because their own interests would at peace for the lake of our trade. do without it. But till they have an our's for European articles, nig lat we can secure our peace from and fear. My scalping plan is lias on, that if we have any friends our scouts, for the sake of gain. vigilant they ought to have adding to their services) would not hefiour friends. There will therefore establish forts at Presque Isle, &c. etween the Six Nations and oher it secure the ostensible friendship which would be something, and it friendship, would keep them in urnish them with protection against e forts near the friends they ought g party, but a garrison and lettlers. ould protect the settlets. The setne garrison, and all together would for this country."

day morning was presented to the United States, a box, elegantly er, and made of the celebrated oak the Washington of Scotland, the William Wallace*, after his defeat lkirk, in the beginning of the four-Edward the 1st. This magnificent ristical present is from the earl of nds of Mr. Archibald Robertion, a nd portrait painter, who arrived in nths ago. The box was presented the goldsmith's company at Edinhis lordship requested, and obtainit over to a man whom he deemed it than himself, and the only man hors he thought it justly due. We ord Buchan has, by letter, requelled hat on the event of his decease, he hove to that man, in this country,

Teffor. upon a filver plate, on the infide of s:-Presented by the goldsmiths of id Steuart Erskine, earl of Buchan, f their corporation, by their deacon in his judgment, to merit it helt iderations that induced him to lend

Tallace at first a private gentleman, empted a revolution in Scotland, e grounds with that more recently merica, to expel the English and ho had usurped the government. ctory over the forces of Edward the was soon after attacked by Edward 500 foot and 7,000 horse; whereas Sir William did not exceed 30,000 division of this army was tampered and rendered of no use to the pan after the battle of Falkirk, Su e prisoner by some of Edward's parngland, and beheaded.

from Cape François, December 5.

gence that had recently been re u-Prince relative to a dispute be es and whites, wherein many live fire was let to the town in severa tres out of 44, whereof it confilled ed. The street called Rue des Capi rincipal magazine of provisions and nflagration. I have seen an extract the first commercial houses in the the loss at 500 millions of livres ediately retreated to their camp s, and we are told that the comstern district, M. Coutard, is with of civil discord seems to rage in degree of invetoracy unknown u Nothing seems to satisfy a partizan his opponent's life and property ruction having thus recommenced can tell where it will terminate it evening from Les Caves mention riefs of the mulattues at Croix de ed into the southern districts, have arty in the vicinity of Cayes, titel batteries, and threaten the town of The planters in that quarter taken refuge in the town. I'm proclaim, that unless they depart to his habitation, and surrendel Il deliver it and its inha itants in hat a diffreffing fituation! It is all etermine who is right and who is principles of this tragical bulinels olame on all sides; I sear the retuit he colony." duilry, captain Stiles, is arrived at from Hilpaniola, He left Cpq oth November.—No acc unt then -Prince being burnt. The three France had arrived, but no rraops. punts received in France of the incommissioners sailed.

MORE, January 11. lieutenant Jeffers, dated Fort-Frank cember, 1791. By express, to at Pittsburgh, or major I. travels

oment received anthentic accounts

will almost immediately take place; for the Indians from below declare that they are determined to reduce this place, shake the Complanter by the head, and fweep the river from end to end.

You are most earnestly requested, and, if I have inv authority, positively ordered, to send me without los of time, one subaltern and thirty men as a reinforcement, together with my men who have been left 6 k at Fort Pitt. Under this convoy, fend me promions to make five months rations for feventy men. This news is not fictitious, nor this letter to be trifled with I have written to the minister of war; but his

J. JEFFERS.

Inother letter from lieutenant Jeffers of the same date, to Mr. E. Williams, contractor. " I am happy to inform you that the cattle and falt mived fafe: the danger in this country is so great, that I fent soldiers and Indians to escort them. I am Monished Mr. Bond arrived safe: I have every reason to expect that nine times out of ten fo small a party will be cut off.—No time to be lost in sending five months provision, as one escort will answer for the ANNAPOLIS, January 12. The president of the United States has appointed, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, Lemuel Reddick, to be surveyor of the port of Suffolk, in the state of Virginia, vice Benjamin Bartlett, re-

