ed Dollars Reward:

t-Tobacco, August 20, 1791. s. Saturday the 13th instant, be. ours of ten and eleven o'clock at in called BENJAMIN was going perdeventure, as foon as he reached ommonly called Theobald's Hill. e distant from this town) he was a white man who had on a dark rode a small black horse, some enfued, when this man rode un e him a violent stab in the break e such weapon, of which he died lowing-I will pay the above re. ed dollars t. any person who will stor of this inhuman act, to that

S, EASTON, and PHIL DELPHIA, l Land STAGES,

URT HOUSE & NEV. CASTLE.

bers, (Proprietors of the Philadel. imore New Line) very respectfully ts of this city and its vicinity, they a communication from this place e, for the conveyance of freight and nce running the 29th instant, by -A packet will leave Philadelphia ing for Newcastle, on its arrival y conveys the passengers to Cacil the packet waits their arrival, and Annapolis and Easton, and touches return. The peculiar advantages int of expedition, will be obvious ing to the northward, it being cerbe performed in less time than by ers solicit the patronage of the pubevery exertion shall be used to reng, agreeable and expeditious. The vinds renders the day of the packet's ather uncertain; but it is expected Lice early every Sunday morning. ers that have freight to forward, are to wait upon them and inform the HAMBERS, Cæcil Court House. DARLEY, ) Newcafile. nd LEES, neir names at the Printers, who will ourt-House, e in stage, hia in packet, per cwt. from city to city. Light, proportion to bulk. 19, 1791.

LAND, containing betwixt two undred acres, in Prince-George's side of the Eastern Branch, about federal city, and the same distance there is a good meadow on it, and lication may be made to Mr. R1in Bladensburg, or to the sub-

LEXANDER HAMILTON.

CERY, January 25, 1793. ELT, sen: an insolvent debtor, custody of the sheriff of Princeaving, on his petition to the chant before the chancellor, and having feribed by the act for the relief of ebtors, and the body of the faid having, according to the faid act, m imprisonment. It is thereupon adjudged and ordered, that the Belt appear before him in perion, r attornies, in the chancery office, h day of March next, for the purothe faid Belt any interrogatories of them may think proper, and of he chancellor some person to be erty of the faid Belt for the benefit Ordered further, that notice be Benjamin Belt, sen. to the said crethe purposes aforesaid, by having inserted in the Manyland Gazeite, in the three following weeks. AUEL HARVEY HOWARD, Reg. Cur. Can.

hers hereby forewarn all perions m hunting, with either dog or guy, th river neck belonging to the citate lately deceased. GREEN,

W. W. DAVIS.

(No. 2353.)

MARYLAND GAZETTE.

ber, 20, 1791.

On motion, ORDERED, That the several bills propoled by the committee appointed to confider what alterations of the constitution and form of government are necessary, be referred to the consideration of the next session of assembly, and that the same be published in the Maryland Gazette, Baltimore Journal, Frederick and George-town papers, and the Maryland Heald, for the consideration of the people. By order.

W. HARWOOD, Clk.

In ACT to repeal the truenty seventh section of the constitution and form of government.

ALLO E it enacted, by the General Affembly of - Maryland, That the twenty-seventh section I b I of the constitution and form of government be repealed and abolished.

A ACT to repeal the forty-fifth section of the constitution and form of government.

BE it enacted, by the General Affembly of Maryland, That the forty-fifth section of the constitution and fom of government be repealed and abolished.

MACT prescribing the oath of the judge, and the oath or affirmation of the clerk of elections. BE it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland,

That every judge of an election, before he proceeds to receive any vote, shall take the following oath, to wit: "I, A. B. do swear, that I will permit all persons to vote who shall offer to poll at the election county, the city of now to be held for Annapolis, or Baltimore town, who in my judgment and conscience shall be qualified and entitled to vote at the said election, according to the direction of the constitution and form of government, and that I will not admit any person to vote at the said election, if such is not, in my judgment and conscience, qualified and entitled as aforesaid, and will in all things execute the office of judge of the said election according to the best of my knowledge, without favour, assection, r partiality." And every candidate, or any three voters, shall have a right to object to any person offerng to vote, and to have the objection entered on the poll, if it be over-ruled. And every clerk of an election, before he enters any vote on the polls, shall take the following oath or affirmation, to wit: "I, A. B. do Iwear, or affirm, that I will well and faithfully, without favour, affection, or partiality, execute the office ofclerk of the election for county, the my of Annapolis, or Baltimore-town, according to the best of my knowledge." And if this act shall be commed by the general assembly after the next elecun of delegates in their first session after such new memment, that in such case this alteration and mendment of the constitution and form of government shall constitute and be valid as part thereof, and every thing therein contained repugnant to, and inconfisent with, this alteration and amendment, shall be repealed and abolished.

