conspiracy will break out there, which may ruin the and ingenious counterfeit of dollars, bearing date, who shall affaffinate general Dumourier. our intended amballador to the Ottoman Forte, and pected to be contended, North-Carolina, connected bleffings of life than the licentious tyranny of the was supposed to have long ago reached Constanti- from a strong party in North-Carolina, connected bleffings of life than the licentious tyranny of the nople, has remained for some time past in Corsica, with two or more persons in Petersburg. During the four months which he has resided there, the courts of Petersburgh and Vienna, have, it is said, prevailed on that of Constantinople to continue LONDON, April 19. The city of Liege has paid the contribution of 600,000 florins, of which fum, the prince of Saxe Cobourg has fent 76,000 dollars to the duke of Bruni-don, on a secret embassy from the emperor. The that county is shipped.) The governor has been sending this gentleman at the present crisis, while taking measures for our security, but our ultimate rethere is an Imperial minister at our court, occasions a liance must be upon federal aid, which I hope will be

It appears probable that the count de Merci's embaffy to this court is on one or other of these motives; or, probably on bothder the command of his royal highness the duke of Speedwell, captain Berry, of eight guns and fixty York; and whether it is to act separately or under the men, and boarded by an officer and fix men off Henorders of the prince de Cobourg; or, zdly, (what is eaga, who kept poffession of the vessel about four still more likely) to negotiate with our ministry, hours, in search of French property. They informed whether in case the French Netherlands are reduced captain Smith, that they captured the schooners Anne, by the Austrian forces, the emperor shall be allowed to retain possession of these after the war-

BRIDGE-TOWN, May 15.

By a vessel from St. Vincent, we learn of the cap- of money. ture of an African ship, by a privateer out of this port, Extract of a letter from London, dated the 12th March. commanded by captain Spelling; the prize was sent into Dominica, has 650 flaves, and 10,000l. worth of East-India goods on board, her value is computed to be at least 80,000l. sterling.

S A L E M, June 4.

on the 3d of May, an English frigate landed some press-against freedom of discussion, and assembling. person at the windward part of Martinique, with in. The probable consequence is, that many friends to formation to the aristocrats, that the English seet liberty, who disdain new restraints, will sly to a Gen. Jackson returned on Sunday last from Beard's would arrive there in a few days, to take the island country that has long been an asylum to the perse- Bluff, and the other frontier posts in Liberty country. under their protection. The aristocrats, in conse- cuted. Of such description is Mr. _____, who We learn, that at the former he affisted at lieutenant quence, armed and embodied themselves and their hands you this, and who, for his personal safety, Clay's command of the sederal troops, in placing the domestic slaves, and took possession of several posts in thinks it necessary to forsake a certainty in England, fort in a state of temporary desence, that officers comthe island, in order to co-operate with the British and to seek to establish himself in business in America. mand being so weak (only fourteen privates, and near the patriots fleeing to St. Pierre and Fort-Royal. Convinced, as I am, of your liberality, I do not heli- 30 miles from the fettlements) as to render it impoli-The fleet, however, had not arrived when captain tate to recommend this gentleman to your attention ble for him to garrison and repair the fort without a Ropes failed, which was on the 7th; it was then at and countenance." Dominica, waiting the arrival of troops from other Extrast of a letter from New Orleans, dated April 21. every third or fourth of them could have been easily islands, to embark on the expedition: the aristocrats were anxious at the delay.

commissioners from the aristocrats for treating with the fifteen, and in some cases twenty-one. Buglish, was on board the above frigate; and that it should have taken possession.

the day before captain Ropes failed; faid to be done military duty, day and night, because reports ran, that by the negroes, which had greatly alarmed the plan- the Indians were within fixty miles of Savanna. ters; and, fearing a further infurrection, the women and children, with their effects, were crowding into in the brig Hiram, we learn, that on the 24th of last Trinity from their plantations.

by a cruel famine. At Cairo the fireets are filled with derable damage to the houses. The fountain, in the dead bodies of the poor wretches who have fallen a Place d'Armes, a folid fabric, was, by its violence, prey to its ravages. The plague has again appeared, on a fudden, at Smyrna.

