cause, if you watch with indefatigable activity your letter from Lisbon, dated May 23.—" Her majesty most solemn manner, pledge the sacred honour of all the acts of violence to individuals which they ex- obstinacy in her, which doctor Willis says, he never voted to your service-It shall be my first, my last cite; if securing within the kingdom the empire of met with in any subject he ever had under his care; only study, to support your government, to make the laws, and answering by well ordered movements he has little or no success, and the people in general a free, independent, and happy people.——This the pure language of him who has the honour to f nd the profound sentiment of the duties of soldier against despotism, we advertise you of your dangers, general action has taken place between the French and in order to invite you to the efforts necessary to sur- Austrian armies, that it was a hard fought battle, atmount them. We shew you the precipice, what glory tended with very great slaughter, the Austrians having waits you when you have furmounted it? The eyes of 10,000 killed and wounded, and the French upwards On Friday the 12th of October next, will be SOU nations are fixed upon you; aftonish them by the of 5000, but that the victory was greatly in favour of majestic display of your force, and of a grand charac- the French. ter. Union, respect for the laws, for the chiefs, for Menen and some other places are taken by the the constituted authorities; courage unshaken, and Prench, and they were besieging Mons, which they soon will victory crown with her palms the alter of expected to carry. liberty: foon will the nations who are now arming against your constitution covet to unite themselves with you by the ties of sweet fraternity; soon consolidating, by a glorious peace, the balls of your government, you will reap all the fruits of the revolution; and in preparing your own happiness, you will have prepared the happiness of posterity."

On the motion of M. Vaublane the affembly voted-AN ADDRESS TO THE ARMY.

" Brave Warriors,

danger of our country; this is to proclaim the force last .- These men give the particulars of the whole, as of the empire; this is to announce, that French youth told them, by the Indians themselves, viz. That will flock round the standard of liberty. You will they were first taken and brought into the towns, and teach them to conquer; you will point them the road after knowing their errand, the Indians put them to to glory.

"On the figual of danger to your country, you will feel your ardour redoubled. Warriors, let dif- one more attempt to bring about a peace with the cipline guide your motions, that alone is the guarantee savages—their fate, we adduce as a palpable and pubof victory. Have that calm and cool courage with lic instance of savage honour and benevolence, and as "A true army is an immense body put in motion by a fingle head. It can do nothing without a passive the very agent sent to establish them.] subordination of rank to rank, from the soldier up to the general. Warriors, imitate the devotion of Dassas, detachment of about 300 men, under the command of and the courage of the brave Pie. Merit the honours which your country referves for those who fight for her: they will be worthy of her and of you.

Forget not that it is your constitution that is attacked. The object is to make you descend from the glorious rank of freedom! Well! brave warriors, the constitution must triumph, or the French nation must be covered with indelible disgrace.

to second you. Doubt not of it: there is not a not known, but supposed to perpetrate some malicious Frenchman who hesitates; there is not one who, in or wicked intention. Their appearance occasioned a these days of peril and of glory, risks dishonouring his considerable alarm in the neighbourhood. life by a base and shameful inaction. How unhappy will be the man who cannot on some future day say to his children and his fellow-citizens—" I too fought To the CITIZENS of ANNE ARUNDEL when our liberty was attacked. I shared the glory of and PRINCE-GEORGE'S counties, and the city the day on which the French arms triumphed over our enemies. I descended the ramparts of the city, which they attacked in vain; and on such a day I bled for my country, for liberty, and equality."

