We are convinced it will be absolutely necessary Notwithstanding the depressed fituation of Tippoo The old French failor and the cook, refused to fa by reducing the duty-and our Mr. Stabye being affert that he has found means to fend a body of his ir- against them. They were pursued and brought favoured with the confulfhip for your flates, we make regular cavalry into the Carnatic, who have carried Washington, where they were examined by John no doubt may influence it very much."

ALBANY, July 9. Priday latt from his vifit to his excellency the presi- capitulation of Seringapatam We are informed, that his best endeavours will be used struck." will immediately set off for the Mlami village.

PHILADELPHIA, July 16. Extract of a letter from Luxerne county.

near the middle of the day; about half after one o'clock P. M. a shower appeared to be rising from the northwest, and I had scarcely time to take shelter in progress and improvement of the manufactory of Judith Caron. The other two were for assaults were the house of Obadiah Gore, Esquire, at Sheshequen, maple-sugar, the committee appointed for this purpose an intent to commit rapes on his daughters. Josetta from a violent gale of wind with rain. The storm having exhibited samples from various applicants for Genevieve Caron. continued near half an hour, during which time to premiums, with their respective weights of the sugar fee the tumbling of timber during the storm, was annexed. furprising. After it abated I continued on my journey, Resolved, That the first premium of seventy-five " Nothing could exceed the horror excited in but found it very difficult travelling in many places, dollars be paid by the fecretary to Thadeus Scribner, breafts of a large audience, during the trial. T the road being blocked up by the falling of timber, I of Herkemer Town, in Herkemer county—he having daughters brought forward to convict a father of reached Wilksbarre on Wednesday. It appears that a produced upwards of 600lb. of grained maple sugar, crime at which human nature revolts.—He is the ftorm extended through the country, and at the same of a superior quality. barre, a level plain loaded with pitch pine timber, county-(Note-This parcel would have claimed the The following strange advertisement appears in than a mile in length, and three fourths of a mile less than 600lb.) wide, being either torn up by the roots, or twifted off, leaving their stumps from five to thirty feet high.

"A number of buildings in different parts of the in Saratoga county. country Aript of their roofs, and otherways damaged fences in many places removed, and many fields of samples out of the respective parcels on which pre- Brandy." corn, other grain and flax, laid level with the earth- miums have been adjudged and paid, to be exhibited cattle killed by the falling of timber in every part of to the legislature early in their next session, and to en-the county. about 35 miles from Wilksbarre, whose family con- from the patriotic liberality of private individuals, in fifted of his wife and a number of children—he with promoting a staple of commerce which is interesting his wife being absent, the children fearing themselves to the whole community. in danger in the house, left it at the instant a large Resolved, That the remaining sums subscribed and tree was falling; the tree reached them at a small not yet paid, be collected by the secretary to defray president's house was adjudged to James Hoben, s distance from the door, and a girl of about eleven the expences of hand-bills, &c. &c. as well as in pro- Charleston, South-Carolina, but no decision years of age was crushed to pieces, and expired in- secuting suture efforts in advancing the prosperity of given in favour of any plan for a capitol, three or stantly. One of the children had a thigh and both that valuable source of wealth, the manufacturing of of superior merit are under consideration, and it is arms broke, another badly wounded in the head- maple-sugar. these two it was feared had received the fatal blow, two others flightly wounded."

The violent gust that took place on Sunday the 1st instant, we are informed, extended as far southward as Hatteras, lat. 35.6. A vessel in that latitude lost her mainsail by this momentary tornado, and was in imminent danger of foundering, from several water spouts which arose by the fury of the wind. Letter from M. la Fayette to the war minister, dated Givet, May 6. you of the steps which the army have taken near Givet .- Since that time, every degree of intelligence guards. that I have received, as well from yourself as from other places, confirmed my determination as judicious, in taking post at Ronciennes, and of having nothing but my advance guards upon the Austrian territory; one of these is extended upon the river Alias towards Luxembourg; but the other more numerous is still at Bouvines.

