plan is purely defensive.

ence and weight, the baselt of mankind are sup- the French retired. rench nation were taken up, and leveral others, ed inimical, would have shared the same fate, the annals of mankind, if overturned.

GENEVA, May 1.

ying the posts on the Meuse, 2000 of whom piece against each debtor. cives friendly to France and liberty.

nation have not yet been iffeed by the council of position to at of marched and the other about to move on secual fights de le la mante de circlere le maite montre le celumes de la fille de la fille army of 15 or 6th inftant by Prague. The country people have been hold the confliction. All the French to organized that the whole of ordered by the government of the circle to formill the chis or whatever decomination, are performanced that the chis or whatever decomination are performanced to the circle to form the chis or whatever decomination are performanced to the circle to the circle to the chis or whatever decomination are performanced to the circle to the circle to the circle to the chis or whatever decomination are performanced to the circle to th The garrifon Profians with providious and forage, who will pay work confequences are to be feared from Confidering the them the current prices. our treatury, however, there is rea- The necessary of giving a chief to the empire, in the pold, in direct opposition to treaties with Prance. at all these preparations may be folely present circumstances, had caused a resolution to be not encouraged and protected them, and inserted then adopted of holding the diet a month fooner than com- to be formed into armed bodies throughout the that of Royal Allemand has gone to Savoy: the French, and will take with him two of his fons of that once diffrested country. r battalions of the encamping legion form the and his nephew. It is possible that his coming incog. May 15. A few days ago a man presented himself at Jy prevent him.

CIVITTA-VECCHIA, April 27.

BRUSSELS, May 25.

ligion at Rome seems to have but a small effect ... Extract of a letter from Tournay, dated May 23. forming the hearts and morals of manking. The . . On the 18th of this month, 200 French dragoons murders are almost every day committed in that appeared at the entrance of Reume, (the first Austrian polis, and yet capital punishments are the farest village on the fide of Orchies) 50 of our Tyrolians in the world: that the priesthood may retain an fired on and killed five of them and one horse, when ded a church can be found to receive them before appeared, in great numbers. Gen. Latour, informed at least eighty millions of livres—the back-woods man are arrested by the officer of justice. For some of their approach, marched out 2500 men, before was desired to accept the honours of the session.

!-These movements (similar to which have penetrated as far as the French village of Rumigies .- my's being pre-informed of our operations. taken place in other towns of the papal territory. The clerk of this village having attempted to ring an Extrast of a letter from Philipville, dated May 23. the present (wing) have forced the government alarm, a cannon was fired against the steeple, and the on the 19th instant, M. Gouvion, who comwho relide at Rome.—Yesterday two men of brought with him three horses, which he had taken."

PARIS, April 25.

th instant, so that there will be, in that duchy, month through, while in child-bed, has given in his neral Fayette is at hand with a considerable corps bundred and twenty-fix heads of families. The amount ng here wears a hostile appearance. We of the debts of these unfortunate men for nurse-services ly see troops and artillery marching towards to their wives was, 8317 livres, 4 sous, 9 deniers-

Upper-Austria, to hasten the march of the concert of powers. To steer clear of opposition, he the frigate sailed. Tippoo, under this apprehension In the mean time an immense transport of had persuaded himself that only a faction existed in had withdrawn himself. igaw, and ammunition of every kind and whose machinations prevented the return of the his bill forts. warded with the greatest diligence. As yet but emigrants—The king of Hungary seems infatuated of Croats have received orders to hold with the fame delutive fystem, and is bent upon to-line, ... According to letters received from Bohemia, the measures of the high sying Jacobins, and yet con-Lalande, not having obtained the latis- mong but, we are affored, that the elector of Hanover pice. In thort, the plan of Leopold was, and that of temanded for the infult offered to the is opposed to this innovation, and has demanded the his successor is, no other than to perpetuate the troubles nation in the person of M. Semonville, has literal observation of the Golden Bull, which prescribes in France, to creck the nation into two parties, to an departed for Genoa. The disposition of the the elapse of four months after the death of the emper nihilate one by means of the other, and thus at length furn appears hostile towards France. Count for, before the convocation of the diet; therefore, it destroy both and re-establish despotism. It is even not at oil, on Sunday last, to take the command will not be held before the month of July.