June 23. By private letters from Paris we learn, that that capital is at present in extreme disorder. The late changes in the administration, and the firmness of the king's refistance to certain measures, have placed him in a situation of imminent danger. The queen, always the imputed origin of every obnoxious act, is virulently reviled, threatened and insulted. The Jacobins publicly talk of giving a very fignal example to the world. May it be that of popular ascendency used with mildness and moderation !

horrows. Without entering into a discussion of the tion for your respectful and obedient servant, cause which induces this new scene of hostility and probable earnage, it is sufficient to remark what most Annapolis, September 11, 1792. probably may occur to most of our readers, that the moment is at hand, when Poland may cease to be a To the VOTERS of Anne-Arundel and distinct kingdom,-In the last war against this devoted country, when the combined powers of Russia, Austria, and Prussia, got each a share of its territories, it ... GENTLEMEN. seemed but to lead to some future occasion of dispute, NY address comes to you, not to form a pretext for dividing the whole realm. It IVI forbiftry and ingenuity of a law may be no great presumption, therefore, to bazard a aided by the artifice of a speculator, but its the genuprophecy, that the refult of the prefent war, in which inc language of a heart that throbs within the breast of A PSALMODY in its different parts. other powers most probably will unite with Russia, an honest planter. From the solicitations of my friends, willing to act as clerk and sexton to a Protest prerogatives annexed to his flation.

internal enemies, if you prevent all the diforders and of Portugal continues very ill, there is a degree of gentleman, that the best of my abilities shall be

BOSTON, August 27. The captain of a French packet, which arrived on "Frenchmen, four years engaged in a struggle Wednesday night at Dover, brings intelligence that a

PITTSBURG, August 25. Extract of a letter from the reverend Mr. Heckenwelder, Indian missionary, to the reverend Daniel Story, Marietta, dated Fort Washington, July 26, 1792. "A day or two after our arrival at this place, we had news from Post Vincent, that one or two of our flags had been killed; and fince that, this news has been confirmed by two men who had been taken prisoners by the Indians, the first in general Harmar's "The national assembly has just proclaimed the expedition, and the other on the 4th of November

[These flags were sent for the purpose of making which the sence of your force ought to inspire you. a proof of the value of treaties with those who dis- the land. regard the first principles of them, so far as to murder

Thursday last arrived here from the eastward, a captain Mills.

And the same day a company of men from Virginia, commanded by captain Smith. A CAUTION TO TRAVELLERS.

On Friday the 17th instant, was seen a number of MINSTER. disorderly persons in a thicket on the way fide between the towns of Washington and Canonsburg, all armed with guns and pistols, and painted like Indians: They "From all parts your fellow-citizens are preparing were seen by fundry travellers. Their design was

> ANNAPOLIS, September 13. and PRINCE-GEORGE's counties, and the city of ANNAPOLIS. Gentlemen,

T the folicitation of many of my friends, I am belongs to Thomas ADAIR, of Calvert county, a induced to come forward and offer myself as a candidate for your favour, at the ensuing election for a and an half high; had on when he broke gaol a representative of the second district in congress. On this occasion, I earnestly request your votes, and am, linen trousers, and a red linen handkerchief, with great respect.

West river, September 11, 1792.

To the CITIZENS of ANNE-ARUNDEL and PRINCE-GEORGE's counties.

The black cloud of war which hangs to heavily this A S the object of offering my fervices is effected by fummer over the continent of Europe, more and more I the coming forward of Mr. John Thomas, I WILL, if brought to this place. lowers .- Russia and Poland are about to add to its therefore decline having a poll taken at the next elec-DAVID ROSS.

Prince-George's counties.

will be a participation among them of the remaining I am induced to make you a tender of my fervices as Episcopal Church, and can come well a delegate for the second district; this may be a mat-The Prushan cabinet has formerly engaged to de-ter of more moment than you may imagine. It is m the present constitution of Holland, to guard it your duty, Sirs, to come forward on the present occa-It the innovating spirit of the French, and to sion, and make every exertion to elect a man of unintain the dignity of the Stadtholder, and all the blemished character—Let him be a man of indepen- R TOTICE is hereby given, that the full The ficet fitting out by Russa, to act against the ment—Let him be a man of found judge. I tends to prefer a petition to the reach, consists of twelve ships of the line, and a dustry and sobriety—Let him be a man of the same of the sa scribe himself-