in person reconnoitered this part of the country, and, they were examined before the honourable judge Sit- quantities at any good landing on the waters of I beyond every thing, find the country people well fatis- greaves, at the court-house in this town. It appears gothy, Severn, or South-River. fied with the conduct of my troops.—But the news that the brig sailed from Savanna on the 10th instant, that you have heard of the plenitude of our resources, bound to Bourdeaux, with three hundred hogsheads of Indian-Landing, 20th July, 1792. you may depend upon it has been much exaggerated- tobacco and some rice. Nothing extraordinary hap-You know, Sir, that we have and still continue to pened until Sunday evening the 18th, except that the want many necessaries, of which I have given you crew once or twice complained of want of provisions. the detail; yet my confession of the zeal with which About ten o'clock at night, the mate's watch being on The 24th day of August, will be SOLD, at Pl my troops support these unremedied inconventences is deck-one of the crew called him, telling him that nothing more than a debt to public justice.

about Dun, and there wait the means of encamping, with an axe, and knocked him down, another gave credit. This house is situated on South river, in I or making further movements. The corps under M. him two or three strokes with a knife, and threw him don-town, where the ferry has been kept for upon Riffe, near Longevi, have not suffered less than the into the sea. They then called the captain and told of fixty years, and its situation for a house of en others-In fine, this post was of so much importance, him that the mate had fallen overboard: He came up, that its occupation was certainly worth risking any and as he sat his soot on deck, was knocked down and proved security, must be given. The sale will be kind of difficulty that might attend it.

Le General (Signed)

in England and in H Hand, will enable them to carry them, if they would not promise secrecy-on the ason this year's campaign with vigour. It is worth ob. furance they gave for not revealing the horrid deed, have not ceased one day to lay up for the storm. In and set down the rest of the night eating and drinking. all their dock-yards, building, repairing and equipping. The next day they divided the captain's and mate's have gone on without a moments intermission; and closeles and money, and brought upon deck a watch, they have at this time an unexpected number of frigates and filver buckles which were fold at vendue.

er from a very respectable mercantile force against philosophy. We shall see, by the result, Portsmouth—On the next day they left the boat, a that our government encourages the American trade, Saib, according to English ministerial papers, others low them, and after they were gone, gave informati havoc and destruction to within a few miles of the Blount and William Parris, Esquires, who commit gates of Wadrais -- From the tenor of India news, it them, and on the next day lent them to this to is more than probable lord Cornwallis's next dispatches under a firong guard. Captain Joseph Brands returned through this city on will contain the terms of a treaty rather, than the dent of the United States, at Philadelphia. Captain " Mr. Bolton of Birmingham, has applied the steam On Sunday last the president of the United States Brandt has expressed himself much pleased with the engine to coining. By his machinery four boys of ten arrived in this city from Philadelphia, and on Tuest reception he met with from the president, and the years old can strike off 30,000 guineas in an hour. set out for his seat at Mount Vernon. polite treatment he has received during his whole tour. The machine keeps an unerring account of the pieces to establish a treaty of friendship between the United "The queen of Portugal is better (May 21,) count of the death of the EMPRESS. The time States, and the present hostile tribes of Indians: and though mending very flowly. Her age, which is near other particulars are not mentioned by our correspondent that it is more than probable, on his return home, he three score; her habits, sedentary and dull; her temper, sadly superstitious; all are against her."

" A letter from Coblentz, dated May 5, says, the that the intelligence is true. two brothers of the king of France are more active A Quebec paper of May 14, fays-4 On Tuel than ever. The prince of Conde is now at the head the first instant, the court of king's bench was held "On Tuesday the 1st of Jely, I lest Tioga point of 20,000 of his countrymen." [Lond. Pap.] this city.—During the term three bills of indicam MAPLE SUGAR PREMIUMS.

AT a meeting of the subscribers for promoting the de la Bauce. The one for a rape on his daug hour of the day, though more violent in some places Resolved, That the second premium of fifty dollars manity, we hope it will be the last that will stain than others. At Exeter, about nine miles from Wilks- be paid by the secretary to Comfort Cooke, of Otsego records of the court." was swept of its timber, scarce a tree lest for more first premium, being equal to the best Mulcovada, but Middlesex Gazette, printed at Middle town, O

> Resolved, That the third premium of 25 dollars be Middle-town, a red, short-tailed dog-he underst given to John Harris and Raner Huntly, of Milton, the French language. Whoever will bring the deavour to obtain legislative bounties to be distributed "A Mr. ____ Lot, who lived at Mahooper in premiums on a larger scale than can be expected

Published by order, J. VAN RENSSELAER, Chairman. A true copy from the minutes, E. WATSON, Secretary.

