for SALE, a New LOOK. HOGANY KNIFE CASES. LES, and a well toned PIA.

Le fets of PIANO BORTE

J FLUTES of the fifth us.

S and DUETS, for the voice all the favourite operas, &c. orte, Guittar, German Plute, JOHN SHAW. IARPSICHORD MUSIC. 23d, 1793.

DELEGATES, DECEMBER, 3, 1793.

he bill relating to public roads eal the acts of affembly therein names of the counties now in thed three weeks in the Mary. Gazette, Hanfon's George nd ligrald, for the confidence

WM. HARWOOD, Ck. act relating to public roads in this be acts of affembly therein men.

resent modes of repairing the existing laws of this state are equal to the purposes intended. their operation, and it seems of the state and convenience of nore effectual methods, and to power of laying out new roads es; therefore

General Affembly of Maryland, peace for ____ counties. hall and they are hereby emto meet at the court-houses of on the first Monday in March eding year during the continu. stual time of holding their levy h annual meeting to levy, by assessable property within their not exceeding three shillings ry hundred pounds of affessable to be collected as other county be paid to the justices of the levy e applied towards threightening, ng roads, in faid counties; and y five of them, shall have full appropriate the funds arising ne said roads, and to anticipate the said taxes, by permitting, rifor or supervisors to accept of by issuing orders to those by be rendered, to be discounted ctor of his county in discharge ular tax. at the justices of the levy court, application in writing, figned nhabitants of any hundred or ch any roads may pais, to estaor to streighten any old road public road, shall have power at three discreet persons, freecommissioners, to view, survey d, so applied for, and make a id court at their next meeting, h plot or plots, shall examine ice that shall or may be offered road, as returned, and if dife same, or may direct the said and amend the faid plot, and lirect them to mark and bound dingly, and direct a supervisor and improve the same, in the the fame terms, as other roads nd upon completing the same, eemed a public road, and shall other public roads in faid couned to be kept.

ghtening and amending old and cause damage to the proprietors

he fame may pass, and it is reanpensation be made to such prohat whenever any old road shall or direction, or any new road e justices aforesaid, or any five ey are hereby empowered and h the party injured for the s sustained, but if such agreeace, then the said justices thall cted to the theriff of the couno summon and return a jury of men of the faid county, not the party or parties, to be and taid justices, on the premites, said warrant to be expressed, oath, or affirmation if a Quaer, to be administered by some relaid, shall inquire who is or ers of the land over which any nd what damages fuch owner fuffer from the passage of the forefaid, when the faid road is ing or fireightening faid road, ofore laid out, taking into due ences and inconveniences, adges, if any, arifing from such by the improvement of an old one; and fuch theriff thall he jury aforesaid, under their tteffed by his official fignature levy court to be held for the new road thall be made through any building, end be allowed.

figned by faid court in the faid warrants, and every fupervisor, appointed in virtue of this act, shall give bond to the state of Maryland, with good security, in such sum or penalty as the said justices shall require, for the performance of his duty, and such supervisors, so appointed, shall continue to serve as such until a new appointment as aforelaid, by the said justices at their levy courts, and in case of the death, removal, neglect, refusal to act, or misbehaviour of any supervisor to appointed, the faid justices, or any three of them, most convenient, in the recess of the said court, may nofeals, another person in his place to serve for the residue of the time for which said supervisor, so dying, removing, refusing to act, or misbehaving, was originally appointed; and the supervisors, nominated and appointed as aforelaid, shall give bond with security as aforefaid, and shall clear, amend, and keep in good repair, the said public roads within their respective districts, and shall make, amend, and keep in good number of labourers to work on the said public roads, by repealed, so far as relates to Cæcil county. and to hire and employ hories, carts, waggons or other convenient carriages, for the purpole of carrying earth, gravel, stones, timber or other heavy articles, necesfary for amending the faid roads, or making and keeping in repair the said bridges and causeways, and also to agree, at reasonable rates, for and purchase such wood and timber as may be necessary in making such bridges and caufeways.

And be it enacted, That the warrants shall be made out to the supervisors as aforesaid by the clerk of the said court, and by him delivered to the sheriff of the county, within ten days after the said warrant shall be ordered by the said court, and shall be delivered by the said sheriff, to whom the same is directed, within ten days after the said sheriff's receipt thereof, under the penalty of five pounds for each warrant not delivered by the clerk, and the like fum for each warrant received, and not delivered as aforesaid, by the said sheriff, to be recovered before a single magistrate, as in case of small debts out of court, and applied towards clearing and amending the public roads, bridges and causeways, aforesaid. And be it enacted, That if any of the said supervisors shall not well and sufficiently clear and amend the said public roads within his district, within a reasonable time after the same shall be out of repair, or shall not streighten the said public roads as marked and bounded by the commissioners appointed and empowered, when directed by said justices, or shall permit or suffer any fallen trees, or other obstruction, within his power, to remain to lie in or across any of the said public roads, whereby any waggon, cart or other carriage, may be obstructed, for the space of two days together, he having notice thereof, or shall neglect to tall, or cause to be fallen, all dead trees on each side of the faid public roads, whose limbs hang over the said road, ty acres. It lies within about two miles of Port-Toand may, by their falling, injure travellers, or shall bacco-town, and is woodland, containing a good deal suffer any of the bridges or causeways, in his said dis- of timber. It is to be sold for the benefit of the trict, to be out of repair, or in any other manner fail in the performance of the duty of the supervisor of the public roads, after having accepted fuch office, he shall forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding five pounds current money for every offence, to be recovered and applied as aforefaid.