NEW-YORK. Tune 8. the inauspicious espect of their affairs, fill attain an within a few weeks, fitted out in the port of Newenergy of character, that with all their foibles, must York, said to be intended on a trip to Charleston, and do them honour. As their dangers augment their in not till within a few hours of her failing did she aftrepidity and perseverance seem to encrease-and the sume the appearance of a privateer. On Saturday idea of defeat has not entered the heads of one of the evening, between the hours of nine and ten, the took seven hundred who compose that body; their deter in her ghas and ammunition. The mayor being inmination to be buried in the ruins of their country formed of the circumstance, communicated it to the has the appearance of veracity—and they feem fixed governor, when they both, with laudable zeal, and in prefenting to the aftonished world another instance accompanied by some officers of the peace, pursued command success—it is in their power to do more—to her back. Our informant saw her under a guard, as June 12. We are informed, that on Saturday night last a floop from Hudson, easled the Polly, was arrested by order of the governor. From examination, [The editor of the Mercury, appears to have crowed appeared, that the earried arms, and intended to act as a privateer under a French commission. This matter is now under farther examination-the particulars of which will be given as foon as possible.

It is reported (fays a Bennington paper of May 31 that disturbance has lately taken place in Montreal, That Dusnourier had not formed a junction with the rep between the citizens and the foldiers; the friends of the united armies, acting against France, but had mity." liberty and equality being insulted by the soldiery, re- actually marched at the head of a firmly attached and The sollowing is copied from a London paper of faid, was mortally wounded, and died foon after, narchic power; of placing the dauphin on the throne; Monday laft, respecting generals Miranda, Stinger and be able to confirm it soon.

Antoniette, feature discovered defign of re-establishing the mo"The intelligence which we communicated of placing the dauphin on the throne; Monday last, respecting generals Miranda, Stinger and be able to confirm it soon.

Antoniette, feature discovered defign of re-establishing the mo"The intelligence which we communicated of placing the dauphin on the throne; Monday last, respecting generals Miranda, Stinger and the dauphin of liberating that unhappy friend to America Maria

Antoniette, feature discovered the dauphin of the dauphin of liberating that unhappy friend to America Maria

The city of Life is at present in a state of continual About the 10th ult. was discovered, in the north of raigning the national convention at the tribunal of an article is at present in a state of continual About the 10th ult. was discovered, in the north of raigning the national convention at the tribunal of an article is at present in a state of continual About the 10th ult. was discovered, in the north of raigning the national convention at the tribunal of an article is at present in a state of continual About the 10th ult. alarm. It is much apprehended here that some new Pattsylvania county, near Staunton river, a most artful insulted people. 1786, 1790, &c. &c. It was effected by a thin piece auxiliaries, crowding to his standard from all parts of republic.

In the fitting of the municipality on the 6th, the of copper, reduced to a circle and plated over, after France, who cordially offered themselves to share his In the fitting of the municipality on the one, the council general decreed a civic reward to any citizen which a foldered rim of filter, less than the fixteenth fortunes in an enterprise, which was now become the council general decreed a civic reward to any citizen which a foldered rim of the cause of liberty itself: as the impression of the cause of liberty itself: as the cause of liberty itself: of an inch, prepared it for the impression of the cause of liberty itself: as the caprice of lateratic a who shall affassinate general Humourier.

Of an inch, prepared it wernment, under whose rigours France had groated were informed from Marfeilles, that Semonville, moulds and hammer. Hight or ten persons are informed from Marfeilles, that Semonville, moulds and hammer, their implements but too long, rendered more informed from Marfeilles, that Semonville, moulds and hammer. We are informed from warreness, that semontale, moulds and naminer, and peded to be concerned, who get their implements but too long, rendered more infecure the common our intended ambassador to the Ottoman Porte, and peded to be concerned, Whoseh Carolina, connected blessings of life than the list of the common of the common connected blessings of life than the list of the common connected blessings of life than the list of the common connected blessings of life than the list of the common connected blessings of life than the list of the common connected blessings of life than the list of the common connected blessings of life than the list of the common connected blessings of life than the list of the common connected blessings of life than the list of the common connected blessings of life than the list of the common connected blessings of life than the list of the common connected blessings of life than the list of the common connected blessings of life than the list of the common connected blessings of life than the list of the connected blessings of life than the list of the connected blessings of life than the list of the connected blessings of life than the list of the connected blessings of life than the list of t

These counterfeits are circulating very freely in several counties round. They are said to have also counterfeited all the gold coins, from half a guinea to a doubloon.

