VER, confiding of PIQUSELOLD GOODS. CORNELIUS SHRIVER, Adm'r.

A Man Cook To be HIRED or SOLD. Enquire of the Printers, Annapolis, 8th January, 1793 A. J. John Jon

THE subscriber propoles, in the entuing spring, to have a number of STAVES, of different kinds, made on his land, fituated about eight miles from George-town, and five from Bridge-town, at the head of Chester, Kent county, in this state, and about eight miles from Duck creek, in the state of Delaware. He wishes to put the business into the hands of a careful and experienced person, who is to procure such workmen under him as may be necessary, can give good security, if required, for any engagements he may enter into, and will prepare the STAVES for whatever market they are intended for, at his own expence. He would prefer paying the person he contracts with a certain proportion of the net profits arising from the sale of the staves, to giving a fixed price. As some parts of the timber will not answer pounds sterling, on each share, is required to be paid for staves, but may suit for ship-building, he means to William Hartshorne, treasurer for the company, on to have such parts prepared for that purpose. Any or before the first day of March next. The subscribers person inclined to undertake the business, is requested are reminded that the call of eight pounds sterling, and the 10th day of March next.

He will also dispose of a number of TREES, standing, if a generous offer is made. WALTER DULANY.
