n of GEORGE-TOWN, a

84 acres, and bounds with 35 acres thereof are in wood. meadow-ground. This lot is the meandering waters of the tream is a fall of 21 feet, and of excellent building stone. tiful fituations for houses. s 39 acres, and bounds with ontains 20 acres of wood, and nence for a house as a country entiguous to the city of Wash. antageous and beautiful situa-

George-Town are at that end

h, dollars at 7s. 6d. is f. 7000 7 acres of land at f. 20 per 2140 0'0

do. do. 1680 o o 780 0 0 ge-town, 910 0 0

. cach,

50 0 0 46 0 0 1294 0 0

100 0 0

eorge, John Threlkeld, and Sa-George-Town. George Walker, ton. Wallace and Muir, and Annapolis. s several very valuable lots of illiam Deakins, Benjamin Stod-

city of Washington, whose inep pace with the growth of the ted States of America—Hence, further definition, it will be l sum of one Guinea a valuable cat may be obtained in the vi-America; or a lot in a town ive commerce.

ofes drawing this Lottery in first Monday in May next, or re all fold, which he flatters e from his present prospects. warranty, will immediately be d, and the money for the cash emand. Notice will be given public papers, and a list of the l be immediately published. its is reserved to the subscriber. pe seen at Mr. George Mann's. be had of Messrs. Wallace and Esquires, and Mr. George

N THOMAS BOUCHER. Severity of the winter the draw. is postponed to the first of August

BLIC SALE, for CASH, on h day of June, if fair, if not the dwelling of the subscriber, al property of VACHEL JOHNne-Arundel county, deceased,

BEDS, and a few other articles. ven o'clock. JAMES, Administrator non, with the will annexed.

ed to the estate of GEORGE of St. Mary's county, deceased, nmediate payment to THOMAS own, or the subscribers, and aims are defired to bring them

ATER. Executors. BY PLATER, S

ry kind of FREEK BOOKS,

AMS's Office, Baltimore. POLIS:

DERICK and SAMUEL FREEN.

(XLVIIth YEAR.)

PARIS. April 15. AXXXXX Y letters from Hamburg and Stock-holm, we learn, that the king of Swe- e. den died of his wound on the 29th of March. The prince-royal has been proclaimed king-During the minority, the kingdom will be governed by me duke of Sudermania in the capacity of regent. Letter of M. Gouvion, * to the president of the national affembly. Dril, 1792. Paris, 14th

Mr. President, HAYE the honour to enclose my resignation of he dice of deputy to the national assembly. Were called apon to explain my motives, I should say, that is would be too painful to me to live any longer in a city where some magistrates of the people, rejoicing in the triumph of the murderers of my brother and of his fellow-soldiers, have humbled the national guards, who were stepping forward to support the execution of the law. Let me be placed with true friends to the constitution, and then it will be seen who defend it bell, we, of the factions.

GOUVION. * This gentleman was colonel in the army of the Dated States during the late war. The following letter is said to have been written by

C lam, &c.

By Bretons, on their arrival at Coblentz, to M.

THE Bretons have the honour to pay their refels to you; they alk for bread, arms, and the road which M. d'Artois answered, "I 3HALL'have, Gentlemen, the happiness of dividing my own bread with you, of offering you my m sword (if I have no other weapons) and of march-ence has influenced public credit; for no sooner did treach Hamburg, but it produced a rise of the exthange with France. It is to be presumed that Sweden, in the embarrassments of a minority, will not atempt to join the league of princes to which Gustavus we so much attached, and that this event will slacken the ardour of the Cruzaders against the liberties of LONDON, March 14. Extract of a letter from Plymouth, March 11. "Orders are received at this port to equip, with all polible dispatch, the Druid frigate and Perseus sloop of war, to fail immediately to the West-Indies.

"Such is the decrease in the consumption of the article of fugar, in this town and neighbourhood, that the whole quantity brought by the last four coasters from London amounts to no more than 86 cwt. and two quarters; when in the year 1791 each veffel has brought from 30 to 40 tuns."

Extract of a letter from York, March 10. " A few days since, as some men were digging near Belvoir castle, they discovered two stone cossins, in our of which the following words were visible, " Rohad Todence, on the other the word " Hall."-Inspot is supposed to have been used as a burialmany hundred years ago; teveral other stones Ave been dug out, which attract the attention of the comous. ---- A Robert de Todence was the original founder of this castle early in the reign of William me conquerer."

Extract of a letter from Frankfort, February 26. "Independent of 6000 Croats, 18 battalions of paring a train of artillery. The regiments of Klebec 30 to 40,000 men is affembling.

