GEORGE CARPENTER. St. Mary's county, May 13th, 1792.

Inspection House tor Tobacco. HIS is to give public notice, that the inspection house for tobacco, at Beard's Point, on South river, in Anne-Arundel county, is now in readiness to receive tobacco for inspection; and, from the large quantity of that article made in the neighbourhood of South river asoresaid, it is expected that a considerable number of hogsheads will be brought to this house during the present summer for inspection, and, from its superior quality, it is presumed all persons wishing to become purchasers of tobacco may be well accommodated, and that upon good terms.

It is thought unnecessary to expatiate on the many advantages of this warehouse, as it is so well known to be situated on a beautiful and navigable river, and not more than ten miles distant from the bay; it is also a well known fact, that the tobacco raised in that part of Anne-Arundel county is precisely the same in quality as the tobacco heretofore inspected at Taylor's Landing on Patuzent, which has always been found to
