days from Leogane. He informs, that the decree of numerous bodies of troops, the northern division of faying is a true one; " a burnt child dreads the fin the national affembly, respecting the people of colour, which, under the command of M. Rochambeau, had People have long experinced the truth of this adage has been generally ratified -that the emigrants were advanced a confiderable diffance into Brabant, and had this country, and therefore they conclude it will

were returning to the plantations.

captain Lloyd Jones, advise, that there the goth of Fayette, lay at Metz, in the province of Lorrain; the feeing with their own eyes, of hearing with their o middle of July, in the low lands along the fea coast, to enter the German territories. A healthier season was never known in Carolina than On the 1st of July in lat. 25, 30. Ion. 44, spoke freedom and liberty in its very birth, but I trust the present. The rice swamps were promising an un- the ship Birmingham (formerly the Philadelphia) from of God, and that he, who fitteth in the heavens, common abundant crop, and the Indian corn had only Cadiz bound to New-York, the malter of which in- laugh them to foorn. I believe, indeed, that natio failed on high landy situations. The indigo was formed captain Wilder, that the day before he failed, vices are purged with national judgments, or afficile much injured by the early droughts along the coast, which was about the 14th of June, the post brought or calamities; call them which you will. There a there have peremptorily refused to pay the duty of 41 army, under M. la Fayette, and the troops command- confident; nor do I think it will be confined to upon the exportation of fugars, and that fuits had been ed by the emigrant princes and their allies. The kingdom, but rather that it will be extended to all brought in the common law court there, to discuss the French obtained a complete victory, and 15,000 men kingdoms and states in Europe, and even through from Bilboa in Spain, which place the left the 8th of have fallen into the possession of the French. than here; it is not so much on my own account, as June. The captain was informed, previous to his Extract of a letter from a merchant in Bourdeaux, to bis of family; I defire to follow the leadings of Provide men in the northern parts of Spain, to be fent to "The national assembly has abolished privateering if Providence should design it, those few remain Madrid, to overawe the people as was supposed, who altogether, not only in this, but all suture wars; and obstacles will, doubtless, be removed. The diffic began to talk and write too freely of the measures of England has jult now rendered a proclamation, torbid- of fettling young people in this place is very gr government. The queen's party is confidered there ding all the subjects of that crown to engage in or arm every place is full; the taxes are enormously he (as was the case in France,) as inimical to the interests any privateers, under any colours whatloever, against there is likewise a great deal of the old leaven of of the people, in compliance with whose wishes and French vessels under very severe punishment. We church intolerancy remaining among us, which contrary to hers, the present ministry have been were apprehensive that the people of Jersey and Guern- markably and most virulently discovered itself at brought into office.

Boston, in ten weeks from Petersburgh, in Russia. mation, or by noble motives, they have declared they fee the dissenters burned in Smithsteld, no doubt Information is received by this vessel, that the Russians would not move. are not raising any forces against the French-but they will not suffer a Frenchman to reside among them.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman at Quebec, to bis friend in this city, of recent date.

" Upper Canada will be a fine settlement in a very Thort time; 500 troops are already arrived, part of taken up for transporting the remainder, and for bring. ther or not she will take any part in this war. ing over artificers, emigrants and others, which latter are expected here in a few days." The military policy of gent Payette feems, in every tiers he will teach his foldiers the absolute necessity of the war." discipline, and will give them the habitude of war, without venturing a decifive action with troops who deaux, gives the following information: --- That the United States for their payment, are requested to have been taught from their infancy to look upon tumult in Paris had not subsided—that the king's bu- at Annapolis on the second TUESDAY in Office chemielves as mere machines, and are as absolutely reau had been broken open, and some letters found, next, at which time propositions will be laid be such, in the military line, as the cannon and mortars by which it was discovered that his majesty had been them from the officers of the Massaghusetts and that attend them.

Extract of a letter from Bermuda, July 28. "The ship Sovereign, captain Welch, which arrived at Barbadoes the 13th instant, from London, on her passage out spoke the Lord Camden East-Indiaman, bound home with dispatches from Lord Cornwallis, Paris were in arms-That the national assembly has containing the particulars of the taking Seringapatam, continued fitting for five days, without adjournmentafter a fevere conflict, but that Tippoo escaped. After the capture Tippoo entered into treaty with the com- the king would be beheaded. bined powers, in the most humiliating manner, in which he gave up half his kingdom, was to pay three millions sterling in money, one half of which was to hostages for the due performance of the treaty.

