to the commissioners. Extract of an act of the general affembly of Mayland, " concerning the territory of Columbia and the city of Washington."

Be it enadled, That any foreigner may by deed w will, hereafter to be made, take and hold lands within state, in the same manner as if he was a citizen of this state; and the same lands may be conveyed by him, and transmitted to, and he inherited by his heirs of relations, as if he and they were citizens of this state: Provided, That no foreigner shall, in virtue hereof, P entitled to any other or further privilege of a citizen.

For SALE,

LARGE quantity of SHIP TIMBER, which I will dispose of by the tree or frame. I have employed a number of hands to cut plank and get knees. Any person wanting the above articles may be supplied, by giving reasonable notice. The subscribes will oblige himself, for a moderate price, to hale the timber to the landing, which is a good one for veffels to take it off. The best judges allow this timber to be equal to any in the state. There are two places within mile and an half or two miles from this that are well calculated for the purpose of ship building, and where several ships have been built.
