posed by a committee only, which were nothing until and porposes, a Russian province. approved by the legillature, and then of no effect until stitution, and affects the rights of the people at large, as well as individuals, and in another instance is unjust and impolitic, has only been published among the laws, and never feen, far less considered, or understood by the citizens in general.

If the fenate give their affent to this bill, under all its circumstances, I know of no security the people can have for the preservation of the general government or CENSOR. their own, +

Annapolis, 22d November, 1792.

* This order did not include the bill to probibit members of congress, &c. as reported by the committee, but only the other bills reported by them. See Votes of House Del. page 117 .- The senate made no order for the publication.

+ Six of the members of the senate now attending, did not wote on the bill, lost session; only seven senators woted for the bill, and one against it. To retract an erroneous and time for deliberation, is unpardonable. The proceed- tion, to command the army which the king had in- by the lavages, on his route from Kentucky to the ings of last session was basty in both houses. The bill was trusted to me; and the national assembly designed, by state, a tew days before my triend wrote to me; brought into the bouse of delegates on Monday, 26th De- the organ of its president, to say to me, " We oppose cember, and read immediately a first and second time, and to the enemies coalesced against us, the constitution possed, and sent to the senate on Wednesday, the 28th De- and La Fayette." Since this period you have had the cember.—The amendment was proposed in the senate, and means of judging me. Your considence shewed me Silk is an article well worth the attention of the cities assented to, and sent to the house of delegates; where, on that you approved my conduct; your friendship anthe next day (Thursday) it was agreed to. Thus a bill swered to the tender attachment which I had vowed to alter our constitution, most essentially, was precipitated to you. Happy to defend, in the midst of soldiers in four days.

Supplement extraordinary to the Gazette of the Netherlands.

BRUSSELS, September 11. HE affair of the 14th, mentioned in our last supplement, was followed by the very precipitate retreat of the armies commanded by Messieurs Luckner, Dumourier and Kellerman.

the duke of Brunswick, offered them battle, which the French generals did not think proper to accept. the constitution, which in this moment seemed to me Not having succeeded in engaging them to fight, an to be our only point for rallying. My conduct was endeavour was made to turn them; for this purpole it known to, and my opinions were shared by youwas necessary to dislodge a corps of 20,000 men, un- my frankness animated more and more against me, all der M. Dumourier, who had an advantageous position the enemies of the constitution; but whatever were between the mountains. The intrepidity of our their efforts and their menaces, the national assembly, troops overcame these obstacles; they attacked and by a majority of two thirds, repulsed their ablurd accarried a battery of cannon—they forced the before- culations heaped up against me. You know the viomentioned corps to abandon its post, and to retire in lences offered the next day to the national assembly; industry by the attending the worms, and the wind great haite for fear of being surrounded—the two those exercised on the 10th of August against the king; other generals followed the example of M. Dumourier, the state of Paris at the moment when the suspension The whole French army passed the river Aisne in the of the king was decreed; the murders, the proscripgreatest disorder, and took refuge towards Chalons, tions which took place, not only during the battle at leaving that place between them and the combined the Thuilleries, but even during the following days.

woods and mountains, which separate us from the vast to the sew accounts which were suffered to pass, while plains and open country of Campagne.

The enemy has loft a great many men, four guns, fix measures taken on the 10th of August were contrary waggons of ammunition and a great quantity of bag- to the constitution act, and that they were forced from Mubeuge made a sortie on the advanced posts of the palities required you to renew the civic oath; the army, commanded by the duke of Saxe Teichen, and constitution has determined this oath, and ordered you was repulsed with a considerable loss. The new to obey the requisitions of the constituted authorities. corps of A. Michaelowitz was particularly distinguish. It was with regret that I saw a part of the army so far ed in this affair, by its firmnels and discipline. We ex- from the fulfilment of this duty, that I would have pect more circumstantial details of these several events. spared them the evil of retusing it. The pains taken

LONDON, September 14.