PHILADELPHIA, June 11. Extract of a letter from a gentleman in Savanna, dated May 22.

"Our frontiers have been attacked lately in several quarters by the Indians. Eleven negroes were taken The Fernigs, two female warriors and aids de- about a fortnight fince from colonel Saunders's, which camp to Dumourier, have followed the fortunes of is within fix miles of North Newport bridge. (North Newport bridge is near the middle of Liberty county, The count de Merci is every day expected in Lon- and from whence the greatest part of the rice made in great deal of conjecture among politicians, as to the readily afforded after the frequent ineffectual measures tune. But his faithful army of veterans, who had exobject of his miffion. them and us."

Captain Smith, of the brig Aurora, in nineteen days from Port-au-Prince, informs, that on the 25th To arrange the plan of operations of the army un- of May, the was chafed by the British privateer cutter brave leader in the profecution of a plan, which to of Philadelphia, and the Regulator, of Baltimore, captain White, from Jeremie, to this port, under pretence of having French property and passengers on board. In one of these vessels was a considerable sum

Wou can be no stranger to the rapid advance made by the present administration of this country towards despotism; nor am I, perhaps, telling you any thing new, when I say their impositions on the confidence and understandings of men have so well suc- several other circumstances. ceeded as to have formed, in almost every parish in Captain Hardy Ropes, from Trinity, informs, that the kingdom, an affociation against the liberties of the

. . I am informed that the Americans are allowed to bring their produce down the Missisppi to this place, It was said, that the ehevalier Dubuc, one of the on paying a duty of fix per cent. which was formerly was stipulated, that the trade of the island with Ame. Mark's, and last from Savanna, in nine days, brings garrison has not been augmented. rica should be continued as usual, after the English further accounts of the incursions of the Indians into the state of Georgia, and that the militia were all on Captain Ropes heard at St. Eustatia, that a French severe duty. General Jackson, with his usual spirit 1792, the lantern of the light house on Tybee 100k fleet had arrived at Martinique; if this be fo, it will and patriotifm, had marched out with a strong party probably frustrate the expedition of the British sleet, to repel the savages. In the interim, the people of A large rich fugan plantation was burnt at Lamentin, Savanna were fo much alarmed as to perform firich

By passengers arrived yesterday from Cape-François, month, and two days following, a violent earthquake Egypt, fays a Constantinople account, is desolated was experienced in that town, which had done confithrown down and destroyed. When the brig sailed, the zeth, the weather portended further mischief.

algentleman, who left New-York on Monday morning faft, gives us the following account of a re-The national convention of France, notwithstanding cent transaction in therecity-A small vessel had been, that " although it is not in the power of mortals to the veilel, which had fet fail, overtook her and brought he crossed the North river.

> From the (Boston) Mercury of the 7th instant. too 100n.

DUMOURIER'S POLITICAL REGENERATION. Captain Barker, who arrived here last evening, in seven days from St. Peters, with three families, has personally communicated the following information:

That, on his route, he was reinforced by voluntary

That the causes which induced the desection of Dumourier, and which attached to him the affection of his army, originated in the imbecile and suspicion operations of the convention, who had repeatedly neglected to pay attention to Dumourier's ure ters, requesting them to furnish his distressed to with a more liberal supply of cloathing and food want of which their spirits were depressed, and their limbs emaciated; the immediate consequence of the enervation of the army was the check of the French arms, at which the convention were to exafter with Dumourier, to whole treachery they print and imprudently attributed the event, that they trans ported with revenge by the clamorous enthuliam the mountain, dispatched six commissioners to arrest the unfortunate general for the perpetration of the blackest crime, in the view of a Jacobin-Mistor intrepidity could not command the smile of formule with this noble fentiment they resolved to follow their could avoid the shipwreck of anarchy and faction. The FRENCH FLEET.

Captain Barker further informs, had taken possession of Sardinia, and were ranging the Mediterranean sea; the English fleet, consisting of fitteen of the line joined by a Spanish armament of twelve ships, were cruifing after this dreaded maritime foe: A navalengagement has probably, ere this, taken place. FRENCH PORTS.

That a violent party spirit was predominant in feveral-and that, from the distressed situation of the people, three principal ports in France were compelled to furrender to the English for protection. As we did not obtain the names of the above ports, we omit

One of the Liverpool banks it is faid, stopped payment for two millions of money.