ture, or electors of the fenate:

BE it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, mat any citizen of this state, elected a member of the general allembly, or an elector of the senate, who is detentionily scrupulous of taking an oath in any and who is permitted by the constitution and government to affirm in certain cases, may, taking his feat in the legislature, or as an elector me tenate, take his solemn affirmation, or decla-Initead of the oath prescribed. And if this hall be confirmed by the general affembly after next election of delegates in the first session after new election, according to the constitution, that a case this alteration and amendment of the conand form of government shall constitute and as part thereof, and every thing therein conrepugnant to, or inconsistent with, this alteraand amendment, shall be repealed and abolished.

An ACI respecting negroes and mulattees.

" enacted, by the General Affembly of Maryland, no negro or mulatto, whether born free or maor made free under any past, present, or appointed to any office whatfoever. And if amendment, shall be repealed and abolished. thati be confirmed by the general affembly next election of delegates in the first fession in such case this alteration and amendment of the valid as part thereof, and every thing therein

HOUSE of DELEGATES, Decem- alteration and amendment, shall be repealed and profecutor of presentments and indictments in their after the next election of delegates in their first session hall be repealed and abolished. after such new election, according to the constitution An ACT to abolish informations in courts of common law. and form of government, that in such case this alterashall be repealed and abolished.

An ACI to explain the qualification of residence required in the constitution and form of government.

BE it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland,

An ACT to repeal all the eaths required by the constitution and form of government, with certain exceptions; An ACT to explain and amend the conflitution and form Stitution of this state.

bound in allegiance to the king of Great-Britain, and" tion and amendment, shall be repealed and abolished." in the said oath of fidelity in the fifty-fifth section, delion, according to the constitution and form of shall be expunged: and every senator, member of the house of delegates, and of the council, and every civil officer, executive and judicial, shall, before he acts as fuch, take an oath or affirmation, where allowed by HE white cockade and regimental uniform of abolished.

An ACT probibiting the incorporating any place, or the erecting a new county with the previlege of delegates, unless they contain a limited number of voters.

That no city, town, or place, shall hereafter be in- ties which are to be expected between them and the corporated, or any new county erected with the pri- states. vilege of electing a delegate, unless there shall be within the same at least eight hundred voters, and stitution and form of government, that in such case purpose. law of this state, and no issue of any such ne- this alteration and amendment of the constitution and mulatto, shall be entitled to the privilege of the form of government shall constitute and be valid as any election, or of being elected to the legif- part thereof, and any thing therein contained repugthe council, or as an elector of the senate, or annual to, or inconsistent with, this alteration and

An ACT respecting the appointment of the register in chancery, and the other officers therein named.

court, and they may re! pectively remove them for misbe and county courts may remove their respective clerks BE it enacted, by the General Affembly of Maryland, for misbehaviour, and fill up the vacancy. And if That no foreigner naturalized or made by law a this act shall be confirmed by the general assembly citizen of this state, shall be eligible as governor, or laster the next election of delegates in the first session. as a member of the general affembly, or of the coun- after such new election, according to the constitution cil, or as an elector of the senate, or capable of hold and form of government, that in such case this alteraing any civil office in this state, until he shall have tion and amendment of the constitution and form of actually and bona fide resided seven years within this government shall constitute and be valid as part therestate next before his election or appointment. And if of, and every thing therein contained repugnant to, this act shall be confirmed by the general assembly or inconsistent with, this alteration and amendment, tion and amendment of the constitution and form of BE it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, government shall constitute and be valid as part there- That no person shall be obliged to answer in any court and every thing therein contained repugnant to, of law for any crime, offence, or misdemeanor, exor inconsistent with, this alteration and amendment, cept only on indictment; and no information shall hereafter be allowed within any court of law within this Itate.

