(XLVIIIth YEAR.) MARYLAND, GAZETEE.

RGE-TOWN 4 ing trees of choice thereof is a deliab ew of the river Pa This lot contains upon a main med m the city of Walk.

LIVERPOOL, January 5.

aris on Tuesday, and Monsieurs Noel will leave us lutive right of fishing and hunting.

vell issued from this coal.

om every heart capable of humane feelings.

derical concluded with the following words, uttered

For propagating doctrines fraught with evil,

Thy body seeks the flames, thy soul the devil!

provoked the resentment of all poaceable and well diswhich their prophet, priest and king, was treated.

the principles and temper of the body.

also been published in Ireland.

in an audible tone-

nd the duke of Penthievre.

a few days.

confisting of three ne mile north of the fourteen lots in s, and bounds with thereof are in wood ground. This loving dering waters of the fall of 21 feet, and ent building kone. ions for houses. es, and bounds with acres of wood, and Town are at that end to the city of Walh. and beautiful litus.

a house as a country at 7s. 6d. is £.7000 of land at £. 20 per 2140 0 0 1680 0 0 780 0 0 akins, Benjamia Stalon Threlkeld, and Saown. George Walker, allace and Muir, and very valuable loss of ashington, whole inith the growth of the of America-Hence, definition, it will be one Guinea a valuable be obtained in the vi-; or a lot in a town front of the Exchange, where a chimney-sweeper marcherce.

ring this Lottery in day in May next, or d, which he flatter is present prospect. will immediately be ne money for the can Notice will be given pers, and a lift of the mediately published. een at Mr. George Mestrs. Wallace and s, and Mr. Geurge TAS BOUCHER.

11 be given, by the eral buildings, or by them, at their office ry of April to the first ments and allotments INGTON. The prove been conveyed in assembly, concerning an embargo upon all ships or vessels laden within the city of Washington, the deeds in trutt of ed to attend, that alement; for the com-May, will proceed to he directions of the The other proprieton s will issue after me neir lands valued, I he usual terms before of fuch, proprietors with Mr. Thomas

Archibald Robinh Mr. David Crus GANTT, Clerk commissioners! 792-gainst every member of the Bourbon fingular manner, terrified the spectators. The officers of the decision of the national convention. family, except those confined in the of the place immediately put the captain of the vessel By the leveral arrivals of last week from Europe and arent minister lett. Monsieur Maret returned to sence a sew days besore. BOSTON, February 27. Extract of a letter from the Cape of Good Hope.

The national convention of France have passed a "The Dutch company have lent commissioners to ecree, that in all the countries which are or shall be ccupied by their armies, the generals shall immediate- this place, who have made alterations in the governproclaim, in the name of the republic, the abolition ment, which will considerably affect the trade of it. other object to operate upon, than their own internal former contributions, of nobility, of stature labour, The inhabitants have leave to own ships, which they discontents. endal, casual, and manorial rights, real and personal may sit out as whalemen, or send to any part of India, Accounts from Cape-François, say that the negroes rvitude, tythes, and all privileges, and of the ex- except the Molucca islands; but no foreigners are al- were coming in every day, and affairs wore a very lowed to dispose of any merchandise here, or to pur- peaceable aspect: But we are sorry to mention, that No less than eighteen bishops of the catholic church chase any thing from the inhabitants, except the pro- the situation of the country about Port-au-Prince, is France, are now resident in England. ductions of the Cape."