And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the supervisors aforesaid, and any persons to be employed by them, to take and carry away any stones, gravel, or earth, of a firm quality, that may be found on any land adjoining the roads for which the same may be wanted, without leave of the owner, or making him any compensation therefor; Provided, that no stone, quarried or collected by the owner for his own ule, or for sale, shall be so taken or applied, or any enclosure laid open to obtain the same, without the owner or owners leave first being obtained.

And be it enacied, That the said supervisors shall, and they are hereby required, before they begin to threighten, amend, or repair any road within their leveral and espective districts, or to make or repair any bridge or causeway, to give notice, by advertisement fet up at the most convenient, public, and frequented places in such district, in order that the said inhabitants may have an opportunity of hiring labourers to the said supervisor, or labour themselves, in and upon the said roads, bridges, or causeways, and each supervisor shall be allowed a sum not exceeding leven shillings and fix-pence per day for every day he and thall at their levy court, annually, call on the collecter or collectors and the feveral funerallers for the fettlement of all monies levied and affelled for the ule the roads as aforefaid, and in case of neglect or refullet of the faid collectors or supervisors to settle his account and pay the balance due from him or them, country, and the amount of damages therein expressed, shall immediately commence suit for the recovery if any, shall be paid by order of the said court out of thereof, in which no appeal or writ of error shall be the monies to be levied as aforesaid; Provided that no had or brought, nor more than one imparlance shall closed yard, garden or orchard, against the will of the And be it enacted, That it any person or persons shall owner, nor shall any field in which grain, hemp, flax,, presume to alter or change, or in any manner obstruct, tobacco, or other cultivated vegetables be growing, or encroach on any of the faid roads, or on any part be laid open until atter the scalon for collecting and or parts thereof, or out down or destroy, deface, or securing the crop. injure any of the bridges, capseways, boundaries, And be it enacted, That the said justices shall, and marks, or directions therein, such person or persons, they are hereby required, at their aforesaid meetings, being thereof convicted in the county court, shall beat their levy court, every year thereafter, to nominate, fined, at the discretion of the court, in any fum not and by warrant under the hand of the clerk, and leal exceeding five pounds, according to the nature and of the county, appoint he and proper persons to be degree of the offence, and all fines imposed in such supervisors of the public roads in their county, within cases shall be recovered before any justice of the peace such divisions and districts as shall be specified and as- for the county, and appropriated to the purpose of repairing such damages and improving the road, and shall be paid to, and accounted for, by the supervisors of the district wherein such damages shall be sustained. And be it enacted, That in all cases where it shall be deemed necessary by the justices of the levy court of two adjacent counties, divided by water from each other, to keep up bridges heretosore built, or to have new bridges erected over said water, it shall be done at the joint and equal expence of fuch adjoining counties. This act to commence on the first Monday of March next, and continue in force seven years, and until the minate and appoint, by warrant under their hands and end of the next session of assembly which shall happen thereafter, and from and after the aforesaid first Mondry of March next, the act, entitled, An act for the marking of highways, and making the heads of rivers, creeks, branches and swamps, passable for horse and foot, passed at September session, seventeen hundred and four, and the several supplements thereto, and an act to empower the justices of Cæcil county to streighten and amend the public roads in said county, and to levy repair, all such bridges and cauleways as are needful the expences attending the same on the assessable proand requisite to be made and repaired; and to emble perty of said county, passed November session, sethe said supervisors effectually to perform the said du- venteen hundred and ninety-one, except so far as reties, they are hereby empowered, from time to time, to lates to the roads already laid out by the commissioners hire and employ, at reasonable wages, a sufficient of said county, shall cease to be in force, and are here-

> On TUESDAY the 21st instant, will be EXPOSED to SALE, for READY CASH, at Mr. Ross's TAVERN, in Bladensburg, CUNDRY SLAVES, belonging to the estate of GEORGE DIGGES, Elquire, deceased.

THE EXECUTORS. January 1 ft, 1794.

A LL persons who have claims against the estate of Nicholas Worthington, Esquire, late of Anne-Arundel county, deceased, are requested to bring them in legally authenticated, and those who are indebted to said estate are desired to make immediate payment to BRICE JOHN WORTHINGTON, Surviving executor.

December 31, 1793.

NOTICE is hereby given,

HAT the subscriber intends to apply to the next St. Mary's county court, for a commission to mark and bound his part of a tract of land, called BASHFORD MANOR, lying in St. Mary's county, agreeable to an act of affembly, entitled, An act for marking me bounding of lands.

GEORGE CARPENTER. Leonard-Town, December 24, 1793.