SAVANNA, May 23. considered, being in fact the chief station for desence of the most exposed and valuable, as well as the westest part of the state, it raises our wonder that more at June 13? The brig Betsey, captain Byrd, from St. tention has not been paid to its situation, and that its Notice to Mariners. That on Thursday morning the 8th of November, which unfortunate accident no light can appear to some time. Directions are received for repairing the damages, and the work will be proceeded upon with all possible expedition.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman in Richmond, to his friend in Philadelphia, dated 7th Jun. "The federal judges have, this day, delivered in opinion upon the great question of British debu, w was unanimous for the payment. Grillin and dell were for substantiating the payments of paper ney into the trealury - lay was of a contrary opinion and the latter gave one of the most able decisions ever heard delivered and, to difinterested perions conceive fatisfactory and conclusive."

Letter from general Dampierre (at present successor to Dumourier) to the national convention of France, written before his nomination to be commination chief of the northern army:--" Finding the men n danger, I have taken fuch extraordinary meaning I hope will meet your approbation. I wanted your standard as much as possible the troops good citizens, to counteract the deligns of a training ware has now thrown off the mask, I dispatch to citizen Tardie, an officer of enginery; he has been witness to all the intrigues of Dumourier and his circle, and of all that horrid scene of villainy of those he entertained about him were capables let you into a full knowledge of all this dark him It is my wish to fave my country—I wait with imp tience for your assistance and protection. I offer of felf because I see no other general that will come ward. When a superior is appointed that has country's falvation at heart, and the independence the republic, I will obey his orders to the last exter-doubt, that they had fuffered on the fame advices state, that Santerre, th general of Paris, has been appointed chief of the French armies. It is al Conde has surrendered to the Austria nes is regularly invested. On the was arrested, in consequence of a dec onal convention, and committed to Abbaye."

Agrecable to the last will and testam RET JARBOE, late of St. Mary's c will be fold, at public fale, on the

August next, VERY valuable TRACT of Half-Pone Neck, in faid co about ninety acres. The aforesaid none inferior to any land in St. Mar on a creek known by the name of adjoining the land of Philip Read, la deceased, on the one side, and the land Esq; on the other fide. The terms of mown on the day of fale. Poffessie the purchaser at Christmas next, but Berty of feeding the same this fall,

> JOHN R. JARBO JOSEPH JARBOR June 6, 1793.

AKEN up adring near Hack BOAT, about fifteen feet kee stern, " John, of New-Providence may have her again by proving proj charges, on application to JOHN GR

AKEN up adrift, at the Boo BOAT, about eight feet ke bolts, and has a piece split off her fl may have her again by proving pro charges, on application to BASIL

Bodkin creek, June 18, 1793.

Twelve Dollars R D AN away from the subscriber, Tobacco, in Charles county, November last, a negro woman nas about seventeen years or thereabout her her child called LiZ, about to She is about five feet eight or there full mouth, and her under lip hangs ftomach the has a lump raised about ounce ball. It is probable she n Butler, and pais as a free woman. the aforesaid negroes to me, or sec so that I get them, shall receive the EDWARD STO

June 12th, 1793.

Robert Johns HAS FOR SALE, at On the Dock Excellent West-India and N

RUI

In Casks of Five, Ten, Fisteen, an cach, ver fanyenient and fuitable which he will fell uncommonly le N. B. Seasoned PLANK and may always be had at his LUMBEF

Annapolis, A LL persons indebted to the ings at his store; are requeste their respective accounts, as the f leaving this place for BALTIMORE three weeks or a month. He likew cere thanks to those who have he their favours.

WILLIAM Ten Dollars R AN away from the subscriber, ent river, Sc. Mary's count May laft, a negro man flave nam seque 32 years of age, five feet i high, tolerably well fet; he had him, when he went away, a blue f firiped filk waiftcoat, a pair of wh a new olnabrig thirt, a new felt has thoes, but he had fundry other clo recollect; he is a very artful fellow trade, and may probably endeavou some vessel, in order to get to the Sp where he has been before with his Athanahus Ford. I have been info ble authority, that he has been in with him a pass to seek for his tree home again. Any person who takes and secures him in any gaol, so that charges if brought home. N. B. All mafters of weffels are him off at their peril, also all other bouring or employing him.

St. Mary's county, June 8, 179

shall be entitled to the above rewa