy of that friendship which abile by the letter of it, independent of the king's accept were captured in Nootka Sound) by his excellency the

The confequences of his refusal we cannot an- Letters from Constantinople mention, that the rebelticipate; his acceptance of it will put him again in linn in Arabia has greatly terrified the Divan; and offestion of as much power, as it has been determined that it was generally apprehended, that as there was Extract of a letter from Marietta, to a gentleman in Word no force to appose them, they would over-run the ave the fairest pretence for disturbing the internal clared lately, at the table of M. la Fayette, that he Bottom, and our people frequently fired on, yet Provi-

The furious Bauille has entered into the service of the consequence, which would have surnished me with an king of Sweden; and we believe, is working up that opportunity to return to the Netherlands, and the monarch to his purpose, if we may judge from a letter the French, where, after hanging a tew thousands of of instruction, said to be written to the Swedish am- priests, every Austrian would have been driven iron ballador at Paris, as well as from another letter, re- the country." This proves, in some degree, that, ported to be fent from Bouille himself to the abbe should the emperor attempt any thing against France, affembly; but this we confider at present as all vapour, The states of Brabant having declared the council of unless the meditated attack be universally supported by Brabant to be illegally computed, the governor-general other powers. The French nation are said to express of the Low Countries have prohibited not only them, a jealouly of our naval force, but we hope and trust but the magistrates of Brussels, from deliberating on Spain has published a most extraordinay decree re- Every thing announces a second revolution in Braz lative to strangers, which nothing but an extreme ter- bant. The states have claimed the oberation of two ror of revolution-principles could have dictated: it goes burgesses and six priests, who were seized and confined absolutely to prohibit the residence of all foreigners in by a detachment of soldiers, on account of celebrating Spain of liberal sentiments. This is evidently levelled the birth day of Vandernoot: these have been at length at the French, who are very numerous in Spain; but fet at liberty; but the same body still complains that how it will be relished by the other powers of Europe, they were imprisoned during a longer period than that the penal execution of the decree, which by this time prescribed by law, " in violation of the constitution, has taken place, must determine. Troops are marching and the late oath so solemnly sworn in the name of the

which they will be confidered as traitors whenever they return home.

is daily ipreading its baneful influence over all ranks; in the island of St. Marguerite, in consequence of a and the dreadful knell scarcely has failed proclaiming lettre de catchet, has found means to write a letter to the departure of three or four fouls a day. Added to the president of the national assembly, in which he this, the remaining few of the aldermen resident in has informed him of his situation, and demanded the of incendiary and inflammatory matter, which has Passage; the account adds, "that the men were laved, caused the greatest consternation among them; but one but the ship and cargo lost."-Lest the reader should of the authors being apprehended and committed to mistake the nature of this cargo, he is informed, that is Exeter gaol, to take his trial at the next affizes for the confifted of 230 of our fellow creatures—found guilty offence, has in some measure alleviated their sears. of having been born on the coast of Guinea, of black nomination of the mayor is in consequence postponed. Sept. 8. On the 23d of August the emperor of Ger-"The neighbourhood are so much alarmed at the many, with his eldest son, and the king of Prussia, number of deaths, that little or no provisions are with his eldest son, arrived at the palace of the elector brought to the market; and those who used to bring of Saxony, at Dresden; and on the 25th Mr. Faw. the produce of their farms into the town, now stop at kener, the English envoy, arrived also at Dresden from

On the same day arrived at Dresden also, the count Extraordinary reverse of fortune. A person, who, a d'Artois, the marquis de Bouille with his son, M. de Extract of a letter from the Hague, September 2. "An express is arrived here with accounts that peace has been figned between Russia and the Porte.

at Maczin, in fight of the two armies. "There is not the least doubt of the powers of Europe forming a league to settle the affairs of France; but it is said, that the courts of England, Prussia and Holland, have not yet absolutely come into the views of other powers in that important affair."

Original letter from the king of Peland to M. de Villinboff, at Paris.

I have been very much flattered by receiving, after an absence of thirty years, such an affectionate testimony of your fentiments as that afforded by your letter of the 4th of June last.

The active and honourable part which you have taken in the revolution in France, is related in a paper which has been, for some time past, constantly brought to me. The same humane and civic motives, that have governed your conduct in the country which you inhabit, induce you to take a part to agreeable to me in the revolution in Poland.

The success of the latter can never be more pleasing my, and committed some ravages before its baneful ef- to me, than when I find it approved by those whose merit has long commanded my particular effecm. My most sincere thanks are due to you for the sentiments you express upon an event, that promises to Boland a more happy and secure existence for the future.

I am very glad to have found this opportunity of afformed, when I had the happiness of knowing you. Stanislaus Augustus, King.

NEW-YORK, Ottober 17. cester, (Was).) August 21.

"I am happy in being able to inform you, that several accounts, we have reason to think that those One of the commanders of the Belgic army in their notwithstanding our being almost continually harrasted owers upon the continent, which are most able, and late attempt to gain independence, now at Paris, de- by small parties of Indians, ever since the affair at Big cace of France, are rather disposed to negotiate their was forry the French king had not succeeded in his at- dence has so ordered it, that only two persons have day to this the national assembly are willing to tempt to leave the kingdom. The company being been killed, viz. captain Rogers and Mr. Kerr, both de; and in consequence, have properly suspended somewhat surprised, he explained himself-" A war late from Virginia, and a lad, son of James Converse, ir res violent proceedings against the refugee princes. between the emperor and France would have been the formerly of Hardwick, taken prisoner; on our part