Your most obed t, and, I fincerely hope,

*Upper Marlborough, September 10, 179 EPUBLIC AUCTION, on the premiles, File subscribers plantation, commonly cal CHURCH'S OLD FIELDS, containing 29 acres of fliff level land, well watered and wooded. which, from its quality and fituation, may, at a v moderate expence, be made a beautiful and pro farm; it is most advantageously situated, being r the main road leading from Annapolis to Bladens 5 miles from the latter and 24 from the former, miles from the capitol or house of congress, 114 the president's palace, 124 from George-town, 2 from the outlines of the tederal city; few places be better calculated for a gentleman's country and those who may wish to possess one for themse or their posterity near the seat of governmen the United States, will probably never meet favourable opportunity, nor could an industry farmer reasonably with a better market than is to met with in the many towns that furround it is directions at convenient distances. Three years cr will be allowed, the purchaser giving bond on inte with approved security, the indulgence of credit forfeited if the interest be not paid in three mor after it becomes due. Mr. ANTHONY PAGE, F on the Annapolis road, near the premises, will THOMAS GLISSAN N. B. Should de suit the purchaser, one half purchase money will be received in young orden gro men, at a reasonable valuation.

TOTICE is hereby given, that a MINIST of the PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHUR wanting in the parish of St. MARGARET'S W 12/25 CHARLES WATER

Anne-Arundel county, September 11, 1792. Sixteen Dollars Reward,

TOR apprehending the three following NEGRO who broke gaol on the night of the 6th infl to wit: Negro HERCULES, who was conden to work at the wheel-barrow for four years; about fix feet high, has thick lips, a bold look, hi and well made, about thirty years of age; h when he broke gaol an ofnabrig thirt and negro co breeches, neither Rockings nor thoes. CHARLES, committed as a runaway, who fays made likely negro man, exactly five feet fix in nabrig jacket with sleeves, one ditto shirt, he wears on his head .- Negro WILL, about fourteen or fifteen years old, committee runaway, who fays he belongs to Mrs. CHAPMAN Charles county; he is about five feet high; had when he broke gaol a very dirty ofnabrig shirt trousers. The above reward will be given for three, or TEN DOLLARS for HERCULES, if brought to this place, or confined in any gaol is state, and THREE DOLLARS each for CHARLES

Prince. George's county. Upper Marlborough, September 7, 1792

Cambridge, September 10, 179 TOTICE is hereby given, that a petition presented to the general affembly, at p fession, to make the road leading from East ARERS'S FERRY a public road down to the ed with the and to condemn a piece of land at the faid for mor is it

nended, will be informed of an eligible fituation making himself known to the Printers of this Gr

AMES SCOTT, lying in this cou ract of land called New Monsons

laryland, Frederick county, Fr August 29, 179; FOTICE is hereby given, the tends to make application t for an act of infolvency which he is unable to pay.

Charles county, Sep TOTICE is hereby given, that tends to petition the general it their next fession, for an ac debte which he is unable to pay

For Sale, --- by

Annapolis, persons who are indebted ROBERT COUDEN, Esq: defired to make payment to the who have claims against the sa ere be, fre requested to exhibit ther J. H. STONE,

Eight Dollars Rew AN away from the subscriber, a negro man named WILL, ab five feet nine or ten inches high went away, a round felt hat, of alers, and a coarse cloth over jac und, he had other cloaths with him ell be described, he is likely, of a exion, full faced, and has a remarks manners, is a tolerable good black ver worked as foreman of a thop; h property of Henry May, late of this This fellow was taken out of in Virginia, about eight days age ged pass in his possession, and it is e precured another. Whoever tak gro and brings him to me, or fecur to that I get him again, thall rec

RICHAR A. B. It is probable this fellow may s for a free man, as there are many for about the country; when he went intention was to have made his escap erefore forewarn all masters of vesse 4 harbouring or concealing him at y mould they may expect to be deal Anne-Arundel county, June 20, 17

FIVE POUNDS Rew AN away from the subscriber, livi gomery county, Maryland, on the a likely very fair mulatto flave ne years of age, five feet eight or has gray eyes, and very bald heade loured hair much curled; had o when he went away, a blue leveral wantecats, one pair of R.