M. and J. B. Beard's-Point, October 26th, 1793-

LL persons having balances due them on tobac? co, shipped to the address of Messieurs WIL-LIAM ANDERSON and Co. of LONDON, per my procuration, are desired to take notice, that it is necessary their bills on faid company should be endorsed by me, or they will not be paid.

All those indebted to said company, for transactions through my agency, are earnestly requested to make immediate payment; and, in order to accommodate fuch as may find it more convenient to discharge their balances at Elk-Ridge-Landing, during the present inspection of tobacco, they will please to take notice, that I have furnished Mr. EDWARD GWINN with a list of balances, and copies of each person's account, who is authorifed to fettle with fuch as may apply.

The subscriber is instructed to require a strict obfervance to this notice, and he flatters himself it will be duly attended to and complied with, without further trouble or delay; but if, contrary to his wish and expectation, it should be neglected, he will be under the disagreeable necessity of commencing suits against all delinquents, without the least discrimination, after the first day of September next.

THOROWGOOD SMITH, Agent and attorney in fact for WIL-LIAM ANDERSON and Co.

July 1, 1793.

INTEND to petition the general affembly at their next meeting, to be allowed for an order of the governor and council, on the western-shore treasurer, of the z6th February, 1781, for f. 382 5 2, which Thomas Harwood, deceased, late collector of Anne-Arundel county, had of me, and he paid the county, as appears on the treasurer's books. PROPOSALS For PUBLISHING a PERIODICAL WORK, to be entitled, The MONTHLY MIRROR; or, MARYLAND MUSEUM.

I. TT shall contain a pleasing varie: of interesting I and entertaining subjects, calcu cted to improve as well as amule the mind. The most approved telections from different authors, both ancient and modern, either of Europe or America, will form a part of this work; likewife, the newest improvements and discoveries that have or may be made, within the prefent century, in each art and science.

II. Extracts from various writers on Religion, Philo-Sopby, Law, Physic, and Divinity, shall also compose a part of this work .- A space will be assigned for the debates of congress—the debates of the British house of commons—a complete register of foreign and domestic news-essays-poetry-marriages-deaths, &c.

III. Farmers, millers, and mechanics, shall be gratified with a particular description of such methods and machinery as are now in use among the most experienced in the above branches of business, in this country and in Europe.

IV. It shall comprise forty-eight oclavo pages, neatly printed, and stitched in blue paper .- Price to subscribers Twenty Shillings per annum; others who purchase will have to pay Twenty-two Shillings and Six-pence, or a Quarter of a Dollar each number.

V. As soon as 400 subscribers are procured, this work shall be put to press, and a number delivered regularly in the first week of every month.* Eight pages will be assigned for ADVERTISEMENTS, which may be of peculiar advantage to the manufacturing and trading part of the community in every state in the union; as it is expected to meet with a general. circulation throughout the continent, and serve as a vehicle of useful information and instruction to every citizen in the United States.

IT is needless to say much in favour of a publication of this nature.—The utility and convenience of a work of this kind must appear obvious to every person the least acquainted with polite literature, and a general knowledge of the world .- It will contribute towards the stock of necessary information, respecting mercantile affairs, manufactures, agriculture, and commerce; and is meant to convey pleasure as well as profit to those who shall patronise this work .-Readers, of every denomination, shall occasionally be furnished with sketches of real life, and the utmost exertions shall be made to render it as useful a publication as any ever attempted in this country.

Subscriptions are taken in by the publisher PHILIP EDWARDS, JAMES RICE, and AMBROSE CLARK, in Baltimore.

The printers throughout the United States are earnestly requested to give these proposals a place in their news-papers, which will very much oblige their most obedient humble servant,

PHILIP EDWARDS. Baltimore, June 28, 1793.

N. B. Those subscribers who live at a distance from Baltimore, shall have their books forwarded by the earliest and cheapest conveyance, but at their own risque and expence.

Half the subscription money to be paid on the delivery of the first number.