An ACT respecting the bolding of offices by members of the

That in all cases in which the constitution and form BE it enacted, by the General affembly of Maryland, of government requires " residence," the words " ac. That any member of the senate, or of the house of tually and bona fide," with an exception as to such delegates, may, during the time for which he shall persons as shall be absent on the public business of the have been elected, be appointed to any civil office United States, or this state, shall be inserted. And under this state, which shall not be created, or the if this act shall be confirmed by the general assembly emoluments whereof shall not be increased during after the next election of delegates in the first session . Juch time. And if this act shall be confirmed by the after such new election, according to the constitution, general assembly after the next election of delegates in that in such case this alteration and amendment of the the first session after such new election, according constitution and form of government shall constitute to the constitution and form of government, that in and be valid as part thereof, and every thing therein fluch case this alteration and amendment of the concontained repugnant to, or inconsistent with, this stitution and form of government shall constitute and alteration and amendment, shall be repealed and be valid as part thereof, and every thing therein contained repugnant to, or inconsistent with, this alteration and amendment, shall be repealed and abolished.

and to require an oath to preserve and support the con- of government, as to the election of electors of the se.

BE it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, BE it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That all oaths required to be taken by the constitu. That elections for electors of the senate may be adtion and form of government, except the oath in the journed and continued for four days, and no longer. fifty-second section by the chancellor, and the other And if this act shall be confirmed by the general assemofficers therein mentioned, and the oath of fidelity to bly after the next election of delegates in the first session the state by the electors of the senate in the eighteenth after such new election, according to the constitution, section, and the same oath of sidelity in the fifty-fifth that in such case this alteration and amendment of the fection, and the oath of secrecy by the clerk of the constitution and form of government shall constitute and council in the twenty-fixth section, shall be repealed be valid as part thereof, and every thing therein conand abolished, and the words " I do not hold myself tained repugnant to, or inconsistent with, this altera-

[The remainder will be in our next.]

BRUSSELS, Ollober 21.

the constitution or laws of the state, " to preserve and the French emigrants is rather in disgrace a. support the constitution and form of government of mong us of late. They are forbidden by government this state, and the perform the duties of their respective deither to assemble or perform their exercises, even offices with fidelity." And if this act shall be con- without arms; and have been notified that they are to In ACT allowing citizens conscientiously scrupulous of in firmed by the general assembly after the next election consider themselves upon the footing of strangers, who taking an oath in any case to be members of the legisla- of delegates in their sirst session after such new elec- are admitted to reside amongst us upon the terms of tion, according to the constitution and form of go- general hospitality, and not as refugees to meditate vernment, that in such case this alteration and amend- hostile designs against a neighbouring power, our good ment of the constitution and form of government shall ally the French nation. This very day, orders have constitute and be valid as part thereof, and every been issued to station three grenadiers upon the stage thing contained repugnant to, or inconsistent with, of the play-house for comedy, to preserve order amidst this alteration and amendment, shall be repealed and a host of French emigrants, and to prevent the audience from the infults of those blustering bravoes.

The supreme council of Brabant have pronounced a sentence, replete with firmness, and even rigour, against the refractory states. It is supposed a private answer has been received from the emperor, autho-BE it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, rising the council to begin, with this act, the hostili-

STOCKHOLM, October 4.

there shall not be allowed to such incorported city, It is now confirmed, that his majesty, having undertown, or place, or to fuch newly erected county, stood that the king of France has, of his own choice, more than one delegate for every eight hundred voters. accepted the new French constitutional code, renoun-And if this act shall be confirmed by the general as- ces all hostile attempts to effect a counter-revolution in sembly after the next election of delegates in their first that country, and has caused all preparations to be difsession after such new election, according to the con- continued that had been begun or planned for that

FRANKRORT, October 11.

When the king of Prussia heard that the king of France had secepted the constitution, he expressed himself aloud in the following terms: " I now see the peace of Europe placed upon a folid foundation." It is certain, that most of the German petentates are of BE it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, not hefitate to acknowledge their friendly intentions towards the French nation, fince Louis the XVIth, repugnant to, or inconfiftent with, this their clerk, and the county courts shall appoint the French people choic to offer him.