Prince de Waldeck is to command the Imperial volution and overthrow of the nobles.

them towards the Rhine.

m, baled up like merchandite. On the 21st, M. de Conde, with a numerous e, passed by Mayence in his way to Coblentz."

and, in spite of the utinost efforts the groom, ran
The letter adds, that the conspiracy was discovered leg of the bear, and with the other, a club, she made
The letter adds, that the conspiracy was discovered leg of the bear, and with the other, a club, she made
The letter adds, that the conspiracy was discovered leg of the bear, and with the other, a club, she made
The letter adds, that the conspiracy was discovered leg of the bear, and with the other, a club, she made
The letter adds, that the conspiracy was discovered leg of the bear, and with the other, a club, she made
The letter adds, that the conspiracy was discovered leg of the bear, and with the other, a club, she made
The letter adds, that the conspiracy was discovered leg of the bear, and with the other, a club, she made
The letter adds, that the conspiracy was discovered leg of the bear, and with the other, a club, she made
The letter adds, that the conspiracy was discovered leg of the bear, and with the other, a club, she made
The letter adds, that the conspiracy was discovered leg of the bear, and with the other, a club, she made
The letter adds, that the conspiracy was discovered leg of the bear, and with the other, a club, she made
The letter adds, that the conspiracy was discovered leg of the bear, and with the other, a club, she made
The letter adds, that the conspiracy was discovered leg of the bear, and with the other, a club, she made
The letter adds, that the conspiracy was discovered leg of the bear, and with the conspiracy was discovered leg of the bear, and with the conspiracy was discovered leg of the bear, and with the conspiracy was discovered leg of the bear, and with the conspiracy was discovered leg of the bear, and with the conspiracy was discovered leg of the bear, and with the conspiracy was discovered leg of the bear, and with the conspiracy was discovered leg of the bear w When Fitzwilliam, own brother to Rockingham, feet with great violence; the near foot actually touch- having been upon the lift of proferibed nobility. if not fatal. The duke, with a smile, observed, that the kingdom. " it was a narrow escape."

it may be worked by boys, and its use requires little and several other distinguished personages. practice.

his majesty gave a grand masquerade, to which all per- French emigrants build their hopes. fons of distinction were invited—and that, during the time of festivity, a gentleman of considerable rank groin and the bottom part of his belly.

any reason for what he had done, nounced impossible for him to recover.

contents of the diet, at the late proceedings and at the fultan feems to wifh, that there should be no people. The news of the death of the king of Sweden is general conduct and defigns of the king; but from The police have orders, which they execute with conceived his merits deserved. Gustavus III. king of Sweden, was born in 1746, each night that they may be permitted to remain with and succeeded his father in 1780. He possessed abili- their families till the morning. ties greatly superior to those of his predecessors, and Many persons of considerable property have been ful and commanding elocution. He was at Paris when the Mahometans being treated with no less severity his father died, and soon after his arrival at Stockholm than Christians and Jews. the whole senate prisoners, totally overturned the mode Curwen, compared with a Big Ben, a Johnson, or of government, rendering himself in sact, though not Mendoza? in appearance, one of the most absolute monarchs in A Shrewsbury print has made a severe attack on the ment-insomuch, that he was designed as the com- sleep."-So let it be! and it will never be forgot, mander of the national assembly.

of cavalry, are ready for marching; they are also pre- dalena, princess royal of Denmark, by whom he had issue Gustavus Adolphus, born November 1, 1778.

The affassin of the king of Sweden had been doom-cavalry on the Rhine; and the Russian troops, which April 10. A letter dated the 23d of March, from are to march towards that place, are, we are affured, one of the members of the Swedish ministry, to a to be commanded by prince de Hohenloe, governor of Danish gentleman now in London, was received yes-ture having been uninterrupted. then no circumitance in his majesty's illness which lent plunge, and immediately kicked with both hind king, but mentions only the duke of Sudermania, as ed the duke of York's coat, which, if it had been two This intelligence, as it is later than that received by inches nearer, must have proved extremely dangerous, ministers, is probably the last upon the subject now in

When the packet, that carried Dr. Willis to Portu-April 3. An artist of this country has succeeded in gal, entered the Tagus, they were met by the royal applying the steam engine to the business of coining, barge with 120 oars, attended by two cutters, one of The difficulty of its construction, and its expensive- which inquired " if the great physician was on board, nels, render it impossible that it should ever be em- which being answered in the assirmative, the other ployed by those who counterseit coin. Its advantages cutter drew near the packet; and the prince and prinover the common machines are various. It works cess of Brazil appearing on the quarter-deck, the docmuch more quickly; it cuts out the blanks; it stamps tor was formerly announced by the captain; but dethe milling, the face, and the reverse of the piece, at clining to go on shore in state, was conducted to the once: the ground receives a fine polish from its pressure duke of Northumberland's hotel, where he was met alone; all the pieces are exactly of the same diameter: by Monsieur Pinto, the late ambassador to our court,