Improbable that the views of certain powers extend to army of Savoy. The regiment of Saluces, Letters from Berlin confirm the report that his far (as formerly in Poland) to make a parcition of our was in garrison here, marched the same day for Prustian majesty has resolved to march in person against kingdom, and subject it to all the horrid circumstances

There will be three lines—the first will be to Franckfort, at the time of the coronation, and hav. the bar of the national assembly, who announced hima by posts of 100 men, advanced to the Passes; ing had an interview with the new emperor, has deter- felf to be from the back woods of North-America. of companies of grenadiers; and the third mined him to make the campaign. He is led to it by He faid he had heard of the French revolution, had remainder of the battalions. We are assured, his natural taste, and the ill state of his health can on- taken a decided part therein, and had been at the pairs and expence of a voyage to Europe, with a view, first, to enrich France, and finally, the whole world, by communicating a discovery of which he himself was the author. The good man next informed the allembly, that his composition was such as would at once bleach and walk cloaths, take out any kind of Ipote, and in every respect serve as a substitute for soap. He offered his secret to the nation, and assured the assembly, upon his honour, that, if adopted universally d in their nefarious attempts and actual crimes, "On the morning of the Toth, the French again through the nation, there would be a yearly saving of past distressing news has lately arrived from Or. whom they retired. May 30. The Generals Rochambeau, Luckner and o (forty-five miles north of Rome.) The people "While the enemy's detachment was before Reume, Fayette, on the 19th instant, were to decide in a conat town, taking in dudgeon certain mandates of another arrived at the village of Bleharjes, which be ference held at Valenciennes, the plan of the ulterior bishop and governor, gathered into bodies during longs to us, where there was a smart action. A pea- campaign, whether the war should be offensive or denight, and ran through the freets, with laurel fant informs, that a great number was killed on both fensive. Their determination is to be kept secret-so ches in their hands, crying out, liberty! liberty! fides, and that our troops had, in repulling the enemy, that no apprehensions can be entertained of the ene-double its vigilance for the maintainance of good church has been thrown down, as was also the parson- manded the advanced guard, confishing of 4000 men, and public tranquillity. Strangers, in particular, age house, which was plundered. Our dragoons drank left his position near Bouvines, and encamped between atched more than at any former period, especial- the wine of the constitutional curate, and one of them St. Aubin and Emptine. The enemy, swho in all likelihood had projected a plan to furprise him in the first position, attempted with a body of from 8000 to 10,000 men, and a considerable train of artillery, had not made a timely escape.—The Herculean The national assembly had no sooner decreed the twelve pounders, to surround him in this) marched in as been lately entered upon of clearing Rome of free cultivation of tebacco through the kingdom of five columns, forming the centre and left, by the road dicant aliens, the host of them having become im- France, than the royal agricultural society not only called Fosse à l'Eau; a third marching through the The eyes of the government have been some published and distributed gratis a treatise upon the wood of Florence, had turned to the right, and by open upon the inconveniences resulting from so method of raising tobacco, but particularly enjoined this movement surrounded our man, which was atus a population. Herctofore, it was almost as two of the members, Messieurs Lesebore and Parmen- tacked in all quarters before three o'clock in the mornas atheim, to fay, that it was the duty of govern- tier, to undertake the raising of different species of the ing. The action was warm, and lasted till nine t to rid itself of this leprosy. The prejudices of plant from seeds of the best quality of each. During o'clock, when our troops, inferior in number and araken charity, countenanced by a multiplicity of the last year they have been constantly disseminating tillery, retreated in the best order, a quarter of a ious orders that found their interest therein, have, these different kinds through the kingdom; and the league from the camp. The greatest praise is due lately, opposed a reform in this particular. This, quantity of seed gathered last season, gives them an both to the general and troops, who behaved themever, will be one of the good confequences of the opportunity to diffeminate it universally the present selves with the greatest coolness and bravery, and many ent horrible revolution in France, the very memo- year. The several species of the tobacco plant culti- nœuvred as if they were at exercise. Our loss is not which our government would, if possible, efface vated by these gentlemen, are the following, 1. The considerable; it is estimated at twenty killed and from Little Frederick; 2. the Virginian; 3. the Large leaf; fixty to eighty wounded—that of the enemy, we are 4. the Alfantian; and, 5. the Flandrian. affored, is greater, though they remained mafters of May 3. The Sieur de Boissy, who is treasurer of the field, which they abandoned before twelve o'clock e learn from Turin, that the court has ordered charity fociety for the purpose of delivering from pri- -The pea:ants inform, that the enemy passed through new regiments to march for Savoy, amongst others son such persons as have been long held in confinement the villages of Mariame, Gerpine, &c. with thirty. mards. The militia are ordered to assemble on for debts due to nurses for attending their wives, the eight carriages loaded with wounded. It is faid, geto,000 armed men; and, in case of an attack account of the charitable donations that have been pre- and there is no doubt but that he will make disposirance, the Austrian troops in the Milanese will sented at the Chatelet, for the three last Sundays. On tions to dislodge the enemy from Charleroy; who, bethese three days a sufficiency of donations has been re- ing masters of the Sombre, keep our lest uncovered, ceived to free from the gloomy inclosure of a prison one and cut off our communication with Mauberge."