A very rich seam of coal was discovered on Wed- War between France and Great-Britain is, in Eu- sired. elday last, at St. Catharine's, within three miles of rope, deemed inevitable. At the date of our last ac- Letters from Ireland mention, that " there is a dinburgh. The petroleum of the famous Balm- counts, the utmost warlike preparations were making prospect of very troublesome times in that island the in England.—Particularly a large fleet, which was ensuing spring and summer. The people are inces-The devastation at sea, by the late stormy weather getting in readiness to sail for the West-Indies under santly crying for liberty, a grant of more equal rights, tremendous. Many vessels have been stranded, or the command of the duke of Clarence. The general and a more tolerable means of subsistence than is at stally swallowed up by that devouring element, and expectation of the English is, that the French illands present the case among the body of the people; the he details of distress suffered by the surviving mari- will prove an easy conquest to the British arms, owing lower classes of Irish being universally allowed by all ers is such, as to claim the tear of commiseration to the disaffection of the planters to the new order of travellers to be the most oppressed of any people in things in France, and to the insurrections which have Europe, and that in one of the most fertile islands in omputed, that the losses during the last week only, treaty of alliance between France and the United have armed and accounted themselves in the north, and n ships insured there, amount to 200,000l. One ship, States, stipulating that, in case the French islands thirteen thousand in and about Dublin. Their generom London to Hamburg, lost near Crookhaven, was should be attacked by a foreign enemy, the United ral badge is the cap of liberty, and a motto, expressive worth 30,000l. and another ship, from Amsterdam to States should furnish a subsidy of five thousand men, of the genuine wish of every honest Hibernian to be lamburg, principally laden with the remnants of the to be paid, fed, and cloathed by France. Should the freed from the domination of kings and royalifts, property of the French emigrants who fought refuge British therefore attack those islands, the United States whose glory is founded on the basis of oppression, and cannot remain entirely neuter-although policy dic- to maintain the splendour of whose families and sateln Flanders, and worth 40,000l. it is feared are lost. tates neutrality. On Saturday afternoon last an elegant dressed effigy, ittle after five o'clock the cavalcade proceeded to the We hear that colonel Ebenezer Sproat, of Marietta, ed up in solemn form to the malefactor, as the mock lergyman who was supposed to attend him-After is appointed adjutant-general in the army of the Uteming to converse with him for some time, the sooty nited States,

We learn from Europe, that the house of Hope, f the great and mighty THOMAS PAINE, Eiq; membet of the national convention of France, and former- and another reputable banking-house in Amsterdam, y a staymaker and exciseman in England, was carried have purchased the whole debt due to France, by the n much state through most of the principal streets in United States; and that the funds of the United States his town, attended by drums, fifes and colours. A were rifing.

PITTSBURGH, March 2.

And that brigadier-general Putnam has resigned. ter had left this town for Fort Franklin, &c. We, age. Her offspring are ten children, 84 grand chilhowever, understand he is at Legionville, and pre- dren, 222 great grand children, and sourteen of the He was then set on fire amidst the loud huzzas of the sume, from the accounts which we hear has been re- fifth generation—total 330. populace, who chose that method as the most expres- ceived from the Cornplanter, it will be most prudent tharacter who has so justly merited the detestation and time.

PHILADELPHIA, March 9. poled people. A few groans of disapprobation broke dated January 31, to bis friend in Boston.

not forbear feeling some distress at the indignity with The rife of sugar is occasioned by the plantations Dublin has been formed under the name of friends to have been heretofore peaceable, till within these ten gone. the constitution, liberty, and peace. They held their days past; and now there is a general insurrection first meeting at the King's-Arms tavern, Fownes's- throughout this part of the island—there marched out freet, on Friday last, his grace the duke of Leinster yesterday 1500 men, and 400 light-horse; since which in the chair, when they agreed on an address to the there has not been any accounts of their progress; but lief-otherwise, we shall have a had summer. I have people of Ireland-which breathes a spirit at once of there has been an incessant firing kept up all day- just returned from Lexington, where I had an opporpatriotism and moderation that reflects high honour on nothing further to acquaint you of, only that business tunity of hearing the people's opinion of the war, and is itagnated, and American produce twenty per cent. it is supposed, by the best judges, that, with proper

A proclamation has been issued in Ireland, laying cheaper than at Boston !" ports of the kingdom of Ireland, with corn, flour, fince talked of as about to take place foon; we have It is high time that a decifive stroke was made." meal, malt, beef, pork, tallow, or any other naval lately heard, through a very respectable channel, and stores. The said embargo, however, does not extend communicate it with pleasure, that he is not to re-[Gen. Adv.]