A congress is now spoken of to be held in the mid-April 9. Tuesday evening an express arrived at the dle of July at one of the castles belonging to the elecsecretary of state's office, from Robert Liston, Esq; tor of Mayence. How feeble and precarious a reour envoy at the Swedish court, which brought the source of this nature may be, must be teen at a glance. extraordinary intelligence, that on the 16th of March It is nevertheless a future contingency on which the fired a pistol at the king, and lodged five slugs in his On the sixth of January, as the Turkish grand sultan was at prayers in the mosque of Santa Sophia, & The perpetrator of this horrid act was instantly leaden ball of one pound and an half was thrown at feized; the account does not say whether or not he at- him by an Arab, which narrowly missed him, but tempted to escape, but adds that he refused to assign was aimed with so much violence as to break one of the balustrades upon which he was leaning. The The express was sent off a few hours after the event, man, as has uniformly been the case through Europe, at which time the king was alive, but it had been pro- for some time past, in respect to attacks upon sovereignty, was found to be an outrageous lunatic; but Information of so wonderful a circumstance instant- the habits of suspicion which distinguish the dark polily spread over Stockholm, for there were many hun- cy of the Turkish government, forbid every idea of dred present when the fact was committed. All ranks mercy on this occasion. He is considered as a memwere in the greatest consternation; some ascribing the ber of a conspiracy formed to produce a revolt, in the affassination to French politics, and others to the mal- capital; and, that there may be no revolt, the grand enfirmed in the most positive manner. This intelli- good authority we can declare, that neither of these very willing rigour, to seize and force from the mewas the cause. The author of this remarkable event tropolis all persons, whom they do not know and apis a native of Sweden, and it is supposed he was stimu- prove. Every day since that of the assault, hundreds lated to it by disappointment, having served long in of persons have been accordingly transported into Asia, the army without being rewarded to liberally as he at the will of the police officers; and the inhabitants live in a state of the utmost terror, being uncertain > had much more ambition; his understanding had been thus removed, and upon this occasion, the ordinary cultivated, he had an infinuating address, and a grace- favour arising from religious distinctions has ceased, > swore to preserve the constitution as established in April 7. A Hampshire curate has offered to fight 1772, and not to introduce absolute sovereignty. He any man in England for fifty guineas. What occasion did every thing to gain the affections of the nobles and have we to fear the downfall of the church, when it the people: He gave public audiences three times a can beast such formidable supporters? But we appreweek; and to have received an injury, was certain of hend the gallant divine has more interest in view by procuring an introduction; he littened to the meanest his conduct; he knows a curate cannot thrive without of his subjects with affability, and entered into the the assistance of the rich and great, and the most efminutest details that concerned them, by which means fectual method of ingratiating himself into their favour, he made himself adored. But at the same time he is by shewing himself a man of science, that is a was fomenting the differences between the states, and, pugilist. For agreeable to the polite taste of the times, by his emissaries, sowing discontent among the people, a man may sooner box himself into savour, than preach until, finding the business ripe, he in one hour made himself in. What is a Watton, a Blair, or even a

LIVERPOOL, April 5.

> His death must give great joy to the friends of ward the champion of his constituents, and a friend French liberty. The Swedish monarchs had long re- to the commercial interests of his country. Nay, in ceived pensions from France, and Gustavus of Hol. has even gone far enough to consign the African trade stein-Gottorp, was an enthusiast for the old govern- to the same oblivion in which his military honours

The king of Sweden married in 1776, Sophia Mag. What a ludicrous appearance the French Jacobins liberty. Instead of appearing like men restored from flavery to freedom; they muit appear like malefactors to repair to Upper Austria, where an army of from ed by his majesty to a long and tyrannical imprison prepared for the last ceremony preceding their execument for having thwarted his ambition in the late re- tion.—We do not pretend to any skill in prophecy it

WINDSOR, (Vermont) May 15. The wife of Mr. Nathan West, of Vershire, in terday, and flates, that the king was then thought to this state, having occasion to go into a pasture near her terday, and flates, that the king was the had more house, in order to bring home her sheep, to fecure the we know not a flates, where he be much advanced in his recovery; that he had more house, in order to bring home her sheep, to fecure the we know not a flates. The flow had bealts, spied a large on we know not; Monsieur will go to the castle of appetite than the physician thought proper to gratify; them from the ravages of wild beasts, spied a large finish. suppetite than the physics of the parties or four hours bear in full purious after one of the lambs of her flocks M. de Polignac has, it is faid, obtained leave of at a time, converting with his immediate friends.— Upon which the immediately called to her favourite de empress of Russia to raise a corps of Russians, and The surgeons were also confirmed in their first opinion, dog for assistance. The faithful animal, ever elert at them towards the Days of Russians, and The surgeons were also confirmed none of the nobler the calls of his missing obeyed the command, and that the wound had touched none of the nobler the calls of his millress, obeyed the command, and A number of cannons are arrived at Ehrenbren- parts, from the circumstances of the functions of na- eagerly leaped off to lecture from destruction the in-The disposition of the wound to suppurate was more with the bear, and threw him upon the ground—in certainly apparent; and, upon the whole, there was which flustion he heid him, until his militrels, with her fex, came up-when, graiping with one hand a