THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, December 23, 1792.

ORDERED, That the feveral refolves expressing our fenie of the necessity of our senators exerting themselves to procure the opening the doors of the senate of the United States, our disapprobation of one of ou senators having heretofore opposed this sense, and our right of instructing them, with the vote of the house of delegates, and the endorsements of the senate, be published four weeks in the Maryland Gazette, Mary land Journal, and Maryland Herald, with the year and nays thereon.

By order, W. HARWOOD, Clk.

By the House of Delegates, December, 22, 1792. RESOLVED, That is is the opinion of this general allembly, that we are the immediate constituents of the senators representing this state in the senate of the United States, and that as such we have the undoubted right of instructing them whenever we shall think it ecellary.

RESOLVED, That we do disapprove of the conduct f one of our senators aforesaid in acting in direct opposition to our instructions given at November session, Teventeen'hundred and ninety-one.

RESOLVED, That it is the opinion of this general assembly, that the opening the doors of the senate of the United States, when fitting in their legislative cacity, will greatly promote that confidence in the measures, of the general government so essential to the prosperity of the union.

RESOLVED, That it is the opinion of this general Membly, that every exertion ought to be made by our lenators aforesaid, at the present session, to obtain this destrable object.