THE old year past, the new hath taken place. Thus Time steals on, with slow but steady pace .--May th' new he more propitious than the old, And imiling peace, with plenty,-foon unfold. May enthusiastic hypocrites be dumb, fore'd by plain truth and reason to succumb. Let truth and reason evermore prevail, While virtue, aiding justice, trims the seale. Tyranny no more shall shew its baneful head Except mong despots, where it now hath fled; Enlighten'd reason, soon or late we'll find, Shall liberate on earth, all human-kind; Make tyrants flee to countries yet unknown, Or become converts to support their own In Freedom's cause. - Bless'd days to those on earth, Who'll see with pleasure, such a good new birth, When Gothic darkness shall be turned to light, Never again the vulgar to affright. All mankind triends—wife laws shall govern all,

Annapolis, January 1, 1792. ta meeting of the Visitors and Governors of ST. JOHN's COLLEGE, in the state of Maryland, on Thursday the 10th of November last, RESOLVED.

And to support them, each will stand or fall.

Hail glorious days! in embryo just begun,

Proceed, accomplish-end, when ends the sun.

THAT this board, at the quarterly meeting in. May next, proceed to elect a VIOE-PRINCIPAL on the 29th ult. mentioning the of St. John's College.

That it be the duty of the principal and vice-prineipal to teach some of the higher authors in Latin and Geek, certain parts of the mathematics, logic, and moral and natural philosophy; and that the departments of the said principal and vice-principal shall master be ascertained with precision, on consideraon of their mutual convenience and qualifications. situated, fell a prey to the slames. That the vice-principal shall be entitled to receive, , that only four merchants house for his services, a salary of three hundred and fitty pounds current money, rating dollars at 7/6 each, to be paid quarterly.

That persons desirous of, and qualified for, the oface of vice principal, be, by public advertisement, requelled to make application to Mr. Charles Wallace, Mr. Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, and Mr. Alexander Contee Hanson, all of the city of Annapolis. By order of the Board,

JOHN THOMAS, President. N. B. The fundamental laws of St. John's college prohibit all preference on account of religious tenets

As the appointment of a vice-principal is alone wanted to complete the plan of this rifing feminary, board will certainly proceed, at the time stated, to election, provided a person qualified, in their judg. for this important office, can be procused. The prional attendance of the candidates, although not

It may be useful to remark, that the salaries of all professors and teachers have hitherto been paid entire punctuality, and that the funds of St. pon's coilege produce a certain annual income superito all the appropriations which have been or probe made.

the Printers of news-papers throughout the United are earnestly requested to insert the above reand remarks, and to repeat the publication as ofas convenience will permit.

OTICE is hereby given, that the subscriber intends to petition the court of Kent county for a commission to mark and bound the following TRACTS LAND, viz. The Remains of My Lord's Graci-The Beaver Dams, The Remains of My

ALIST of LETTERS

Remaining in the Post-Office, Annapolis, which, if not taken up before the first day of April next, will be sent to the General Post-Office as dead let-

DOLLY BURK, captain Butler, of the schooner John, David Bangs, Annapolis; Maryann Biscoe, St. Mary's county.

Samuel Chase (2), Jeremiah T. Chase (2), Nicho-Carroll, Mrs. Carroll, Cornelius Comegys, John Craggs, care of F. Grammar, Thomas Chipchale (2). Annapolis; Benjamin Chaney, Prince-George's coun-

Richard Dallam, Annapolis; Mary Dowson (2), Benedict. Mr Fleming, Annapolis; captain William Foster,

thip Kitty, Lower-Mariborough. Charles Goldsborough, jun. (2), care of William' Cooke, Robert Goldsbirough, John Gwinn, David Geddes, Annapolis; Benjamin Gantt, Prince-George's Thomas Hardy, Annapolis; Thomas Hamilton, Schoolfield; Mrs. Harwood, Lower-Marlborough; Richard Humberston, Upper-Marlborough; Benjamin Hutchins, St. Mary's county; Joseph Hopkins.