A proclamation similar to that in this country, forhabitants. bidding, the exportation of arms or ammunition, has tempted to introduce weapons of affaffination into A fleet of small vessels was equipping at Toulon, in- In Guadaloupe their only wish is to be taken under the tended, it was generally believed, for an attack on British government. great number of chefts, which the captain declared to the probable iffue of the king's trial; but the most cole, from Nantes, bound to Charleston; she sprung a were full of scythes to be used in the woods. One of general opinion was, that final judgment would be re- leak, and must unload to repair, these chests having slips from some of the people, who ferred to, and be passed upon him by the primary as. Iz. Put in here in distress, having carried were unloading them, broke by its fall, and a quanti-semblies—Apprehensions were entertained for his life, away her mast, the American sloop Bliza, Jeremiah were unloading them, broke by its fall, and a quanti-semblies—Apprehensions were entertained for his life, away her mast, the American sloop Bliza, Jeremiah ty of sword blades fell out. This discovery led them from the well known anti-royal propensity of the X HE national convention, we learn, to open the others, where, instead of scythes, they Parisians. It was however hoped, that the forces ashave, after a most violent debate, con- found sabres, pogniards, and every species of destruc- sembled in the capital from several departments, would firmed the decree of banishment a- tive instruments, many of which being made in a be sufficient to preserve order and secure the execution temple. The persons affected by this into irons, as well as the merchant to whom this the West Indies, the intelligence communicated to us dict are the duke and dutchess of Orleans and their strange cargo was addressed; and they seized the may be comprised in a few words. When the last hildren, the prince of Conti, the dutchess of Bourbon, whole. Some days prior to this, a French hair-dref- ship left Liverpool, things were in nearly the same fer had been stopped, who was hawking about as a situation as has been represented by the accounts al-It seems as though there was no mode of accommo- pedler, papers of an incendiary nature. These letters ready published—no declaration of war by Greatation lest betwixt this country and France. The mention also, that two other hair-dressers from the Britain against France, although haval preparations rench effective agents are recalled, and only an ap- same place, were taken up at Madrid for a similar of- were going forward with vigour.

By letters from Holland to this city, it is said that the Dutch have compromised with the French and confented to the opening of the Scheldt; and that an amicable treaty was on the carpet; if this should be the fact, and that the Dutch and French are become allies, the armaments of Great-Britain will have no not yet in so tranquil a situation as could be de-

The late high winds have been very bitterly felt by raged in many of them. ome of the gentlemen of Lloyd's coffee-house. It is If our recollection serves, there is an article in the demand of more equal rights, fifteen thousand men lites (the nobility) the face of the earth is literally bathed with tears." We hear from New-York, that a very sudden and terrible hurricane of wind happened there on the 5th instant. It blew first from north, and soon asterwards N. W.—Several boats that were on the oyster banks were unfortunately lost in scudding before this tornado; the whole number of people drowned is not yet ascertained, eight are known to be loft, who have mostly lest distressed families.

Died at Groton, in Connecticut, on the 19th of February, Mrs. - Smith (relict of Nathan Smith, In a former paper we mentioned, that colonel Proc- Equire, late of that town) in the 88th year of her

A few days since Mr. Lazarus Beach (of Connectilive they could devise to testify their contempt for a for him to delay his visit to that quarter for some, cut) presented to the Museum in New-York, a quire of paper, made at his paper mill in the town of Danbury, which the hottest fire would not consume.

Advices from Martinico and Guadaloupe say, that involuntarily forth, from a few individuals who could Extract of a letter from a gentleman at Port-au-Prince, the governors of both those islands have fled, and taken with them a seventy-four gun ship, a frigate of. forty guns, a floop of war of twenty guns, and several An affociation of the most respectable characters in being set on sire, and a revolt of the negroes, who tenders. It is not known to what quarter they are Extrast of a letter from Mason county, Kentucky, Januaor If an early campaign takes place we shall find reencouragement, an army of zooo of the best woods-The refignation of Mr. Jefferson was some time men in the state may be brought to action this summer.

BERMUDA, December 22.

By the last accounts from Martinique, we find they. with oats or oatmeal for exportation, to any port in . At the celebration of the prefident's birth-day, in were in the greatest confusion imaginable there owing Great-Britain, or to any vessel laden with any of the Salem, Massachusetts, a subscription was proposed for to the rage of the two parties; one day, they are for before-mentioned articles to be carried coastways from the relief of imprisoned debtors; but on inquiry it the old constitution; the next, they alter, and commit any port in Ireland to any other port in the same king- was found that there was not one in the country of Es- the most daring outrage, by putting to death, by the (ex.—That county contains nearly fixty thousand in- most excruciating tortures, many worthy characters.— Two of their priests were tied to horses lately, and by March 13. Captain Amiot, who left Cette, a French that means torn to pieces .- The priests among the port in the Mediterranean, about the middle of French, who used to be held in the greatest venerati-Private letters from Bilboa, of the 15th of Decem- January, Informs, that naval warlike preparations were on, are now perfecuted and murdered every where.ber, inform us, that the French Jacobins had at- going on with great activity in the fouthern scaports. Fifteen hundred persons lately escaped to Dominique.

A vessel from France arrived there, laden with a the island of Sardinia. Sentiments were divided as Dec. 29. Put in here the brig Brutus, captain La-