" We learn from the West-Indies, that in confequence of the new regulations and restrictions likely to take place on their trade, by the impolitic interference of parliament; many planters and merchants are felling off their estates and property, in order to move to other countries to fettle."

clined for war, and mean to ftrike some important blow towards or during autumn.

To demonstrate the superior excellence of Beetham's washing-mill to any other mode of washing cloaths, the following certified account of the operation that machine, is published in a London paper:

The following articles were completely washed between the hours of nine in the morning and nine at night, in a common mill of fix guineas value; and in the operation confuming only nine pounds and an half beautiful troops, confifting of 100 men; part of the of foap, and a pound of pearl-affes; they were all two companies commanded by captains Hannah and rung at the same time in a common wringer, value one Buchanan, now under the direction of that gallant ofguineat 350 shirts and shifts, each worn a week-64 ficer, ensign Aaron Gregg, on their way to the Westaprons, ditto-to gowns, ditto-to frocks, ditto-2 ern country. We wish them a happy campaign. long table clothes, 48 sheets, worn a month. Caps and other small articles innumerable.

It may be necessary to remark, that to wash the fame quantity by hand, always took seven women two excite speculation and attention on the part of the govern- defeat much. I own myself entirely ignorant of the Right or nine refractory members of the provincial. CHARLESTON, July 25. being enacted among you, as they deem it a ballemaly have been taken up and tent to France; and Captain Wilder, of the ship Caroline, who arrived omen. Most men of this side the Atlantic think it the negroes begin to return to their duty. here on Monday evening, in 59 days from Amsterdam, if the excise be once introduced it will never Captain Carey is arrived at Providence in twelve relates, that the French have affembled three very abolished, but rather increase continually. The returning-and that the negroes wire had oven in arms, had leveral partial engagements with the Imperial the fame in America. The tyrants of Europe are troops, in one of which the fon of M. Rochambeau alarmed, as well as the old tyrant at Rome. But Accounts from Charleston by the schooner Eagle, was killed the centre division, commanded by M. la time is hastening when men will take the liberty June the feafons have been favourable in the back fouthern division, under the command of general ears, and of judging what is right, and proper, country of South Carolina and Georgia, and fince the Luckner, was also stationed near the frontiers, ready to the contrary. The above tyrants appear to co but promised a plentiful produce in the upper country. an account of a very severe battle having been fought be much blood spitt in France, before liberty triums We learn from St. Christopher's that the planters in Flanders, between the centre division of the French but triumph it shall, it must, sooner or later, I propriety of that impost continuing to be levied. were left dead on the field. In consequence of this the whole world. Though my circumstances are A vessel arrived at Salem on the 6th of August, important success, a number of the Imperial towns comfortable, yet would I much rather be in Ame fey would have made large armaments under Imperial mingham last summer; several of the clergy were The ship Dauphin, captain Hopkins, is arrived at colours; but restrained either by their king's procla- abettors of that prosecution; they would be ela

"The Hungarian despot has also forbidden the for these and similar reasons, not mentioned, I am people of Oftend and Triefte to arm; and, by mutual and cannot be over fond of England. Great, agreement with this country, the merchant vessels of friend, is your happiness, to be fettled in a co both nations refort to their respective ports as before where the constitution makes no distinction among the beginning of hostilities.

"Russia is the only nation that could molest the yours is an almost enviable fituation:-May you col. Simcoe's regiment; * several transports are also French maritime trade; but it is very uncertain whe- all your brethren throughout the United States .. f fination of her Quixotte.

" Prussia is not yet acting openly. It is presumed respect, to be copied from the conduct of the Ameri- that William will not be very active in supporting can Fabius at the beginning of the war with Great- his ally. It is even faid that there is a very strong par-Britain. By skirmishes with the enemy on the fron- ty formed in his dominions against taking any part in carrying on a very treasonable correspondence with the lines of the late army of the United States. emigrant princes-That double guards had been placed around the place, in which their majesties were confined on account of the suspicions entertained of their intention to quit the capital-That all the citizens of and that the general opinion in Bourdeaux was, that

RICHMOND, August 3. A few nights ago, four soldiers belonging to a combe immediately paid down in camp, and the other half pany of new retruits, which were encamped near this Pig-Point, 8th August, 1792. in twelve months; his two eldest sons were given as city, went to an adjoining farm upon a marauding expedition, about ten o'clock, and took their muskets for their defence. Upon their arrival they were entering a melon patch, they were hailed by the overfeer, who ordered them to march off or he would fire upon them -but one of them, in defiance of his orders, began pulling the melons, upon which he was fired on, and received a load of small shot in his belly, which Aug. 16. Reports from the westward say, that the brought him to the ground. One of the comrades, Indians were affembling to the number of four or five finding that he was wounded, immediately fired his shousand, about the middle of July, at or near the piece at the overleer, and shot him in the arm and Miamee-towns. It is added, that they appear in shoulder; a friend of the latter standing by, armed with a cane only, rushed upon the soldiers, disarmed one of them, and put the rest to flight, leaving their wounded companion behind. The two wounded men are now under the hands of an able furgeon, who has pronounced them very badly wounded, but not dangerouffy.

