By his Excellency THOMAS SIM LEE, Equire, GOVERNOR OF MARYLAND, AROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS a proclamation has been issued by the President of the United States, setting forth, that it is the duty and interest, and declaring it to be the disposition, of the United States to observe a triendly and impartial conduct towards the several European powers now at war, and further exhorting and warning the citizens of the faid United States to avoid all acts and proceedings tending to contravene such disposition: And, whereas the secretary of state, in communicating a copy of the atoresaid proclamation, has intimated the expectation and reliance of the President of the United States, that injunctions so interesting to the happiness and prosperity. of this country, will have the aid of the executive power towards their general and strict observance by the citizens of this state; I have therefore, with the advice and consent of the council, thought fit to issue this my proclamation, earnestly exhorting the good people of this state to observe the peaceable and impartial conduct recommended as aforesaid by the Prein discouraging all proceedings that may be inconfistent with the pacific disposition announced as afore-which this country at present enjoys.

By his excellency's command,

T. JOHNSON, jun. clk. council.