To be SOLD, at PUBLIC VENDUE, in Port. Tobacco, on Monday the twenty-seventh day of January next, TART of two TRACTS of LAND, the one called HAWKINS's BARRONS, the other called SICAMY. The parcel to be fold, contains about eighcreditors of FRANCIS WARE, Esquire, sormer sheriff, who will shew the land.

THOMAS A. DYSON, for the truffees of Francis Ware, Esquire. December 19th, 1793.

LL persons having claims against ARCHIBALD JOHNSON, an insolvent debtor, are requested to bring them in legally authenticated, on Monday the 6th day of January next, that they may receive their several distributions, as I shall meet in Port-Tobacco on that day for the purpose of paying them.

JAMES SIMMS, Sheriff of December 9, 1793. X 7 HEREAS the PARTNERSHIP of W. ALLEIN and Son, being, on the 16th November, 1793. their friends and the public in general, that he is now carrying on the manufactory of fnuff, in all its various branches, where they formerly did, when he shall be ready and happy to furnish their friends and the publie, with a quantity of fnuff, upon the shortest hotice, and doubts not but to find a generous public will encourage their country manufactory.

WILLIAM ALLEIN, junior. Raleigh's Plant, Calvert county, December 18th, 1793.

And be it enacted, That the justices aforesaid may, On the second Saturday of next month will be OF-FERED for SALE, at Queen-Anne, TIFTEEN likely young NEGROES; the purchaler to give bond, with approved fecurity, for the purchase money at the end of twelve months. Prince-George's county, December 10, 1794.

WANT PERDI MULATTO YOUTH, from leventeen to be given for one who can be well recommended to honesty and sobriety. Inquire of the PRINTERS!

SACRED MUSIC.

PROPOSALS. For PRINTING, by SUBSCRIPTION,

An ANTHEM,

For PUBLIC or PRIVATE WORSHIP, Composed by Rayner Taylor,

Professor of MUSIC, PHILADELPHIA, lately OR-GANIST OF ANNAPOLIS.

PRICE to SUBSCRIBERS ONE DOLLAR, to be paid at the time of subscribing.

The work will be engraved in the best manner and executed with all possible expedition; will contain about fix pages in folio, and will be delivered to subscribers, by the first convenient opportunity of conveyance. Subscriptions received by the PRINTERS hereof.

By order of the orphans court of Prince-George's county, will be offered for sale, the personal estate of the late ADDISON MURDOCK, on Tuesday the 7th day of January, ONSISTING of about seventy negroes, household furniture, plantation utensils, horses, black cattle, sheep, hogs, and a considerable quantity of Indian corn and fodder. The sale to continue from day to day till all be folds. The terms will be made known at the time of sale. All persons having claims against the estate are requested to bring them in, properly authenticated, to Mr. GARLAND CALLIS, at the Eastern-Branch ferry, who is autorised to settle and pay the fame.

CLEM. BROOKE, Executors.

THAT commodious dwelling HOUSE now is the occupation of captain JAMES THOMAS, in this city. For title and terms apply to F. GREEN.

Annapolis.

And for SALE at this PRINTING-OFFICE, A B O O K,

Which lately made is appearance in England, under

"An Estimate of the Religion of the Fashionable World."

By Miss HANNAH MOORE.

The European edition of this elegant work has fold at Es. the American edition, neatly bound and lettered, at 3/9.

LL persons having just claims against the estate of the late captain JUDSON COOLIDGE, of Prince-George's county, deceased, are requested to bring them in legally authenticated, on or before the first day of March next, that they may be adjusted. and all those who are indebted to the said estate are requested to make immediate peyment, and it is earnestly wished that this notice may be attended to. or suits will be commenced without respect to persons. SAMUEL JUDSON COOLIDGE.

Administrator de bonis non. December 5, 1793.

For Private Sale,

On a Reasonable Credit. THE subscriber's DWELLING PLANTA. TION, containing about nine hundred acres. This valuable estate lies twenty miles below the city Annapolis, on Herring-Bay, and in full view of the Chelapeake. It has the advantage of a fine cove; well flocked with oysters, and for fishing and fowling, I think I may venture to fay, is superior to any other place in the United States; the soil is of excellent quality, equal to any in Maryland. There are two good meadows, and several others may be made without expence. The fituation of this plantation gives it every advantage for raising and fattening stock; it VV and Son, being, on the 16th November, 1793. abounds in locust, mulberry and walnut, and a great dissolved, and neither of them not carrying on the plenty of good oak timber. The subscriber will atsnust business, the subscriber begs leave to inform tend at Mr. Mann's tavern until the twelfth instant, after which time application may be made to him at his own house, or to Mr. Benjamin Galloway, on West-river.

He has likewise for SALE, about four hundred acres of good farming LAND, lying adjoining the above, which he will dispose of on the most reasonable terms. S. L. CHEW. October eth, 1793.

In COUNCIL, Annapolis, December 9, 1793. A NY person inclined to undertake the repairs of that part of the STADT-House apperpriated for the sie of the GENERAL COURT, according to the defigns and plans of Mr. Joseph Chank, architect is requested to land in proposals, scaled up, to the governor and council, on or before the fecond Thursday in January next.