lar account: The Prussian general ordered the receiver who had accepted on the 10th of August, the execubefore him, and render an account of his receipts. them, deprived me of part of my command from This the receiver did, and the whole being audited, Dunkirk to Maubeuge; and they proposed equally to and the sum in his hands paid, the Prussian general destitute me of that which united me to you, and to gave him an acquittance in the following terms- renew against me those accusations which neither the Received for, and in the name of the French peo- assembly, the juries or the judges, were any longer ple, and of Louis XVI. king of the French, such a free to decide upon, in the state to which violence had fum, being the amount of the taxes received from reduced them. fuch a time till such a time, according to the decree "In these circumstances, and when the present of the national assembly, and for this sum I grant a faction directs itself principally against the authors of complete acquittance in the name of the French na. the revolution, against the true friends of the constition and the king." A notarial copy of this receipt he tution, I ceased to be destined to fight at your head, directed to be sent up to the general Bureau at Paris. and I could no longer hope for an useful death. What vading powers have altered their lystem. Instead of whom you would be forbidden to obey, and to prethe devastation and carnage threatened in their mani- serve to liberty a desender, whose inflexibility has testo, they now practife the most conciliatory methods merited for him, in this moment, the honour of being and hold out the establishment of the constitution, as proscribed. I separate myself, therefore, from you; Mr. Murray renewed his motion for appointing accepted by the king in September, 1791. If the I separate myself with a sentiment of griet, which committee to prepare and report a bill supplements nation had the most persect considence in this offer so it is, at least, sweet to pour into the bosoms of to the militia law passed in the last session of congre good that could befal them.

and queen of France.

Prussia over the diet which is shortly to assemble at who seek to enslave it. Ratisbon, cannot be doubted; and when they declare war against France, they must by their constitution. This address was certified to the editor of the Ley- be better to deter the business until the meeting of furnish an army of near 100,000 men. Of these the den Gazette by fix officers of M. de la Fayette's late next congress which as it would be a large representation king of England, as elector of Hanover, supplies erat major, who left France with him, but who have tion might be more amply passessed of the sentiment the head of a body of Polish troops, in the grand Alexander Lameth and Bureau de Puzy, who appear who had already armed their citizens under their citizens duchy of Lithuania; the ambassador of that nation to be dillinguished by this rigour in account of their expence, was brought into view,

Letters from Barceiona state, that five fail of French confirmed by another legislature—while the bill in ships of the line were at anchor off Nice the 24th of question that in two instances violates the national con- last month, for the avowed purpose of bombarding that place on the first movement of the Sardinian tember, lays, that general Clairfayt has put Dumon troops to join the confederate army.

mention, that it was reported that the duke of Bruni- the latter then retreated to another body of 30,000 wick had encountered the French army under com- making in the whole 52,000 men, with which he a mand of Dumourier in a general action near Chalons, with tuch precipitation as to abandon all his out po and obtained a decifive victory: near 10,000 of the with his military cheft, containing 50,000 livres French being said to be cut to pieces. War was de- crown pieces, besides assignats, and fixty waggon los clared by Spain against France on the 2d of this of provision. The money is said to have been divis month, and Messicurs Rubi, Alvarez, and Delasey, among the hulans. are appointed to be his catholic majesty's generals.

M. de la Fayette has published, in the Leyden Gazette, the following address to the army latety commanded by him.

life; I came in the midst of the applauses of the na- James Parberry, of Franklin county, was murden dear to my heart, the principles to which my whole life has been consecrated, and the constitution which the national sovereignty gave us, I found in this refistance of a free people to to many efforts re-united against them, every thing that could sausfy my opinions and animate my zeal. "You will remember, I fear with uneafiness, that a turbulent faction, whose movements appeared to me to correspond with those of our exterior enemies, en-The Austrian and Prussian combined armier, under deavoured to deprive us of that which makes the force of a free people, respect for the laws and fidelity to I refer in this respect to the decrees of the department By this manœuvre we are become masters of the of Ardennes and of the municipality of Sedan, and all the papers, devoted to the Jacobin party, were cir-We have made four or five hundred prisoners. culated with profusion. It was evident, that the the national affembly. This conviction guided my On the other hand we learn, that the garrison of conduct. The administrative bodies and the municito calumniate me in your opinion, have succeeded so far as to alienate a part of your confidence. On the By a letter from Paris, we have the following fingu- other fide the commissioners of the national assembly, be greatly to our advantage. neral of the department of the Moselle, to come tion of the decrees which violence had fratched from