Albany, July 3, 1792. July 20. An alarming dispute has arisen in Guadaloupe between the national troops and the white inhabitants. The cause was, the execution of the orders of the former to carry into effect the decree of the word, and they shall be regularly forwarded. The pol national affembly, for restoring the free people of required on a news-paper being but one cent, the suboli "My dispatches of the 4th of May have informed colour to their political rights as active citizens. The pence of one year's Gazette will be only sixteen shilling. tumult was quelled by a reinforcement of the national three pence.

A similar tumult has agitated the seat of government pay the postage, or they will not be taken up. [Boft. Pap.] in Martinico.

NEWBERN, June 30. Saturday last was brought to town, from Washington, part of the crew (feven failors) of the French brig Le Bailli de Suffren, captain Clairet.

there was a Dolphin a-head; the mate went forward, HAT elegant two flory BRICK HOUS "The Tecond division of my troops are cantoned and as he stooped to look, one of the crew struck him . where the subscriber now lives, on two y thrown over as the mate.

The crew went down and awoke an old French failor, the cook, and a young woman whom the cap-July 18. The sum of ready money (says a London tain had brought with him from Savanna; informed will be offered at public sale, on a long credit servation, that with all their supposed confusion, they they were sworn, and the murderers went in the cabin

GEORGE TOWN, 7dg 21.

A vessel arrived at Leith, in Scotland, on the 1 of May, in a thort passage from Russa, brings an dent; but comparing this information with the Vi na paragraph, inferted above, there is a probabil were found against Jean Baptiste Caron, of St. Jos

" He took his trial on the bill for the rape on Jud and was convicted.

instance in the province, and for the honour of necticut. " Strayed from a French gentleman shall receive one dollar for their trouble, by for Resolved, That the chairman be requested to receive Smith, of said Nordele town, who has for sale Fr

> ANNAPOLIS, July 26. On the 16th and 17th instant, the president of United States, and the commissioners of the fe buildings, examined the plans for a capitol, and fident's house, to be erected in the city of Wash ton; several of confiderable merit for each build were presented. The premium for the best plant pected that the commissioners at their next meet (the 1st of August) will then make their election.

> * " THE new arrangement of the Post-Office sub ing news-papers to the payment of postage, has comp the Printers to decline sending the MARYLAND ZETTE to their customers in Prince-George's, Cha and St. Mary's counties. Those therefore, who will have their papers continued, will be pleased to said

All persons sending letters to our address, are requests

HE subscriber wants to purchase a consider quantity of merchantable RYE, for which "I have also an advancing party endeavouring to These men are charged with the murder of the will give a generous price when delivered at the procure forage, which is here extremely rare. I have captain and mate of that vessel. On Thursday last dian Landing; or he will receive it in consider

On Friday,

LIC VENDUE, on the premifes, tainment is equal to any in the state. Bond, with at II o'clock. WILLIAM BROWN

Port-Tobacco, in Charles county, on the first day of the next court, it being the twenty-first coach, new, with harners and wheat, and plantation with feveral other arti to be for ready money, an uld prove bad, will be post s fucceeding.

WILLIAM CR

PAISCELLA HEBBE Wante

HEALTHY active NE has been accustomed to and can be well recom price may be had on appli

Annapolis, July 25, 1792. Notice

HAT on Wenesday the i an election will be held limith, Efquire, in this cit non council man, in the r who has removed from tow By order,

Twelve Pound AN away last night, from four miles from the Low the four following Irish i IAMES DAVIS, aged abou t one inch high, he is a bo complexion, has black h wn of his head, and tied be ard, awkward in his address a small scar on the outside o THOMAS FITZGERAL rs, about five feet eight inch lk, and moves as if he had l complexion, much freckled the crown of his head. KILEY, aged twee eight inches high, a well n complexion, has black t r his right eye, speaks bold AMES PLATT, aged for well grown boy, of a fai red thin hair, cut thort on t Their apparels are all alik tloth jackets, short an il receive twelve pounds r each, and if brought home Anne-Arundel county, July rts, crocus troulers, new i vants and fecures them, fo

gs, and new felt hats. W

ANNAPOL HE officers and foldiers line of the continental med, that the subscriber is a balance of pay due in the n application by fuch cla l be necessary to produce a uncate from fome reputable Maryland line, or from a r which the claimant refides. the identity of the claimant THO. I Lorethe late Maryland line o