LEXINGTON, (Kentucky) February 18. We have heard this morning that the Indians killed a man and woman on North Elk-Horn on Thursday evening last, near Grant's mill.

We are informed that about 50 Indians fired on a boat last week, on the Ohio, below the mouth of Kentucky, without doing any damage.

March 10. On Monday evening last the Indians stole 10 or 12 horses from near Grant's mill on North houses, together with all the household furniture belonging to the proprietors. They having left their houses late in the evening.