Joseph Jackson, Prince-George's county. John Knowles, Annapolis; Joseph Karruk, Hunting-town.

William Loyd, Annapolis; George Lynzey, Prince-George's county; Samuel Lane, Calvert county. Samuel Miller, capt. Moffat, of the floop Nancy, Luther Martin, John Marshall, Annapolis; Joseph M'Ceney (2), Pig-Point; Thomas Mackall, William M'Blair, Lower-Marlborough.

John O'Kennedy, care of John Ashton, Annapolis; John O'Harroh, Pig-Point; John Newton, Prince-George's county.

Henry Ridgely (2), Charles Ridgely, John Randall, Annapolis.

Vachel Stephens, Robert Smith, William Sandison (2), Annapolis; capt. Skinner, ship Collins, Patuxent river; capt. James Somervell, Prince-George's county; Thomas Smith and Sons, Chester-town.

Col. Levin Winder, James Winchester, William Wilkins, jun. Thomas Walley (2), Joseph Williams (2), Annapolis; John Wasteneys, Herring Bay; capt. Nathaniel Wilion, William White, Calvert county. S. G R E E N, D. P. M.

* * Those persons who send to the Post-Office for LETTERS, are requested to send the MONEY, as none will be delivered without.

Baltinore-town, Maryland, January 5, 1792.
OTICE is hereby given, that we are ready to receive subscriptions at our respective houses for shares in the Maryland Insurance Fire Company, in virtue of, and agreeably to, an act of affembly of the state of Maryland, entitled, An act to erect and establish an insurance fire company in Baltimore-town, in Baltimore county, and for other purposes.

IOHN MERRYMAN, NICHOLAS ROGERS, GEO. SALMON, JAMES CALHOUN, Wm. BUCHANAN, of George.

WANTED

FEW THOUSAND CHESNUT RAILS, for which a good price will be given. Inquire of the Printers. January 1, 1792. Bonjamin

Anne-Arundel county, November 23, 1791. zer Watkins, deceased. Charles Onion is about eighteen years of age, and Nicholas Watkins is about nineteen years of age. Whoever apprehends and brings them home shall receive ONE SHILLING reward for the two, or SIX PENCE for either of them, paid by

RICH. WATTS. N. B. All persons are forewarned from harhouring or keeping them at their peril. 1 17/0

FORTY DOLLARS REWARD.

AN away from the subscriber last week, a likely negro man named AARON; he is about twenty-three years of age, five feet eight or nine inches high, well made and remarkably active; has a fcar on one of his wrifts, occasioned by a cut of a knife; had on, when he went away, a new fearnought jacket, a pair of striped country cloth overalls, white yarn stockings and coarse shoes; but as he took a variety of other cloaths with him, which I do not recollect (except a light blue broad cloth coat, with plated buttons,) will probably change his dreis, and attempt to pais for a free man; he has a great propentity to firong drink, and when intoxicated is extremely quareliome and impertinent. Whoever secures the said negro in any gaol, to that I get him again, shall receive TWENTY DOLLARS, or the above reward if brought home.

DAN. JENIRER, jun. Port-Tobacco, January 4, 1792.

AKEN up by the subscriber, living near Pig-Point, as strays, a sorrel MARE, seven or eight years old, about fourteen hands high, paces, trots and gallops, switch tail, and no percuivable brand; and a Grant, or The Remainder of His three or four years old, undocked, no brand, with a

LL persons having any just claims against the effecte of WILLIAM HALL, of BEN. late of Prince-George's county, deceased, are defired to bring them in properly authenticated and proved, and all persons indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment.

/// RICHARD D. HALL, Executor.

Manufactory.

TOOTELL & NORTON.