This very curious fact feems to prove, that the in- remained for me do? To remove from you a general, much are they infatuated, and so entirely under the those of my companions in arms, who have pre- This motion was seconded by Mr. Mercer, and deluss n of a republic, for which they neither have served for me their affection. I took, before set- supported by both those members. The necessity knowledge nor morals, they would reject this greatest ting out, all the measures which could answer to me ameliorating the law, the impracticability of enforces for your fafety; and I go far from my country, where it, the extravagance of demanding from a poor The ruling faction in Paris has intimated in writing a party reigns which proferibes me, far from the ene- to equip himself with arms which will cost twell to the duke of Brunswick, that his attempt to approach mies coalesced against us, and whom I hoped to com- pounds or upwards if a unitermity of caliper is the capital shall be the figual for murdering the king but at your head, to taste, in my retreat the consola- quired; were circumstances that deferved the murdering tion of a pure conscience and to form ardent wishes diate attention of congress, whole duty it would The influence of the emperor and the king of for the triumph of French liberty over all the factions to amend or repeal such parts of the act as all the LA FAYETTE" (Signed) been released from the prilons at Luxembourg. He of the people. The difficulties arriving from the A Russian lieutenant-general is at this moment at is fill in that fortress with M. M. la Tour Maubourg, ing of the state laws, and the situation of tome segulates every thing in the capital; the king and his having been members of the conflituent flational af- the diffractful alternative of placing arms in the having the confideration of the people". Thus proper measures ministers have been obliged to fign all the declarations I wanted an Angele. were taken to inform the people of amendments pro- presented to them, and Poland is now, to all intents Luxembourg, an Austrian officer lat in the carrie The other priloners remain for further either at Nivelles, or Luxembourge Sept 27. A letter from Verdun, of the 17th S. to flight, dislodging him from his post with only Sept. 22. Advices received yesterday from France 17.000 men, though Dumourier had 22,000; the RICHMOND, November 16. A letter, received by John Redd, Elquire, a men ber of the house of delegates, from a correspondent "At a time, when after having concurred in two Henry county, dated the 21 initiant, fays-", I great revolutions, I enjoyed in retirement the success just received a letter from a friend of mine, who of my constant efforts for the cause of the people, the on Holstein river-He informs me, that the India dangers of the country snatched me from a private are very troublesome about the Rye Cove; and, a

> ANNAPULIS, November 29. [Continued from our last.]

zens of Maryland.

THE white mulberry tree, which is the porfood for the filk-worms, from which only the belled filk is produced, is a native of Maryland; no me grows more naturally here than the mulberry; the tree will grow on all free open warm foil most spon. taneously, which is not the case in the eastern states the state of Connecticut, where the greatest proged is made in this branch of any in the union, is not natural for either the filk-worm or mulberry trees Maryland, whose warm kindly foil and salubrious is much more adapted to both the tree and the infe than that of Connecticut or Massachuletts, where great care and pains have been taken to raise orchards of the trees, by which their daugnters are now able not only to cloath themselves very genteelly, out lend consider the payments, amounting to L. 4.735 able quantities to the cities and towns, and finall quantities of raw filk for exportation to Europe; thus we fee a fifter state taking the advantage of us in the manufacturing of an article which by nature belongs to us, by which our little domestics would be employed thereon, amounting to £. 1,815 7 3. les in collecting the leaves, and our daughters be taugh ing, Ipinning, and working the filk much to their amusement, credit and advantage. Cotton if properly cultivated grows well in this state, the only discouragement is that of the early frotts, this may be readily obviated by planting a week or ten days earlier than is common, and applying a small quantity of alles shell lime, or plaister of Paris to each hill, one or other of which are easily obtained in any part of the stare, the plaister being always to be had at Baltimore from Nova-Scotia, and alto along the shores of he tuxent river, where it is more than probable that no ful thimulating manure might be had in abundant were it diligently fought tor; ashes or shell limen plenty, a very imali quantity of either of those and applied to each hill of cotton will not only haften growth to as to prevent it being injured by the in but be productive of a luxuriant crop. The Hell fly having attacked the wheat crop in part of this in and threatened the whole, is an inducement we attempting the railing of hemp, flax, cotton and and should we be thus forced from necessity into nufacturing it is more than probable the change would