On Sunday last captain Jonathan Lambert arrived The project of the Austrians appears to be [6231. 168.] Pennsylvania money; not quite 51. a here from the Cape of Good Hope. The British frigate Bolus, which failed from Calcutta about the led this place on that destination. The fears May 4. Though the patriotic French so far respect 20th of February with dispatches for England, touched prince-bishop are not vet fully removed, and the memory of the late emperor Leopold as not to de- at the Cape about the 20th of April. The accounts tell severity is used against those who shew claim against it, yet they are not the less sensible of by this frigate were, that lord Cornwellis's army had the dangerons policy of his conduct. The whole taken feveral of the out polls of Seringapatam, Tippoo tenor of that policy, while the emperor, was a plain Saib's capital; that the army was in high spirits, and proof that it was his intention to modify the French that there was not the least doubt that Seringapatam court are daily fending off couriers to Bohemia constitution; and that under this view, he projected a would foon fall; but that it had not been taken when a estimated at 10,000 quintals, has taken France, equally hostile to the king and the constitution, people, and much treasure, from the place to one of es in readiness to march. The free corps still menting divisions amongst the French, and meddling. On Thursday last, about one o'clock P. M. the to recruit, though orders relative to their for- with their internal troubles without discovering a dis- powder-mill in this town was blown up, by which containing betwixt tw acree, in Prince-George the Eastern Branch, about city, and the same distance

ALB.

6. 2250 0

Benjamin Stoddert, George

Anne; John Brooke, Upper

1, Pig-Point; Robert Bowie

on, Magruder's; John Forbe

, Thomas Harwood, junio

Grahame, Peter Emmerfor

belley, Thomas Parran, Hen ubom tickets may be had, a dland, Bennet's creek run within thirty miles of the

he estimated amount. 2

and lying near the town

e wood commands 20s.

water little more than half land, and each lot to have to the water. Deeds, was nade for the land. Plots mand; the fould warrand

o be delivered at Lowe

ansfer notes for tobacco, a n payment at the marke

duction to be made to the

the day of drawing. The lrzwn on the third Tuelda ts are all fold, at Lower be given of the time, an

bers published immediatel produce will be taken at th t the fubscriber's mill with he lottery.

W. ALLEIN.

ED, and to be fold a eilion of affembly.

ROCEEDING

OUSES.

1792.

ng-Office,

THE .

each of the managers.

a good meadow on it, an may be made to Mr. Ri adeniburg, or to the fub NDER HAMILTON.

Anne. collections that the ful been enabled to make, at their late store at Queen feel themselves under th forming those debtors, the o next court, to recover

HN PETTY, and Co.