D) ESPECTFULLY inform the public, that they I mean to open a HAT MANUFACTORY in South-East-street, in this city, on or before the 31st of January, where it will be carried on, in an extensive manner, in all its various branches. Mr. NORTON, who has been foreman to Mr. John Gray, hatter, in Baltimore-town, (and has also worked in several of the first manufactories in London,) flatters himself, that he will give general satisfaction to those persons, who honour them with their custom. Commissions from the country, will be gladly received, and punctually attended to. N. B. Those persons having FUR's for sale, will always receive the best prices for them, cash in hand. * The public are respectfully informed, that they may be supplied with most excellent APPLES by the barrel, by applying at Mr. T. JOHNSON, ju-nior's store, on the Dock. Annapolis, December 19th, 1791. 4 To be SOLD, at PUBLIC VENDUE, on Tueiday

the 24th of January, 1792, on the premises, for CASH only: C'UNDRY valuable, healthy young NEGROES, confifting of men and boys, from ten years old and upwards, late the property of Thomas Rutland, and sold to satisfy all debts due from said estate, by MARTHA HOWARD, Executrix of Joseph Howard, Jun. who was Executor, of Thomas Rutland.

-ALSO,-ON the same day, and place, will be EXPOSED to SALE, variety of property confishing of fundry NEGROES, men, women and children, household furniture, stock of all kinds, &c. &c. by IOHN WATKINS, and ANNE WATKINS, his wife, Executrix of Thomas Rutland, Jun. December 30, 1791.

THE HOUSE in this city, where the subscriber now lives. J. H. STONE. Annapolis, January 3, 1792.

Sixteen Dollars Reward,

TOR apprehending four flaves, or four dollars for each, viz. BEN, a black well fet man, about years of age, and 5 feet 8 inches high; had with him when he absconded good cloaths of a variety of kinds, he has been long and well known as a waterman on this bay, and had charge of a schooner of Mr. Sprigg's.—PHIL, a young black crop negro, about feet o or 10 inches high, very forward and impertinent, about 22 years of age, and well made, had the ordinary cloathing of a crop negro. -- MAREEN, a light coloured negro woman of about 21 years of age, about 5 feet 7 inches high, flout and well made, had also a variety of good cloathing. ___ JACK, a AN away from the subscriber, two apprentice stout young man of about 28 years of age, 5 feet 8 lads, the one named CHARLES ONION, the or 9 inches high, and well made, has been some time other named NICHOLAS WATKINS, son of Elea- a coachman. It is apprehended that these slaves are lurking in the neighbourhood of West river. All perfons are forewarned against harbouring them, as they will, when discovered, be prosecuted with the utmost rigour of the law. These perions have assumed the name of Boston, and have petitioned for their freedom at the last term of the general court, and have since absconded under a pretence that they are free. The above reward will be paid to any person who will deliver the faid slaves, or either of them, to the subscriber, in Annapolis, or Richard Sprigg, Esq; of West river. The fellow lack will be hired to any strict master at a very reasonable rate, until next April

JOHN F. MERCER. Annapolis, November 16, 1791.

A LL persons having any claims against the estate of of EDMUND JENINGS, senior, late of Anne-Arundel county, deceased, are requested to render their claims legally proved, and those who are indebted to the faid estate are desired to make pay-

Annapolis, September 28, 1791. LL persons having claims against Mr. William Sanders, late of Anne-Arundel county, deceased. are requested to make them known to the subscribers as speedily as possible; and those indebted are defired

EDMUND JENINGS, Executor.

to make immediate payment, to FREDERICK GREEN, Executors. WILLIAM W. DAVIS. | Executors.

Kent Island, December 19, 1791. dark bay MARE, about thirteen hands and a half high, AKEN up admit by the subscriber, living on I Kent Island, the BETSEY and SALLY, of Rife Mitchell's Park Refurveyed. The Re-requested to come prove property pay charges, and a small quantity of staves in her; she had no make be rigging danding. The counter may have her again by proving property and paying charges.