In Barbadoes, and some other of the West-India illands, about fifteen years ago, the inhabitants though themselves almost ruined by a imall ant that attack and destroyed their cane in its ir fant state, which obliged them to decline the raising of it in part for all years, and from necessity take to the raining of comit fo far was this from a diladvantage in the illue wall increased their annual profits at least three fold; it is more than probable, the Hessian fly, so called may, instead of a curse or disaster, be a bleshing of great advantage to the state of Maryland.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OFTHE UNITED STATES. TUESDAY, November 20.

[To be continued]

fuch just causes for complaint: on the other hand, motion was opposed upon a principle, that it wo feitizens under a provision to deprive th lesiure; were all noticed. It was also he law as it now Rands was not calcu bility or establishment of an effective on he contrary did not contain a fingle milit d was perfectly nugatory, useless, and certal contempt; in so much that it seem plated as if designed to prevent any mili nent whatever, in order to form a plea

The question being called on Mr. Mu me taken, it was negatived. He then ominittee should be appointed to bring in cal to much of the first fection of the li the arming of the militia, This mo was not decided, but lies on the table.

w the House of DELEGATES, Novemb ORDERED, That the printer to the f undred copies of the report of the agent of he use of the legislature, and that the san d in the Maryland Gazette. Wm. HARWOOD, I. WINCHESTER,

To the honourable the GENERAL A MARYLAND.

RANDOLPH BRANDT LATIMA o lay before your Honours, statements proceedings, in the execution of his di at appointing him agent. No. 1, states the several balances due January, seventeen hundred and ninety eturns have been made, for taxes of hore, amounting to £. 18,384 19 4. he payments, amounting to £. 7,924 balance due of f. 12,688 4 11. No. 2, states the several balances theritis and clerks on the western shore, (. 12,135 7 6 specie, and £. 13,046 1 money. It states also the payments amounting to £.3,820 2 3, leaving 1. 8,853 13 6. No. 3, states the several balances di the eastern shore on the first of Janua hundred and ninety-two, as far as ret made, amounting to £.8,532 18 01.

abilince of L. 41754 II I due. No. 4, states the several halances several sheriffs and clerks on the eastern ing to L. 3.939 18 22. It also states of f. 2,124 to 112 due. It therefore there has been received from the coll shores, for taxes due since the first of teen hundred and eighty-three, the fun 7 31, and from the theriffs and clerks for fines, forfeitures, &c. &c. the fun 96, amounting to f. 18,294 16 92. No. 5, contains a list of bonds take miles made by the late agent with se amounting to f. 2,039 8 8 principal. No. 6 and 7, contain a list of bonds, of November, seventeen hundred at amounting to £. 2,490 1 3. No. 8, contains a list of bonds taken property not heretofore fold, amountil 1902. Your agent begs leave here there yet remains conficated property fold, that will amount to a confideral he has delayed making sale of, owing not being completed, so as to alcert made by fundry debters on open acco quantity of acres. No. 9, contains a list of bonds, &c. bleated property which was formerly which the purchasers were released, the agent, amounting to f. 9,465 11 4 No. 10, contains a lift of bonds tak talled under the present instalment law (18,694 14 6 principal, with interfrom the different periods expressed in Your agent begs leave to express a g the confidence reposed in him by the will be always happy to give any in power, respecting the business intrust your Honours may wish.

RANDOLPH B. LATIN November 24th, 1792.

By order of the chancellor, will be highest bidder, on Thursday the 10th nat, at the dwelling house of B near Bladensburg, for the benefit of CUNDRY negro SLAVES, of di ages, together with many articl utenfils and household furniture. To made known on the day of fale.

W 6 THOMAS DUCKE N. B. The creditors are requested to HAVING engaged a careful you and affift me in my school for I give this public notice, that we will language, and give a very good b Greek, at the rate of four guineas] tention will be paid to the moral im Youth intrusted to our care, and be apon reasonable terms for fix fruall b where the school will be fall continue HATCH

Prince-George's county, November