To the PUBLIC. For Establishing a Circulating Library In the City ANNAPOLIS.

March 7, 1793.

THE utility of so extensive a library, as this is proposed to be, for profit and pleasure, as well for the citizens as the students at this grand seminary of learning, needs no comment.

It is proposed that books shall be purchased, to compose the library, in Europe, to the amount of 1000 guineas, that they shall consist of the latest editions of law, physic, divinity, hiltory, science, essays, and works of eminent writers, purchased to the best advantage, and the librarian shall covenant to add to the library books to the amount of ten guineas cost annually, at his own expence, such as the trustees shall think proper to direct.

There shall be roo subscribers at ten guineas each, of the library, and each of the subscribers shall be entitled, for the laid subscription, to read the books of the library for ten successive years. Every subscriber shall have the privilege of transferring his interest in the library at any time.

The library shall be duly attended by Joseph Clark, his heirs or alligns.

The books purchased shill be the property of the subscribers for the ten successive years; at the end of that period they shall become the property of Joseph Clark, his heirs or assigns. A compensation for ten years services as agent and librarian.

The terms that the subscribers shall be furnished with books from the library, and all other business relative thereto, shall be by the direction of a comannually rechosen from among the fubscribers by a majority of their voices.

A room shall be sitted up, and taken care of, in the city of Annapolis, at the expence of the librarian, sufficiently commodious to contain all the books, for the use of the subscribers. A printed catalogue shall be prepared for each subscriber

A general catalogue, to be made out by the first appointed truitees, shall be as far as possible comp'eted. Several gentlemen have suggested the following addition to the above proposals: After the subscription is made up and the trustees

W. ALLEIN. Raleigh's Plant, March, 1792. 36

In CHANCERY, March 1, 1793. RDERED, That the report of Clement Smith. trustee for sale of a tract of land in Calvert county, called HALL's CRAFT, the property of Clement Smith, deceased, be approved, and that the sale by him made, as stated in the said report, be approved, ratified and confirmed, unters cause to the contrary be shewn, on or before the first Tuesday in May next; provided a copy of this order be inserted in the Maryland Gazette three weeks successively before the twelfth day of April next. Ordered likewise, that the creditors of the said Clement Smith, deceased, have public notice to exhibit their claims, with the vouchers thereof, to the chancellor, on or before the faid first Tuesday of May next, and that the publication as aforesaid of this order be considered as notice. SAMUEL HARVEY HOWARD,

Reg. Cur. Can. HE subscriber proposes, in the ensuing spring, to have a number of STAVES, of different kinds, made on his land, fituated about eight miles from George-town, and five from Bridge-town, at the head of Chester, Kent county, in this state, and about eight miles from Duck-creek, in the state of Delaware. He wishes to put the business into the hands of a careful and experienced person, who is to procure such workmen under him as may be necessary. can give good security, if required, for any engagements he may enter into, and will prepare the STAVES for whatever market they are intended for, at his own expence. He would prefer paying the person he contracts with a certain proportion of the net profits arising from the sale of the staves, to giving a fixed price. As some parts of the timber will not answer for staves, but may suit for ship-building, he means to have such parts prepared for that purpose. Any person inclined to undertake the business, is requested to make known his proposals, in writing, between this and the 10th day of March next. He will also dispose of a number of TREES, standing, if a generous offer is made. WALTER DULANY.