> FREDERICK-TOWN, August 14. On Monday last left this town a detachment of > ANNAPOLIS, August 23. John Brown and John Edwards, Elquires, are chosen to represent the state of Kentucky in the tenate of the stract of a letter from a avorthy clergyman, near Lon- county, are requested to bring th contleman in Chefter county, Pennsylvania, ber, in order that they may be adjust is our government over favourable to non conform inhabitants, on account of their religious pring fast in that liberty, civil and ecclesiastical, where "Sweden has enough to do at home fince the affai- God has made you free," and transmit the fam violate to the latest period of time."

HE OFFICERS of the MARYLAND L who have disposed of their centificates at a de Captain Kennedy, of the brig Harriet, from Bour- ciated value prior to the establishment of funds b

* * The Printers of the different papers in state are requested to insert the above in their paper

A LL persons indebted to the subscriber, THOMAS and EDWARD TILLARD, for deal at this place, are once more most earnestly calle for payment; fuch as have been neglectful, an not now make reasonable payments, or by the cl the present inspection at furthest, may expect without further notice, or respect to persons. THOMAS TILLA

To the Public.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application he made to the general affembly of Mary it its next session, for an act to appropriate the school land of Anne-Arundel county to the purpo teaching reading, writing and arithmetic, to poor phans, and other children of the faid county, y nearest relations are incapable of affording then

It is proposed, that the said land be fold; that money arising from the sale be added to the mone ready raised by voluntary contribution, and by late orphan school lottery, and that the whole be ed in trustees for carrying into effect the benev design, for which the said lottery was instituted. No. 2312 of the Maryland Gazette, published benefit of fuch an education.

Annapolis, July 9, 1792.

HERE is at the plantation of the subsci near Upper-Marlborough, in Prince-Ge county, taken up as a stray, a bay HORSE, between and 14 hands high, about nine or ten years old, he veral small white spots on his head and shouldes perceivable brand, paces, trots and gallops.

JOHN READ MAGRUDE

Dr. DAVID CLARK, late are indebted to the above of ole in England seem to enjoy St. Clair's mediate payment, as indulgence cannot be given ndian war; per- July 22, 1792.

and, he had other cloaths with Il be defenibed. he is likely, o zion, full faced, and has a rehe is flow of speech, and manners, is a tolerable good er worked as foreman of a sho property of Henry May, late This fellow was taken ou pais in his possession, and rocured another. Whoeve tro and brings him to me, or I so that I get him again, sha RIC L. B. It is probable this fello re forewarn all masters of harbouring or concealing hi should they may expect to b to laws nne-Arundel county, June 20 virtue of executions from th unty court, to me directed. of September, at the Pop

for a free man, as there are n bout the country; when he tention was to have made h

ART of two tracts of land, Exultabus, containing about led Pork Plenty, if no Thieves, en as the property of Joseph to fatisfy debts due to Joshi el Dorsey, of Henry. The ock in the forenoon, and for re-On the 12th, at George Matthi licott's mills, a tract of land cal ith the improvements, containing n as the property of Bartholon to fatisfy a debt due to Vache On the 13th, on the premises, d, the one called Maidstone, co tes, the other called Goree Ban acres; taken as the property of hittington, heirs of Thomas W. to fatis y fundry executions lock in the forenoon, for eath as And on the 15th, at the theriff mapolis, at three o'clock, three bes, confifting of two negro wor in; taken as the property of Riministrators, and fold to fatisfy French and others.

WILLIAM GOLDSN Anne-Arundel August 14 1792.

Aug. 15, 1792.

Notice. LL persons having claims MATTHEW BIRKHEA el county, deceased, are requ ule of the lubscriber on Friday t mber enfuing, producing their ch cated, that a division amongst the diately take place. All persons will be excluded from any

THOMAS BATSON with the will Herring Bay, August o. 1792.

For Sale, HAT valuable FARM the of residence of the late L fer. Elquire, known by the n person inclinable to purcha

DAN. JENIFER,
DAN. JENIFER, et, it will on that

county, Mary