have installed their debts, owing, I apprehend, in many cases, to the time of payment having escaped their memory, and wishing to prevent any unnecessary expence to the parties concerned,-I have thought proper respectfully to notify, that a second instalment, and one year's interest, become due on the first day of December next, and that execution will issue immediately thereafter against every delinquent.

RANDOLPH B. LATIMER, Agent for the state of Maryland.

T TPON the death of doctor LEONARD HOLLY-DAY, and LEONARD HOLLYDAY, junior, both lately of Prince-George's county, I find myself answerable and liable to pay large sums of money, for which I entered into bonds with the deceased, to remove several judgments into the court of appeals and into the court of chancery. The whole or greater part of the debts due on these bonds, I have reason to believe are not satisfied, moreover there are bonds in which I am bound, that I know are not paid. Therefore I give this public notice, that I intend to petition the next general affembly, to empower me or some other person or persons, to sell, forthwith, so much of the real and personal estates of the deceased, which they died possessed of, as will pay all the debts due from the deceased, in which I am bound to pay, and judgments have been obtained. I request the favour of all who have claims on the bonds that I am a party in with the deceased aforementioned, to notify to me by letters, as foon as they can, what are the balances due on every and each bond, and they may be affured that I will take the most effectual and speedy measures to discharge such balances.
