A PROCLAMATION.

WHERBAS I have received information that certain perlons, in violation of the laws, have presumed, under colour of a foreign apphority, to enlist citizens of the United States and others within the state of Kentucky, and have there affembled an armed force, for the purpole of invading and plundering the territories of a atton at peace with the faid United States: And whereas such unwarrantable measures, being contrary quested to republish the above.

teach the world to believe, that the facred standard of to the laws of nations and to the duties incumbent on tranquility of the same, and to involve them in the calamities of war! And whereas it is the duty of the executive to take care that fach criminal proceeding thould be suppressed, the offenders brought to justice, and all good citizens cautioned against measures likely to prove so pernicious to their country and themselves, should they be seduced into similar infractions of the

> I have therefore thought proper to illue this proclamation, hereby folemnly warning every person, not authorifed by the laws, against enlisting any citizen or citizens of the United States, or levying troops, or assembling any persons within the United States for the purpose as aforesaid, or proceeding in any manner to the execution thereof, as they will answer the same at their peril: And I do also admonish and require all citizens to refrain from enlifting, enrolling, or affembling themlelves for fuch unlawful purposes, and from being in any wife concerned, aiding, or abetting therein, as they tender their own welfare, inalmuch as all lawful means will be ftrictly put in execution for securing bedience to the laws and for punishing such dangerous and daring violations thereof:

> And I do moreover charge and require all courts, magistrates, and other officers, whom it may concern, according to their respective duties, to exert the powers in them feverally vested to prevent and suppress all such unlawful assemblages and proceedings and to bring to condign punishment those who may have been guilty thereof, as they regard the due authority of government, and the peace and welfare of the United

One Thousand Dollars Reward.

COME few COUNTERFEIT POST NOTES of the Bank of Maryland, having been lately difovered in circulation, and on tracing the same were found to come from the back parts of Virginia, where they have probably first issued; to avoid imposition, it is thought recollary to give the following description of them, by which they may be readily detected:-

They have the letter D for their alphabetical mark, at the left hand fide of the note.

The paper on which they are printed is more soft and tender, the strokes of the letters in the engraving are in general stronger, and have a darker appearance than in the true bills.

The fignature, Wm. Patterson, is badly done; the strokes of all the letters are stiff and laboured, and appear to be painted over with the pen, as well as the flourish under the name.

The value is left blank in the engraving, to be filled plealure.

No true Post Notes of the alphabetical mark above described, have been lately issued, and very few are now in circulation.

The above reward of ONE THOUSAND DOL-LARS will be paid to the person or persons who shall discover and prosecute to conviction the several ofenders, or any of them, of the following description,

The person or persons who manusactured the paper on which the bills are printed. The perion or perions who engraved the plate.

The printer or printers of the bills. Every person who has afted as principal in any in the counterfeiting and uttering the faid
